

Novels and Tales by James Lane Allen

THE CHOIR INVISIBLE

Cloth. 12mo. $1.50. New edition with illustrations by ORSON LOWELL. $2.50

"One reads the story for the story's sake and then rereads the book out of pure delight in its beauty. . . . Mr. Allen stands to-day in the front rank of American novelists. 'The Choir Invisible' will solidify a reputation already established and bring into clear light his rare gifts as an artist. For this latest story is as genuine a work of art as has come from an American hand."—HAMILTON W. MABIE in The Outlook.

"The humor and grace . . . we have had in our fiction; the purity of tone also. . . . But the imaginative beauty which lies deep at the root of things, . . . this is a rarer grace, a more enduring quality, of fine literature. . . . This beauty has lain in other books by Mr. Allen, but in none, we think, has it been under such high command as in this."—The Atlantic Monthly.

"Highly praised and with reason. It is written with singular delicacy and has an Old World fragrance which seems to come from the classics we keep in lavender."

—The Daily Chronicle, London.

"He has given us something strong, deep, reverential, that will teach us how to live."—The Bookman.

SUMMER IN ARCADY. A Tale of Nature

Cloth. 12mo. $1.25

"The close communion and sympathy with Nature, and the noble interpretation of her wayward moods and changing phases, manifested in 'A Kentucky Cardinal' and 'Aftermath,' find nobler, sweeter, ampler expression in the luminous, sunlit, sun-flushed pages of his new story."—The Bookman.
