

to extend the provisions of this Act to any port or ports not enumerated in the Schedule marked (A.) it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by order in Council, to extend the provisions of this Act to such port or ports; and from and after the day mentioned in such order in Council, all the privileges and advantages of this Act, and all the provisions, penalties, and forfeitures therein contained, shall extend, and be construed to extend, to any such port or ports respectively, as fully as if the same had been inserted and enumerated in the said Schedule at the time of passing this Act.

XVII. And be it further enacted, That no articles, except such as are enumerated in the Schedule marked (B.), shall be imported in any such British built ship or vessel, or in any such foreign ship or vessel, or in any British built ship or vessel so sold as aforesaid, from any foreign country or state, on the continent of America, or island in the West Indies, into any of the ports enumerated in the Schedule marked (A.) or into any port which may be added to the Schedule marked (A.) by virtue of an order in Council as aforesaid, on any pretence whatever, on pain of forfeiting such articles, together with the ship or vessel in which the same shall have been imported, and the guns, tackle, apparel, and furniture of such ship or vessel, and in every such case, the same shall and may be seized by any officer or officers of His Majesty's Customs or Navy, who are or shall be authorised and empowered to make seizures, in cases of forfeiture, and shall and may be prosecuted in such manner as herein-after directed.

XVIII. And be it further enacted, That no articles whatever shall be imported or exported, either in a British built ship or vessel, or in any such foreign ship or vessel as aforesaid, from or to any foreign country on the continent of North or South America, or from or to any foreign island in the West Indies, into or from any port of any British colony, plantation, or island in America or the West Indies, not enumerated in the Schedule annexed to this Act marked (A.) on any pretence whatever, on forfeiture of such articles, as also the ship or vessel in which the same shall be imported, with all her guns, furniture, ammunition, tackle, and apparel.

XIX. Provided always, and be it further enacted, That nothing in this Act shall affect, or be construed to affect, the right which British subjects or others may enjoy under any law in force at the passing of this Act, of exporting in British ships from ports not enumerated in the said Schedule marked (A.) the produce of the Fisheries carried on from any of His Majesty's said colonies, plantations, or islands.

XX. And be it further enacted, That all penalties and forfeitures imposed by this Act shall and may be respectively prosecuted, sued for, and recovered, and divided in Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, or the Isle of Man, or in any of His Majesty's colonies or islands in America, in the same manner and form, and by the same rules and regulations in all respects, in so far as the same are applicable, as any other penalties and forfeitures imposed by any Act or Acts of Parliament made for the security of the revenue of the customs, or for the regulation or improvement thereof, or for the regulation of trade or navigation, and which were in force immediately before the passing of this Act, may be respectively prosecuted, sued for, recovered, and divided in Great Britain, Guernsey, Jersey, or the Isle of Man, or in any of His Majesty's colonies or islands in America.
