

1

2

3

4

THE WHITE-MARKED TUSSECK.—1, an egg-mass attached to a cocoon; 2, a caterpillar feeding upon a leaf; 3, the female moth and a freshly deposited egg-mass; 4, the male moth. Figs. 1, 2, and 3 are from Bul. 312, Geneva Agric. Exp. Station.