

titude for the education there received. Unlike too many, he kept up his classical knowledge to the very last, being always engaged in the critical study of some Greek or Latin author, and especially of the New Testament, which he daily read in the original Greek. For more than half a century he filled the important office of Prothonotary and Clerk of the Crown, in such a manner as to secure the unbounded respect and confidence of the Bench and Bar, and the community at large.

The Rev. R. F. UNIACKE, Rector of St. George's, Halifax, entered College in the year 1814, and always retained an affectionate remembrance of his residence there, and of his Reverend Instructors. The universal regret at his departure, felt and expressed by all classes throughout the Province, and especially by the Congregation over whom he presided for about forty-five years, is the best certificate of the way in which he exemplified in his life and conversation, the lessons he received in his early youth. His father, formerly Attorney General of the Province, was among the earliest and most active members of the Board of Governors.

ANTHONY BARCLAY, Esq., formerly H. B. M. Consul at New York, is now the oldest Alumnus, dating his connexion from 1805.

J. C. COCHRAN, M. A.,

Halifax, August, 1870.

Secretary.