

I love your plains that know no bound,
I love your rich far-arching skies;
But in the dear remembered eyes
Of men and women Love is crowned.

Australian hearts who called me friend,
Who gave me all your treasure store
Of kindest will, for evermore
I love, yea, love you to the end.