

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

HOUSES TO LET.—See adv.

TRINITY WANTED.—See adv.

DROWNED.—News of the drowning, at Miramichi, of Mr. John O'Malley, formerly a ship chandler agent at Chatham, has been received here.

BOOK BINDING.—Persons having manuscripts, or other periodicals, to be bound, or to be rebound, or any similar work, can have their orders attended to at the Advance office, where information as to styles, prices, etc., may be obtained.

MEDICAL.—The list of McGill graduates in medicine has been made public. There are fifty-six in all. James Hayes, of New Brunswick, was first honor. Other graduates are R. F. Glendening, of Nova Scotia, D. Jack, N. McNally, and J. N. Peaks, of Fredericton.

THE GREEN EYED MONSTER appears to be gaining very hard in certain quarters. If we are to judge from the items respecting the "hamber commission," etc. We hope the poor creature will be able to effect the sale of his wares and have his wares getting out of the blackly blacked hole into which he says he wishes he had never come.

GOOD WIVES.—Mr. Edward Johnson has the famous Sporting pen for sale. It is the best known for bookkeepers and business correspondence, having a fine but easy-running point, just sufficiently flexible for pretty writing, and more durable than any other pen in the market. It is especially designed for schools, because of its clean work.

SINGULAR EVENT.—A frame dwelling on the hillside at McKersport, Pa., was carried from its foundation by a land slide one day last week and deposited on the roof of the Methodist church below. The house took fire from a stove. The flames spread to the church, thence to adjoining buildings on both sides, destroying the church, two houses, six dwellings and a livery stable. Total loss, $50,000.

ECUMINICAL LIGHT.—It is said that Mr. Kenneth McMillan yesterday morning received notice by telegram from Ottawa of his appointment as keeper of Esquimaux Light etc. Mr. Carter, the former keeper, and his family left Chatham only on Tuesday for the Point, it being understood that no change was to be made. There seems to be a good deal of "ability" shuffling in the management of both Marine and Fishery matters in this country.

GOOD BUSINESS.—The Canada Eastern railway, has, under manager Snowball's supervision, made the best showing this past three months of any of its history. There has been a great amount of traffic on both ends of the road, especially in lumber of different kinds. It has been quite a help to the traffic over the Fredericton branch, which has also had a successful winter.—Fredericton Herald.

SCOTT ACT.—A complaint of Inspector Manning, Henry Murray of Newcastle has been filed $100 and costs for a second offence under the Canada Temperance Act. It is said that he has appealed to the Supreme Court. Mr. John Jardine of the Weekly Herald, Newcastle, has paid $20 under an information laid by the inspector. Both cases were before Police Magistrate McCleary of Chatham.

"AURORA."—The government station, Aurora, will be sold at Fredericton, on Wednesday, the 23rd inst., at 12 o'clock noon. Aurora is by Daniel Lambert, 102; dam, Nancy Jackson, by Snowball Jackson, son of Williamson's Black Hawk, and is considered one of the best Morgan stallions in existence. He has been used to trot and trot fast. Some of his colts have brought handsome prices, one bred at Canterbury and now in Manitoba has had $1,000. Those seeking good horses should not miss this chance to buy.

DEPUTIES are fashionable. A Charlotte town, P. E. I. dispatch of 29th ult. says:—"In the legislature yesterday Premier Poirer tabled the report of the provincial auditor for the year 1891. While the report is not a very voluminous document, it certainly is a very interesting one. It appears from the tabulated statement of the auditor that the receipts during the year from all sources amounted to $74,067, and the expenditure was $24,488, $31,561 in excess of the estimate. The difference between the revenue and expenditure is $30,439. If this deficit is added to the balance against the province the previous year, the total indebtedness on the 31st December last foots up $183,236.

THE MURRAY INTEREST.—In the matter of the estate of Mr. William Murray, of Chatham, the appointment of a trustee in the place of Hon. Allan Ritchie, who had resigned, came up before His Honor Judge Tuck this morning. Mr. W. F. Galt, of Chatham, the appointment of a trustee in the place of Hon. Allan Ritchie, who had resigned, came up before His Honor Judge Tuck this morning. Mr. W. F. Galt, of Chatham, the appointment of a trustee in the place of Hon. Allan Ritchie, who had resigned, came up before His Honor Judge Tuck this morning.

