

pointed under the Insolvent Act of 1864, and to amend the Insolvent Act of 1869.

An Act to continue, for a limited time, the Act therein mentioned.

The following Bill received the Royal Assent on the 14th of April, 1870:

An Act to authorize the apprehension and detention of such persons as shall be suspected of committing acts of hostility or conspiring against Her Majesty's Person and Government.

Then the Honorable the Speaker of the House of Commons addressed His Excellency, the Governor General, as follows:

May it please Your Excellency.

In the name of the Commons, I present to Your Excellency, a Bill intituled, "An Act for granting to Her Majesty, certain sums of money required to defray certain expenses of the Public Service for the Financial Years ending, respectively, the 30th June, 1870, and the 30th June, 1871," to which I humbly request Your Excellency's assent.

To this Bill the Royal Assent was signified in the following words:

In Her Majesty's name, His Excellency the Governor General thanks her loyal subjects, accepts their benevolence, and assents to this Bill.

On leaving the Building the usual honours were paid to His Excellency the Governor-General, and the third Session of the First Parliament of the Dominion was closed.
