Oscar Knudson, who has also passed under the name of John Johnston, came here last week in an American yacht. He came ashore Saturday night and got drunk. The captain paid him off Sunday and refused to take him dollars and appeared in court Monday morning looking for a rebate but did not get it. The next the police heard of Knudson was early this morning when Officer Marshall was called to where Knudson was handed over to him on a charge of stealing a dresshotel with the suit case. He is also supposed to have stolen ten dollars, the property of Sarah Hesketh and $1.50 from Bessie Kennedy. Among his possessions was a suit of clothes that he purchased yesterday from a local firm and did not pay for. His case is being heard this after-
