New Volume of Sermons

'The Lamp of Sacrifice.'

PRICE $1.50, POSTAGE PAID.

Press Opinion:

Church Family Newspaper.

"These sermons and addresses are the work of one whose aim it is to 'serve his own generation by the will of God.' Without ignoring or despising that which is conventional and superficial, he has looked far beneath the surface and learned the deepest needs of his own time. There is not a sermon or address in the volume which does not confirm this statement, the book is essentially one for Christian ministers, Christian workers and Christian thinkers for those who know what it is to face difficulty and discouragement, to fight with doubt, and to grapple with social problems. In dealing with these questions, as indeed with every subject that he touches the writer's sympathy, common sense and unflinching faith are equally conspicuous."
