

without this, the responsibility connected with the Christian Journal would be greater than could be sustained. Now, dear Brethren, you must begin to act immediately in this matter, as there is no time to lose, if the measure is to succeed.

And now, dear Brethren, we commence another Connexional year. Let us be faithful to our principles and to each other, as a people that God has blessed, and look for greater things, and by the grace of our Lord we shall have them. Our joys will increase: we shall be blessed in our union as Primitive Methodists and Christians: our households will rise up and call us blessed; and by and by we shall be called, by our honored Jesus, to the Happy Land of the blessed, where all fare well.

Wishing you and yours, dear Friends, every temporal and spiritual blessing for life and immortality, we remain yours in one common Lord and Master.
“ Finally, Brethren, farewell.”

Signed by order of the Conference,

WILLIAM ROWE, PRESIDENT.

JOHN GARNER, SECRETARY.

Ebenezer Chapel, Etobicoke, April 20, 1860.
