

evening paper, The Nelson Tribune retaining the morning field. This is an illustration of the value of rational cooperation between competitors.

The Ottawa Journal is purchasing a new Hoe press, which will be one of the finest and largest in Canada. The Journal's circulation now approximates 10,000 daily, and is evidently on the upgrade. Few newspapers in Canada can show a steadier or more remarkable progress than The Journal under Mr. Ross.

The Kingston Whig has installed a one and a half horse-power gasoline engine in its composing room, as an auxiliary to its already complete electric power plant. It will be used in an emergency to run the type casting machines.

NEW ENTERPRISES.

A Conservative weekly paper is being started in Liverpool, N.S.

Norman K. Luxton, founder of Vancouver Town Topics, is launching a new weekly, In Black and White, at Victoria.

Patrick Boyle has revived his old Irish Canadian, which is now being published weekly in Toronto.

The Century Christian Co., Limited, with $75,000 capital, has been formed in Toronto to publish a Christian paper to be called The Century Christian, and to carry on a publishing business in all its branches. The members of the company are: Thos. S. Linscott, Rev. R. W. Woods-worth, Jabez Galloway, John D. Ivey, and Geo. G. Mills.

Now Show Your Colors!

Patriotic Flags • •

Series 1

Fonts contain 7 characters No. 1;
13 characters No. 2; 21 characters No. 3;
50 characters No. 4.

Price $2.00 per font.

Maple Leaves • •

"Canada's National Emblem"

Fonts contain 36 characters,
Price $2.00 per font.

Your customers want them. Better order to-day and be prepared.

ADDRESS

TORONTO TYPE FOUNDRY CO., Limited,

OR BRANCHES:

146 Lower Water St., Halifax.
787 Craig St., Montreal.

175 Owen St., Winnipeg.
116 Columbia Ave., Vancouver.

70 York Street, TORONTO.