A pessimist was enumerating the trials and troubles of the church. Speaking of the problem of attendance upon prayer meeting he said: "Some years ago it was the bicycle that kept folks from church; later it was the automobile; while in the near future it will be the flying machine. Then church members as they fly over the church will look down—

And shout while passing through the air, Farewell, farewell, sweet hour of prayer!"

A dastardly theft took place one day last week upon the premises of Mr. Jas. McLaren, who resides on the Hewitt farm. He had killed a hog and had it cut up. While he was out to Mr. W. H. Wednesday afternoon was the first of the summer half-holidays and everything went off without a hitch. The farmers and townspeople did all their business in the forenoon, although just about dinner time, there was a decided rush in all the business places. Promptly at 12.30 all the business places were closed and this is a most commendable feature; all the merchants closing at the same time. The weather was grand and a great many went on picnics on the lake. We have often remarked that Tweed people do not seem to appreciate the lake as they should, but on Wednesday afternoon the lake shore was dotted with picnickers here and there. In fact to sum it all up, the first half-holiday was a great success.—Tweed News.

The Lindsay Warder boasts that there is one department of Lindsay's civil government that is diligently practicing economy, although not obliged to do so, namely, the police department. Lindsay policemen are entitled to two suits of clothes each, top coats and hats every year, but they are making one suit do, thus saving the town upwards of $32. They are always neat in appearance and take good care of their clothes.

One of the latest jokes is to the effect that there will be no honey flow this year. And why? Because the Government is conscripting all the "B's."
