ng the police to be on the lookout for m. He is described as follows: Twenty-one years of age, 5 feet 4 inches in height, weighs 140 pounds, has grey eyes, fat face, clean shaven, has red cheeks and broad shoulders, hair blonde or brown, of straight build, head slightly stooped, when walking. He has a very short neck, and on Saturday was wearing a dark brown suit with a blue thread running through it. He had no vest, and his body was white shirt. His hair was parted on the left side, and he had on a hard black hat.

May Have Been Robbed.
It is not exactly known what the cause of the quarrel was, but it is thought to have been over a girl, with whom both had been keeping company. However, Sircusa's gold watch and chain and a roll of money which he was known to have are missing, which looks as though he had been robbed also.

The wound is just at the base of the skull and was evidently made by a small sharp instrument. A large sized stick was found lying on the floor of the outside room, but no trace of blood could be found on this. Rose was formerly employed with John DeAngelis in his shoe shining store on King street, but later he has worked at the New Brunswick Cold Storage plant.
He was formerly employed as a clerk in Sircusa's store and has boarded with him for some time past. Upon inquiry at the hospital at a late hour last night it was learned that the injured man was likely to die at any time.

Thursday, June 28.

Andrew Rosa, the twenty-one-year-old Italian who, it is alleged, so brutally assaulted his fellow countryman, M. Diego Sircusa, in the latter's home in North street, at an early hour Sunday, was captured by Detective Killen at Westford station soon before 8 o'clock yesterday morning. He was in a terribly discon-dition when arrested. Detective Killen handcuffed him and brought him immediately to the city. Questioned by the detective, he admitted throwing away a .22 calibre revolver out the Marine road. On his arrival here he was taken to the spot, in company with the detective and Policeman Gosline, and half way between the one mile and three mile houses the loaded revolver was found. He is also said to have admitted that he struck his companion with the intention of "knocking his brains out." He had in his possession when arrested, a gold watch and chain, as well as $75, believed to be the property of his victim.

had been behind the counter and had stolen some money. Mr. Dalton went to the door of the shop and saw a boy running down Harrison street. Policeman Hamm happened along and after hearing the facts, started to work at once on the case, and within an hour's time he had both boys behind the bars in the North End station. They were found at their homes, in bed. They at first denied all knowledge of the affair, but the police say, when pressed, practically admitted their guilt. The Quinlan boy took Policeman Hamm to a vacant lot on the Strait Shore where $50 of the money was found. After arrival at the police station, he said he knew where the remainder of the money was. He was taken back again, and in another vacant lot on the shore, the remaining $25 was found. From what could be learned, the police believe that Quinlan was the prime mover in the robbery, and the charge against him on the police books reads as follows: "Arrested on suspicion of having stolen $75 from the store of W. J.
Dalton, Main street, on Saturday night."
Gallagher is being held as a witness.
It is thought that there is a third party implicated, but so far the police have been unable to find him. Quinlan sides with his parents on the Strait Shore, and Gallagher lives in Sheriff street. Policeman Hamm is receiving much praise for the prompt and efficient way in which the matter was cleared up. The boys will likely be brought before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning.

is thought went directly to the falls, none of the guards noticing him at all. The ground. He was not missed from the institution until about an hour afterwards, when some one telephoned to the hospital to ask if anyone from there had committed suicide by jumping into the falls. Inquiries were made at each of the different wards, and it was found that he was the only man missing. Men were sent out in every direction to look for him, but to no avail.
He was a very quiet patient and never gave the doctors or attendants any trouble.
Superintendent Anglin, speaking of the affair last night, said: "O'Neil was the very last patient I ever thought would take his life in such a manner. He was such a quiet old man that no one would ever think he had any suicidal intent."

The deceased is survived by one son, who resides in Restigouche county. It is thought that the remains may be picked up in a day or so at some point along the river. A report reached the city late yesterday saying that a man's body had been found, but upon investigation there proved to be no truth in the rumor.

AMERICAN OURRAGES

Judge Mabee Scores
the Practice

Says Agents Have No
Right to Question
Passengers

Chairman of Railway Commission Intimates That Railroads Must Make New Arrangements in Regard to Travellers Crossing the Border.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Toronto, June 29—"I won't admit if I have a ticket from Toronto to Niagara Falls (Ont.) that an American officer can properly come aboard the train at St.
Catharines, ask me who I am, where I am going, and a lot of other questions."
With this emphatic statement, Chairman J. P. Mabee, of the railway commission, expressed his view of the arrangement the railways have with the United States government by which United States immigration officers board Canadian trains and examine passengers in Canadian territory.
"Then can do what they like across the border," said the chairman, "but it's not the proper thing here."

Edward Beatty, of the C. P. R., urged that the railway's aim was to cure the evil of carrying undesirable.

The chairman thought that the railway's fear of being penalized for carrying undesirables across the line had something to do with it. "The main reason into question is why we don't see some other system by which those people who are going to cross the border could be designated by the conductor to the officer and not turn this man up on the train," he said.
Mr. Hippen, counsel for the C. N. R., said: "The immigration officer simply asks a passenger if he is going to the States; if he says he is not, that ends it."
"He demands that the passenger show his ticket and if he refuses he is put off the train.
They are doing it repeatedly."

Mr. Hippen—"I have been on trains and heard several discussions between these United States officers and passengers. I was impressed with the courtesy of these men and in the discussions I based I must say that if I was an agent I would have been inclined to punch the passenger's head."

AFTER SAWDUST
DUMPERS IN RIVERS

Domination Inspector of Fisheries Warns Violators
A PECULIAR PLEA

Jones Bros. of Apohaqui, Against Whom Complaint Was Made, Admit That Some Was Washed Into Millstream, Eut Contend They Have to Trust Their Employes.

