

Christmas Day. Pat seems to think it belongs to him, but I tell him it is for both of us.

I am glad you continue to have happy remembrances of Kingsmere, and I hope that they are but the beginning of very many which you will enjoy.

Let me again wish you a very happy New Year and, through you, all the members of the family.

With fondest love to one and all, believe me,

Your affectionate uncle,

Miss Jean Lay,
"Boulderfel",
Barrie, Ont.
