LOCAL NEWS

HOLY NAME MEETING.
At the monthly meeting of the Holy Name Society held last evening, the spiritual advisor, Rev. A. W. Mesher, addressed a very large gathering on Church History, dwelling particularly with the period of Martin Luther and touching on his teachings and those of his followers, and their relations to the Catholic church.

NAVYMEN RETURN HOME.
A squad of English bluejackets sailed on the Empress of Ireland for England on Friday. There were about seventy officers and men in the company and they were from the English navy station at Esquimaux, having been relieved of their duties there by a party which was sent out from England a little more than a month ago.

THIS EVENING'S CONCERT.
Among those who will take part in the grand concert and orchestra recital in the Every Day Club hall, Union street, this evening are: G. S. Mayes, Jas. Garrett, Tylian Mile Quartette, Stephen Mathews, Edwin Bonnell, Matthew Morris, and D. J. Gallagher, solo cornetist of the City Cornet Band. The E. D. C. orchestra (fourteen instruments) will play three special concert numbers. Miss Worthington will be accompanist, and Prof. W. C. Bowden, conductor.

MARRIED MEN ADMITTED.
For the last twelve years the St. Peter's Y. M. A. has been conducted for single men only, but the constitution has been altered recently, so that married men will be admitted as associate members. This change has taken place as the result of many requests from "old boys" who have joined the Benedict ranks, but who still cherish a hearty interest in the welfare of the Y. M. A. and under the new change it is expected that many will return to membership.

F.M.A. DEBATE TONIGHT.
In the rooms of the Father Mathew Association this evening the following question will be discussed: "Resolved that the east affords better opportunities for the young man, born and living in the east, than does the west." The affirmative side will be upheld by Alfred Barclay, W. J. P. Gallagher and Jas. B. Dever, while the negative party will be composed of Messrs. Wm. F. Higgins, J. J. Simmons, and H. McHugh. It is expected that a large number of members will be present.

WHOEVER GAVE HIM THE LIQUOR IS REAL OFFENDER

Case in Police Court Calls For Comment From Judge Ritchie

Three prisoners faced Judge Ritchie this morning in the police court charged with drunkenness, and all of them—Joseph Smith, Ernest Hart and Frank Cavanaugh—were remanded. The latter is an eighteen year old boy, who has been before the court on previous occasions on the same charge. His Honor this morning commented on the fact that the police had not brought to court the real offender, the man who had supplied the youth with liquor.

No one should give a young fellow like that liquor, as it can plainly be seen that he is only a minor," said His Honor. The matter whether he secured the liquor in a barroom or from a friend from a bottle, the offense is committed by the giver, as well as the receiver, and it can be classed as nothing short of shameful and disgraceful.

John O'Brien, charged with stealing a horse and carriage from Samuel Seely, was allowed to go at once, and Frank E. S. Ritchie appeared for him, and said that there had been no intention of theft, as the young fellow, who was working for Seely, had merely taken the rig from one barn, and after driving it for a couple of hours, had placed it in another owned by his employer.

JACK FROST SEALS RIVER

The St. John Closed and Ice Bridge is Expected to be Fit For Travelling by Tonight

Navigation of the river, which ceased some days ago, has been officially closed Jack Frost having sealed up the big stream with a thickness of ice which is expected to permit of travelling on the glassy surface by tonight.

In the vicinity of Gagetown the ice is already quite solid and is even firm down to Oak Point. At the head of the Reach it was believed the ice was from half an inch to an inch thick and it was anticipated that there would be crossing at Wickham and Hamptons by tomorrow. The closing is some days in advance of last year. On December 9 last year the tug Maggie M. went up to Public Landing returning that evening with an excursion party. On the same date the tug Joseph came down from Fredericton. It became colder on the following day and ice commenced to make at Fredericton. On the 11th the ferry steamer Maggie Miller came in from her route on the Kennebecasis.

STANDARD CAUGHT AGAIN

A few days ago the Standard published a paragraph, the object of which was apparent, stating that a portrait of Sir Wilfrid Laurier had been exposed for sale in a King street window for some time and finally, no one wanting it, had been relegated to the back shelf. The fact is, as might easily have been learned, that the portrait was purchased by a member of the Liberal party and has a permanent place in his home.

SUDDEN DEATH OF THOS. HOBEN IN CHICAGO SUNDAY

Former Superintendent of Canada Eastern Railway—Mrs. H. M. Hopper of St. John a Daughter

A telegram was received last night announcing the sudden death, in Chicago, of Thomas A. Hoben, of Gibson, York county, late assistant superintendent of the Canada Eastern branch of the I. C. R. The message came to his daughter, Mrs. H. M. Hopper, King street east, who was a great shock as Mr. Hoben had apparently been in good health. Heart trouble is given as the cause.

