

HAZEN GOVERNMENT WILL FILL VACANT POSITIONS

Hon. Mr. Robinson Says He Has Not Considered What He Will Do About It--Mr. Hazen Takes the Ground That Outgoing Government Cannot Make the Appointments--New Premier Receives Congratulations from All Points.

The question as to whether the vacant offices in the gift of the provincial government would be filled before the Robinson administration resigned is just now a matter of considerable public interest. Hon. C. W. Robinson when asked by The Telegraph's Moncton correspondent last evening said he had not yet really considered the matter and was not prepared to make any public statement.

It was well understood yesterday that if the retiring government did see fit to make appointments the incoming administration would not confirm them and they would have to be vacated.

All day Wednesday Mr. Hazen was receiving congratulations on his magnificent victory of Tuesday. They came from far and near.

Among the telegrams received by Mr. Hazen were the following: Toronto. All the friends of good government rejoice with the people of New Brunswick and yourself in the remarkable manifestation of public opinion yesterday. Personally you have a great opportunity before you.

J. S. HARDING WAS ON STRANDED COAST

St. John Man Returning from Porto Rico Had Unwelcome Experience

STRUCK IN THICK FOG

No Danger, He Says, and Steamer Was Floated Before Many Hours--Tells of Prosperity in Porto Rico Along Various Lines of Industry.

J. S. Harding, who returned to the city on the Boston train Thursday, was one of the passengers on the New York and Porto Rican S. S. Company's steamer Coamo, which went ashore on Jones' Beach of Long Island, on Monday morning last. He and a party who are interested in the Porto Rican Railway Company had been to Porto Rico inspecting the company's property and six of the number were on the Coamo when she went ashore.

Despite reports to the contrary, Mr. Harding says that at no time were the 14 passengers in danger, but had a wind sprang up the vessel would doubtless have gone to pieces as she was very heavily laden and the sands would have piled around her and prevented her being drawn off.

The steamer is of 5,000 tons. The voyage from Porto Rico was uneventful until she was struck by a heavy sea on Monday morning. The captain could not get the sun during these days and he lost his bearings. The steamer was on Monday morning the steamer went ashore.

Her sirens soon brought the life saving maining. The vessel was where she was when the coast guard informed the owners in New York and they sent tug boats. The tug arrived at the steamer's side at 5 p. m. and the ship's crew were rescued. She proceeded under her own steam to New York where she arrived Tuesday morning practically without damage.

In the party who went to inspect the Porto Rican railway were W. R. Johnston and W. D. Ross, of Toronto; W. M. Aitken, Thornton Davidson and F. H. McGuggan, late of the Grand Trunk Railway of Montreal; P. S. Archibald, of Moncton; J. E. Wood and W. R. McCurdy, of Halifax, and Mr. Harding. Mrs. Aitken accompanied her husband and Mr. Davidson and her sister, Miss Hayes, accompanied Mr. Davidson. After the visit to Porto Rico, Mr. Davidson and his wife and Miss Hayes went to Cuba, Mr. and Mrs. Aitken and General Durr and Mr. Archibald returned home a week ago and the party took the Coamo for New York.

Porto Rico Prosperous. Asked as to conditions in Porto Rico, Mr. Harding was most optimistic over the prospects in that country and of the Porto Rican Railway Company. The country, he says, is making vast strides under United States rule. Sugar is the largest and most valuable export. The largest sugar estate has 1,000 acres of tobacco under chest and 3,000 sacks of 350 pounds daily for five months in the year. Tobacco exports are valued at $1,000,000. The export of cigars from Porto Rico last year was 128,000,000 and 50,000,000 were consumed on the island. There were 400,000,000 to 500,000,000 cigars manufactured.

The population of the island is hard to get at, Mr. Harding says, but at the last election there were 300,000 men and much improved under American occupation. The last census of the island, $1,000,000, 100 per cent of tobacco under chest and 3,000 sacks of 350 pounds daily for five months in the year. Tobacco exports are valued at $1,000,000. SOCIAL REFORM CHURCH

Proposal of English Preacher, Rev. R. J. Campbell

Would Organize All the Free Churches--The Minister's Aims as Told by Himself--Has Visited This Country and Preached in Boston.

London, March 4--Rev. R. J. Campbell, the pastor of City Temple, publishes a letter addressed to all free churches and other sympathizers, proposing to form a new sect and organization for an active propaganda in behalf of his "New Theology," the central idea of which is the denial of the Divine origin of Christ, whom he regards as a social reformer. Rev. Mr. Campbell's reason for this step, he says, is that he regards as the new movement.

John Campbell is the son of a Methodist minister at Boston in Nottinghamshire. He was a feeble child, sickly, afflicted with weak heart and weaker lungs. So frail that he was frequently unable to get on his feet or to make him play a round of golf or take a walk around the farm.

Mr. Campbell visited America in 1903, and preached in Boston in June at Tremont Temple. He is now a young man, being now but forty years old.

Both bride and groom are natives of Cambridge and well known in this province. Miss Briggs was formally a teacher in the Sussex grammar school, and Dr. Maclean practised dentistry in Milltown (N. B.), prior to going to West Africa. They are followed by the best wishes of hosts of friends.

TALKS OF CONTEST IN WESTMORLAND

F. B. Black and A. W. Bennett, of Skerville, were at the Royal Thursday.

Mr. Black was one of the opposition candidates in Westmorland county in Tuesday's election. He is in the contest, he said that it was as far as he could judge, conducted on pure lines by both sides. He attributed the defeat of the opposition almost entirely to the influence of the railway vote in Moncton, Dorchester and Shediac parishes. The other parishes in the county gave the opposition a 800 majority but Mr. Bennett said, "I was very strong in the three mentioned places."

Mr. Black said that he found that in the county districts feeling against the late administration was very high. He expressed himself as delighted at the immense majorities given Mr. Hazen's supporters in the centres of population. In answer to a question as to whether he would offer himself as a candidate in the next election he said that he would be repelled laughingly that the matter was too distant in the future to say, but that the opposition had not the least idea of giving up the struggle in Westmorland county.

In conclusion Mr. Black paid a compliment to the Telegraph and Times, saying he had no doubt that the very able, thorough and dispassionate manner in which these papers had discussed the issues of the campaign had had a very good effect on the result.

W. B. Dickson, one of the two new M. P.'s from Albert was also in the city Thursday on business. He said that the government party in that county had failed to sign the party agreement. For all that he thought the election had been a fairly clean one. He said he regarded Mr. Hazen's victory as a triumph in the cause of good government and economic administration.

IF YOU SLEEP POORLY, READ THIS!

The sleep is the golden thread that binds together the well being of the whole system. Without sleep there can be no confidence. A poor sleep leads to great danger--something is wrong--perhaps digestion, but soon enough the blood will grow larger, and anaemia will step in. Don't resort to narcotics or sleeping powders--they are of course, wrong--they only give you a momentary relief, but they do not cure the disease. Go straight to the cause of the trouble, and the cure will be found. There with the nourishment that Ferroneze contains. It's Nature's plan that never was a poor sleeper that Ferroneze could cure.
