Mr. Julius Henry Cohen,
111 Broadway,
New York.

My dear Mr. Cohen:

Since my letter to you of Christmas Day, I have received the book which you have so kindly sent, and which, fortunately, turns out to be "The Law: Business or Profession?" Your secretary has written me explaining how the mention of your other book, "Commercial Arbitration and Law", came to be made, instead of the title of the one which you have so kindly forwarded.

I am glad indeed to have so complete a set of your publications, and must congratulate you, not less upon your versatility in writing than upon the excellence of the arrangement and expression of the subjects upon which you write. I shall watch for an early opportunity to acquaint myself with this latest of your publications.

With my renewed thanks, please accept also the renewal of my best wishes for your happiness and prosperity in the New Year.

Yours very sincerely,

W. L. Mackenzie King Papers