CONGRATULATIONS.—The Fredericton Farmer publishes congratulations sent from different parts of the province to Judge Hastings—amongst them being the following from Chatham:—CHATHAM, March 23th. Accept my congratulations on your appointment.

ERNEST HUTCHISON, CHATHAM, March 23th. Accept sincere congratulations on your appointment to Supreme Court judgeship.

D. H. SMITH, CHATHAM, March 23th. Accept my hearty congratulations on your appointment.

R. A. LAWSON, CHATHAM, March 23th. Accept our heartfelt congratulations.

W. C. WINSLOW, W. C. WINSLOW, CHATHAM, March 23th. Accept our heartfelt congratulations.

Downtown Notes.

APRIL 2. Teams are coming out of the woods, having made a good winter's work, as the weather has been all that could be wished for.

The lumbermen are hauling supplies to the woods for another year, as the condition of the roads is more favorable now than it will be in the next month.

Henry and Frank Swin have the contract for building the Donald's Bridge. H. Swin is hauling the large stuff to his mill for sawing into long timber.

Miss Miller, our teacher, has left her school, to be married to Mr. Hamilton. It is expected Miss Fisher will take her place as teacher.

The remains of Allen Dink were placed home from St. John and interred in the Downtown burying ground.

Alexander Allison died and was interred in the Downtown burying ground.

He was a native of Sweden and had made a small farm near Doaktowa.

Mrs. William Murray, who has been ill about two months is recovering.

Mr. Joseph Dupuy had a remarkable escape from two constables that were conveying him to jail. They had got to Blackville, and by dint of hard running he got away in a very exhausted condition. Joe is a good runner.

Mr. Samuel Freeze's mill has started up saving pine for ash and door material for shipment to Nova Scotia.

Mr. Watson, a Scotch sportsman, has gone into the Duganovs camp, under the guidance of Mr. Underhill.

What is lacking is truth and confidence. If there were absolute truth on the one hand and absolute confidence on the other, it wouldn't be necessary for the makers of Dr. Sagar's Remedy to back their plan statement of fact by a $500 guarantee. They say—"If we can't cure you (make it personal), please of catarrh in the head, in any form or stage, we'll pay you $500 if you trouble in making the trial." An advertising fake, you say. Funny, isn't it, how some people prefer sickness to health when the remedy is positive and the guarantee absolute. Wise men don't pay money for "fakes." And "faking" doesn't pay.

Magical little granules—those tiny, sugar-coated Pellets of Dr. Pierce—scarcely larger than mustard seeds, yet powerful to cure—active yet mild in operation. The best Liver Pills ever invented. Cure sick headache, dizziness, constipation. One a dose.

The Legislators.

JUDGE HANINGTON.

FREDERICTON, March 20.—The announcement that Hon. D. L. Hanington would deliver his valedictory to the legislature this afternoon attracted a big audience to the assembly. During his address, which was frequently interrupted with applause, Mr. Hanington was listened to with the closest attention. He reviewed briefly the political history of the province for the last quarter of a century, and mentioned the events with which he has been closely related. His part in the politics of the country he never regretted, and he now left the House without the least personal feeling towards any member. He referred to the people of this country in the most flattering terms and tendered them his heartfelt thanks for their generous hospitality during the many years he has spent in their midst. With the exception of Hon. W. E. Peirce he was the senior member of the House. He strongly advised the young men of the country to make their study, for, he said, "if the country is worth living in it is worth helping to govern well." Although he had now been advanced to a higher and more responsible position in the judiciary of the province, he would ever esteem as his highest honor and greatest pride the confidence of the people of the noble country of Westmorland had so continuously trusted him for the last twenty-one years.

Hon. Mr. Blair, in reply, paid a high eulogium upon Hon. Mr. Hanington, both as a member of the assembly and on his great ability as a lawyer.

CONVICTS COUNCIL.