Mr. Hoben was superannuated by the government road only a few weeks ago and left with his wife to spend the winter in Chicago with his son, Rev. Allan Hoben of the faculty of the University of Chicago. They were accompanied by their daughter, Mrs. W. R. Robinson, of west St. John and her son, Thomas. Mrs. Robinson is now in St. Luke's hospital, Chicago, where she recently underwent a successful operation, but she will not be discharged from the hospital for several weeks.

Mr. Hoben leaves, besides his wife, who has been an invalid for several years, one son, Dr. Allan Hoben, and three daughters, Mrs. G. H. Coburn, of Chicago, Mrs. Robinson and Mrs. Hopper. Mrs. James Curry, of Gagetown, is a sister. Previous to the taking over of the Canadian Eastern road by the I. C. R. Mr. Hoben was superintendent for a long period, and continued to hold office under the government as assistant until he was superannuated. On the occasion of his retirement, he was made the recipient of a purse of gold and an address by the employees, with whom he was very popular.

The body will be brought here on Thursday, accompanied by his son, and will be taken to Gagetown for interment.

MONEY STOLEN AND RETURNED

Theft in Brussels Street Store is Followed by Restitution

On Saturday afternoon, about 4.30 o'clock, a colored man entered the grocery store kept by Miss Jessie McLanahan at 28 Brussels street, and while she was in the rear of the store, helped himself to the contents of the glass bowl, which was used for a cash receptacle. There was not a very large amount of money in it, mostly silver coins in smaller denominations, but it was all taken by the negro, who immediately departed.

His conscience evidently smote him later in the evening for it was not long before he returned the money. The matter had, however, been reported to the police, and it is possible that an arrest may be made.

THOUGHT THAT HE WAS BEING OVER CHARGED

He Wanted Blue Stamp to "Send Letter on Chatham"

The following little incident happened on Sunday afternoon in a store where postage stamps are sold. In the store a man wanted stamps. One of them asked for a blue stamp, and placed on the counter a cent. He handed the stamp to his letter, he walked to the door and placed it in the letter box. The other man, a French Canadian, asked for a "stamp," and as he did not name the price, or color, the vendor asked him where he wanted to send his letter to. The answer he got to his inquiry was: "I want to send letter on Chatham."

"You want a two cent stamp," said the clerk, and as he spoke, he handed the purchaser one and again said, "this is two cents."

Evidently the Frenchman was mixed. He said to the clerk: "What for you ask me two cents for that? I want a blue stamp. You think he goes I got some money, eh, and pay you two cents for that thing."

He stepped back from the counter, and walked to the door. Just at this part of the play a gentleman in the store, who had been amused by the transaction, told the Frenchman that the kind of "blue" stamps he was after could be had at the corner store. The Frenchman turned round to him and said, "I want the stamp for letter on Chatham. I know what I want, this fellow won't give me the blue stamp. I ask him for and plenty more store sell them too," and he took his departure to purchase a blue stamp to carry his letter to Chatham.

WILL OF SERGT. ROSS

This and Two Other Matters Before The Probate Court Today

In the probate court today the will of Police Sergeant Jacob Ross was proved. He gives all his estate to his wife, Emma, and nominates her as executrix. She was accordingly sworn in as such. There is no real estate; personally, $2,000 and $1,000. Life insurance, J. B. M. Baxter, K. C. is executor.

In the matter of the estate of Mary Shea, spinster, there was a return of a citation to pass the accounts of Charles D. Treuman, the administrator. The accounts were passed as presented, but there being a claim of Julia Lane which part disputed and which is now before the supreme court, the matter was adjourned until Monday next pending an agreement which may be arrived at, no decree being in the meantime made. E. T. C. Knowles is proctor for the administrator, John A. Barry, proctor for the creditor.

The will of Julia Elvira Spiller, spinster, was proved. She gives her real estate, subject to a mortgage held by her brother, Frederick M. Spiller for $1,000 to her brothers Samuel, Charles, Sanford Broad and Frederick M. Spiller, also in like manner her household goods and effects, and she appoints her brother Frederick M. Spiller to be executor. He and Samuel Charles having predeceased her, the next of kin petitioned in favor of the appointment of G. Earle Logan as administrator with the will annexed. He was duly sworn in. Real estate is $2,000 subject to such mortgage; personal estate, $200. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C. is proctor.

Hon. W. W. Vivian, and his sister, Hon. Violet Vivian, were passengers on the Empress of Ireland, sailing Friday from this port.