(Special to The Telegraph.)

Fredrickton, June 29—The dominion inpector of fisheries has recently had several complaints concerning the dumping of sawdust in streams in different parts of the province and particularly with regard to the Kennebecasis river. He has begun to take steps to put a stop to the indiscriminate pollution of the streams about which so much has been said recently.
It seems that many of the offenders have come to the conclusion that because they have not been drastically dealt with in the past they are forever to be permitted to use the streams to carry off the sawdust which they should burn or sell or otherwise dispose of.

The case of Jones Bros., of Apohaqui has been recently under examination. It seems that the attention of the special guards at Norton and Newton has been recently called to sawdust in the Mill stream and the main river below Apohaqui, and an investigation was made. Jones Bros., in reply to a request for an explanation, made a rather peculiar one. They said that the men who have been taking the sawdust from their mill had strict instructions "to put nothing in the stream," "but," they added, "you know a man could not stand there and watch them all the time."
That reads, of course, very much like a plea of guilty. They went on to say that they had a mountain of sawdust on the bank originally, but had burned up a great deal of it during the winter, but they contended, during the week previous to June 23, there was a freshet in the Millstream, due to heavy rains "which undermined the pile and considerable (sawdust) dropped into the stream."
In spite of their contention that it is impossible to watch a man all the time, they added that they had kept particular watch during the last few days and that sawdust had not, since been thrown into the river or allowed to fall into it.
Of course, it is perfectly clear that if any mill owner employs a man to handle sawdust, he can very readily control his actions sufficiently to prevent him dumping it into the river, or so piling it that it will fall in whenever there is a rise of water.
Particularly is this true when the mill owner has been for years familiar with the flow of water in the streams and could tell accurately whether or not the sawdust was properly piled.
During the last year or two complaints of this character have been frequent and bitter, and finally it has been decided that law must be enforced, and that excesses such as have been made hitherto will no longer be accepted. Those who are familiar with the facts have expressed surprise that more drastic action has not been taken long since with regard to many of the streams, which, for years have been ruined by abuses of the kind referred to.

The members of this corps in attendance at the hospital are performing some very efficient services, as they have several patients under their care, to whom they are giving every possible attention. The members of the 19th Field Battery have been so unfortunate as to have furnished three patients in two days for the hospital, received in drill or working about their guns. The last of them was brought in on a stretcher this afternoon after having sprained his ankle in a fall from a musketry instruction has been begun, and parades to the range will be held each day to allow the men to qualify for their efficiency pay. The sub-target guns are being used for instruction, as they are of very valuable aid to aiming and good shooting.
Capt. Paul Hansen, of the 62nd Regi-

CAMP SUSSEX
FULL BLAST

Different Corps Had All-Day
Drills and Manoeuvres Yesterday

Field Artillery Furnishes Three Patients for the Hospital—St. John Police Invasion of the Lines for Escaped Prisoner Caused Some Excitement.

Sussex, June 29—Today was the first busy one at Camp Sussex, for the men encamped there. Everywhere about the grounds one would see a group or detachment of soldiers busily at work attending to their drill, all together presenting a striking spectacle, with men on horseback galloping about; artillerymen drilling on their gun-carriages; army service men making their daily deliveries in their express wagons; squadrons of cavalry busily engaged in performing their drill, and great hosts of infantrymen in their bright, red uniforms marching and wheeling on the high ground.

The signallers also performed attractive drill with their colored flags, numbering about 100, waving and shaking in union at the commands of their instructors.
The weather was all that could be desired, being neither too hot nor too hot, but very favorable to the holding of a continual drill from early morning until late in the afternoon.
Mustard parades and kit inspections were held in almost all the lines today, when a record of the men in camp was taken in order to secure their names for the pay roll.
A medical inspection was also made by Major MacLaren, who found the lines in a very satisfactory condition, with few exceptions. He recommended some improvements in the sanitary state of drains, and these will be carried out at once.

Police Invade Camp.
Some excitement was created in the camp grounds this afternoon when one of the recoats was placed under arrest by Detective P. J. Killen and Policeman John McCollum, of the St. John police force.
The officials arrived in camp a little after noon and, enquiring their way to the lines of the 71st Regiment, took into custody a private known as "John Pitt," but who in reality was Leonard Moore, of St. John, who escaped from the Boys' Industrial Home some months ago. Moore, it is said, has been working in a hotel in Fred-rickton and enlisted with the company of the 71st Regiment coming from that town.
He was taken to St. John last night by the police.
The men in camp seem to be enjoying themselves immensely and have no complaints as yet, concerning rations, as has frequently been the custom. The mess-halls are well kept up, and the food is the men were enabled to eat their meal in comfort instead of, as was the case yesterday, taking their rations without a table or covering.
The members of the Army Medical Corps had rather hard luck this year when opening their mess, as during the winter their tables, left on the grounds, had been burnt by tramps, it is supposed, and they were compelled to begin "housekeeping" anew.

The members of this corps in attendance
are giving every possible attention. The members of the 19th Field Battery have
been so unfortunate as to have furnished
their guns. The last of them was brought
ing sprained his ankle in a fall from a
very valuable aid to aiming and good shooting.
Capt. Paul Hansen, of the 62nd Regiment, St. John, has been attached to the Princess Louise Hussars as paymaster.
It is believed that a man who has been detailed as officer of the day for tomorrow with Lieut. Peake as O. M. O. divisional troops.
An equitation board has been appointed composed of the following officers: Lt.
Col. Wedderburn, Major McDougall and Major Arnold, of the 8th Hussars.