MARCH 31.—Dr. Taylor committed a bill which proposed to make it optional with the county council of Kings to decide at the county meeting whether or not the convicts should be held, and also to make it optional with the council after next election to decide by law whether or not elections shall be held annually as at present or bi-annually. Dr. Taylor said that when the bill came before the municipalities committee there was a unanimous feeling in having it apply to every county in the province except St. John, where it could not well be applied because some members of the city council were also members of the municipal council, by virtue of the fact that they were aldermen. It was, therefore, proposed to amend the bill in accordance with the feeling of the municipalities committee and make it apply to all counties except St. John.

Hon. Mr. Blair said if there was a general feeling in the bill, he would not have any objection to its principle. He thought, however, that the legislature should determine whether or not elections should be held every year or bi-annually, and not leave it optional with the county council to decide that matter. If the legislators did not settle that point the result would be that some counties would have elections annually and others bi-annually.

Mr. Peirce said he was in favor of biennial elections, but opposed the abolition of June sessions.

Mr. Speaker said the bill did not propose to abolish June sessions. It is optional with the council at any meeting to say whether or not there should be a June session. He could not agree with Mr. Blair that the legislature should determine the question as to whether or not the elections should be held every two years. By leaving that question optional with the council every county could manage its own affairs without in any way interfering with any other county.

Mr. Barrill agreed with Mr. Blair that the legislators should decide whether or not there should be biennial sessions, otherwise a council could rescind the by-law of a previous council, and the result might be that a county would adopt biennial elections for a time, then return to annual elections, and in this way there might be general confusion.

Mr. Russell agreed with the views of Messrs. Blair and Barrill, and Mr. Porter expressed his opinion with leave to sit again.

ST. ANDREW'S CHATHAM.

Hon. Mr. Tweedie committed a bill, Mr. Hetherington in the chair, relating to the meetings of the Saint Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Chatham.

Agreed to with an amendment.

GLOUCESTER JAIL, ETC.

Hon. Mr. Blair committed a bill to authorize the Gloucester municipality to issue debentures for the erection of jail and court house, and to alter the time of holding the election for county councillors in Gloucester county. Mr. Porter in the chair.

Agreed to the former with amendments.

Hon. Mr. Pughley from the corporation Hon. Mr. Tweedie from the law practice and procedure. Mr. Barrill from the stand. Municipalities committee submitted reports.

Hon. Mr. Blair introduced a bill to authorize the appointment of a commission to examine into and report upon the general subject of laws regulating the assessment of rates and taxes throughout the province, and municipal taxation generally.

THE BLIND.

Hon. Mr. Mitchell committed a bill relating to the education of the blind, Mr. Palmer in the chair. Mr. Mitchell explained that the object of the bill was to place the education of the blind in the province on a legal basis. It was proposed that the $110 a year per pupil for the education and maintenance of those attending the Halifax school for the blind from this province, one half should be paid out of the county school fund and one half out of the provincial treasury. At present there was 13 pupils attending the school from New Brunswick. The bill provided that this provision should apply only to those blind children whose parents were not able to pay for their education and maintenance. Hon. Mr. Mitchell said the government would willingly make the bill apply to all New Brunswick blind children.

der dominion or imperial incorporation to do business in the province. Dr. Lewis in the chair. Agreed to with amendments.

Mr. Blair, in reply, said that the bill was not intended to incorporate the province with the New Brunswick dental act of 1890. Mr. Hibbard in the chair. Progress was reported.

The house adjourned till Monday afternoon.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE ADJOURNED TILL MONDAY AFTERNOON.

FREDERICTON, April 4.—Hon. Mr. Blair, by command of the lieutenant governor, laid on the table a letter received by his honor from A. A. Stockton, M. P., a memorial signed by 12 members of the legislature, in which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE ATTORNEY GENERAL'S ANSWER.

Hon. Mr. Blair, on rising, was received with applause. He said that he rose to read a memorial which had been presented to him at the conclusion of his remarks, to move a resolution. It would naturally be expected that the memorial would be read, which he addressed the house, he should do so with some feeling. It was within the recollection of the house that it was from the opening of the session one or more members of the opposition had been.

THE HOUSE AD