

Forget Business Worries-- Play Billiards

UNLESS a man has something interesting to do at home in the evenings he's almost certain to sit and think about his business and its attendant worries. His mind keeps on travelling round and round the same old circle. And that's not good for a man.

But the man with a Burroughes & Watts' English Billiard Table in his home. He has something interesting to do. He plays English billiards—the most fascinating and thrilling of all indoor games—and forgets business.

His mind gets the needed relaxation. He enjoys himself. Gets some excellent exercise. And quits the game feeling bright and cheerful.

Only the man with a billiard table appreciates what a splendid, wholesome and healthful game English billiards is. And only the man with a Burroughes & Watts' table realizes the full possibilities of the game.

Burroughes & Watts' Tables are the only tables with Steel Vacuum Cushions—the fastest and the only absolutely accurate cushions known to science. Rapidé Pockets, too, from which the balls are instantly removable without putting your hands in the pockets.

Other features, too, which we will be glad to tell you about. Many styles and sizes to select from, including combination dining-and-billiard tables, portable tables, also pool tables. Write for particulars, and forget business in the anticipation of soon owning a Burroughes & Watts' Billiard Table.

In Lighter Vein

Diplomacy.—Spectator—"Why don't you rush in and end the row?"
Policeman—"I'm trying to decide whether it's a case for mediation or intervention."—Brooklyn Life.

All Brothers.—"Here's an item in the paper that says King Alfonso of Spain is so addicted to cigarettes that he dislikes to spend an hour at a court function where he is deprived of them."

"Well, well, well! If that doesn't show that after all kings are human like all of us. Why, he might be an American office boy."—Life.

A Thriller.—Every week they gave a new drama of the Wild and Woolly West. The particular play was a blood-curdler of that character, and the stage was pitch dark and two men were fighting a duel. One could hear the knives clash together and the men stumbling around on the stage; but could only faintly distinguish the actors. After a while there was a thump on the floor, and the villain hissed:

"Ah, ha! Rudolph Tetherington, I have you now, and no one nigh to see me do the deed!"

Then the drummer hit the bass drum a blow and the calcium man turned on the light, and away up on a rocky pass the heroine was seen standing.

"Coward!" she cried. "Me and God is here!"—The Argonaut.

His Man of Clay.—Little Jasper Senter learned from the minister's sermon one Sunday that man was made of clay, so after returning from church he resolved to make him a man after his own fashion. The work proceeded in the clay bank back of the garden until his mother called Jasper to luncheon. He had completed all of the man save one leg.

That afternoon Jasper and his mother, while walking along the street, met a man with one leg, walking with crutches. Jasper accosted him and grabbed his coat.

"See here!" he said. "I thought I told you to stay there in the yard till I put that other leg on you."

Rabindranath Tagore.

The bard of Bengal hoary,
Rabindranath Tagore,
By famous song and story
Wins Nobel prize with glory!

Rabindranath Tagore
Has made a splendid score—
Above the loftiest tor
His pegasus will soar.

He's worthy of all fame
So I feel much to blame
In owing to my shame
I can't pronounce his name.

—George B. Morewood, in New York Sun.

A Nagger.—Briggs—"What did your wife say about your staying out so late the other night?"

Griggs—"Don't ask me yet. When she gets through with the subject I'll condense it for you."—Boston Transcript.

Dropped at Last.—A rather unsophisticated woman from one of the back counties took a sea voyage with her niece, and just as the ship glided into harbor one day the good aunt herd a large rattle, a clank, and a splash.

"Look here, mister officer," she cried, turning to the steward, "what has happened?"

"Nothing at all, madam," replied the steward. "We have just dropped the anchor."

"I expected it!" declared aunty, with large emphasis. "It's a wonder that it didn't happen before. The thing has been hanging out there all the morn-ing."
