

2. The capital stock of the said Corporation shall be fifty thousand dollars, to be divided into twelve hundred and fifty shares of forty dollars each, with power to the said Company to increase the same to two hundred thousand dollars, by increasing the number of shares.

3. The first meeting of the stockholders, for the purpose of organizing the said Corporation, shall be called by any two of the said Corporation hereinbefore named, by giving fifteen days notice of the time and place of such meeting in the Royal Gazette, or in some other paper published in the Province.

4. The said Company may, by their agents and servants, enter upon the side or sides of any or all of the public roads, streets, bridges or highways in the Province, through, along, across, or by which the said telegraphic line, or any of its branches and extensions, shall pass, or be required to pass, and on the same erect and construct such and so many posts or other works as they may deem necessary for making, maintaining and using the said Electric Telegraph; and from time to time, as often as the said Company, their agents or servants, shall think proper, break up and open any part of the said roads, streets, or highways, not interfering with that part of the same appropriated for the use of carriages, waggons, or horses, and keep the same open during the time necessary for setting up, erecting and constructing such posts or other works; provided always, that the said Company shall not in any case obstruct any of the said public roads, streets, bridges, or highways, and that the said Company shall and do at their own costs and charges, and without unnecessary delay, repair and amend the said public roads, streets and highways in any part where they shall be so broken up and opened as aforesaid, to the like conditions in which they were before breaking up the same.

5. If it shall at any time be deemed necessary by the said Company, their agents or servants, to carry any part of the said main line of Electrical Telegraph communication, or any of the branches or extensions thereof, through or over any estates, lands, or grounds, being private property, it shall be lawful for the said Company, by their agents or servants, to enter into and upon the lands of any person, bodies politic or corporate, as they shall think necessary for making, com-
