latter's indisputable mastery over the American veterans has caused despair of the development of promising opponents for him here by the time the next tournament is held. For this reason it has been decided to invade Europe, asking

Edward Horemans of Belgium has been showing great ability as a ball-line player and his frequent runs of 200 and more have stamped him as one of the very few players who might have a chance against Hoppe.

THE RING. Wilde Wins. Jersey City, Feb. 19—Jimmy Wilde, of England, world's featherweight boxing champion, scored a knockout over Mickey Russell, a local bantamweight, when the latter's manager acknowledged his finish in the seventh round. The match was for eight rounds.

In Second Round. Edmonton, Alta., Feb. 19—Tommy Giddens knocked out Jack Reeves of San Francisco in the second round here tonight.

Fortune for Battler. Chicago, Feb. 20—"Bat" Nelson, former lightweight champion, was named chief beneficiary of the $250,000 estate of Matthew Nelson, his father, whose will yesterday was filed for probate. The will leaves $250,000 to "Bat" and distributes the residue equally among his five brothers. It is said a large part of the estate was in realty ring earnings of the former champion entrusted to the father for safe keeping.

BASEBALL. Joins Boston. Boston, Feb. 19—Fielder John Sullivan of the New Orleans League baseball club was signed today by the Boston Nationals. Sullivan batted .300 last season.

Bennie Kauff's Case. New York, Feb. 20—Indictments charging Bennie Kauff, star outfielder of the New York Giants, with grand larceny in the first degree and with criminally receiving stolen property, were handed to Judge Wechsung yesterday. A bench warrant was issued for his arrest and he will be arraigned this afternoon.

Baker Says He Will Quit. Easton, Md., Feb. 17—Speaking through the partly opened door of his quarantined home today, Frank Baker said that since the death of his wife he has positively determined to quit baseball for good. This is absolute and final, he says notwithstanding the many articles appearing in the daily papers to the contrary.

"The death of Mrs. Baker," he says, "killed all chances of me ever playing baseball again. There has been more or less talk throughout the country about my playing this year with the New York club, but please state for me that there is no possible chance of my donning the uniform. Since the death of my wife I have lost heart and interest in the game and feel I could not do justice to myself or the club under the circumstances."

announced today that he had returned unsigned his 1920 contract, calling for a salary of $10,000.

Roush said he had not decided whether to ask for $15,000 for his work next season. He also is said to be opposed to the southern training season at Miami, Fla., preferring to remain on his farm at Oakland City, Ind. He did not make the training trip last season.

Signs Schang Brothers. Baltimore, Feb. 17—Manager Dunn today announced the signing of the two brothers, several seasons.
