CHARLOTTE COUNTY APPOINTMENTS

The following appointments in Charlotte County have been gazetted: Alva Small, Hill M. Grimmer, Louis F. Mills, and Edgar W. Woodcock, to be Justices of the Peace. G. Wesley McKay to be an Issuer of Marriage Licenses at Beaver Harbor.

FIRE AT HONEYDALE

On Thursday night last the store of the George F. Beach estate at Honeydale, twelve miles from St. Stephen, was fire covered to be on fire. The buildings were valued at about $5,000, and the stock at upwards of $7,000, and both were totally destroyed. The insurance on stock and buildings was about $6,500.

HE ANSWERED HIS COUNTRY'S CALL

Frederick, May 27.—The Misses Sherman received word yesterday that their brother, Frank J., assistant general manager of the Royal Bank, has resigned and enlisted as a private in the 10th Battalion of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police. He was stationed in Montreal. He acquired his initial knowledge of banking in this city, and after his appointment as assistant general manager about ten years ago was in charge of agencies in the West Indies. For several years he has been stationed in Montreal, filling the position of assistant bank manager in Canada and was in receipt of a salary of $10,000 a year. I am very glad my nephew is going out to fight for the Empire," said Miss Stella Sherman to the Times' correspondent, and I am proud of him from this day on. Private Sherman is a brother of Rev. Ralph Sherman, curate of Trinity Church, St. John.—Evesing Times.

WOLVES' LIGHTHOUSE

It is most satisfactory to learn that Mr. Eusebius Wright has been reinstated as keeper of the Southern Wolf lighthouse by the Department of Marine and Fisheries. A cruel and wholly false malicious story had been in circulation in connection with the disappearance of two brothers who were drowned during a storm in January, 1912, off the Wolves; and Mr. Wright had relinquished his position in consequence of the rumor. Mr. Wright in a deposition by himself, confirmed by further deposition of two brothers who had entirely cleared himself of having had any connection with the tragedy. We regret that we are unable to print the depositions which are clear, full and explicit. If Mr. Wright, or someone else, could trace the false story to its source, and bring to justice the person or persons who originated it, a service would be rendered to the community, and a much needed warning would be given to scandal mongers.

RED CROSS SOCIETY WORK

Lady Tilley has announced the receipt of a cable message from Col. Hedges Canadian Red Cross Commissioner, stating that arrangements had been made for accommodating twelve extra beds in the New Brunswick ward of the Duchess of Connaught Canadian Red Cross Hospital. This, together with the 59 beds already acknowledged, makes 71 beds in all provided by the people of New Brunswick. Of the twelve extra beds now installed, the following will bear the names of Charlotte County donors:—Town of St. Stephen, N.B.: St. Stephen Red Cross Society, St. Stephen, N.B.; Emma Murdoch Eaton, St. Stephen, N.B.; "Greenock" Presbyterian Church, St. Andrews-by-the-Sea, N.B. Recent subscriptions from Charlotte County to the Duchess of Connaught Hospital Fund are acknowledged as follows:—Women's Institute, Fairhaven, Deer Island, $10.00; Honeydale Red Cross Society, $7.15; Milltown Red Cross Society, 20.00; St. Stephen Red Cross Society (for the purchase of respirators), 3.00.

Local and General

Mr. G. K. Greenlaw is improving the appearance of his store by a new coat of paint.

The death of Mr. George Hume took place on Tuesday night at his home on St. George's Hill, at his 64th year.

You can be successful if you manage things rightly. One of the first things to do is to cut out unnecessary labor on your own part with a Remington or Smith Premier Typewriter and a good stenographer.

A. Milne Fraser, Halifax, N. S.

The following articles were forwarded to the Provincial Headquarters of the Red Cross Society, Captain Hill, St. John, on May 27, by the St. Andrews Branch of the Society:—

17 neckties, 35 pairs of socks, 26 scarves, 4 wristlets, 2 Balclava caps, 2 belts, 23 sheets, 7 pillow cases, 6 kit bags, 2 pairs of knee caps, 6 crutch pads.

The farmers have been unable to do very much seeding as yet, owing to the cold and backward weather.

Mr. Thos. J. McHarg, Montreal, was here last week putting the lighting system at the Van Hare's residence in condition for the summer. The family expect to arrive in a few days.

Mr. A. R. McKenzie, representing Ganong Bros., was in town on Friday last, and reports business conditions good throughout the County.

Mr. Skiff Grimmer purchased a motor boat in St. John last week, to use in connection with his weir business on Long Island.

Good fishing has been reported at Chamcook Lake. Ten salmon were caught off the shore one day recently.

Messrs. C. Ross, General Superintendent of the American Can Co., and C. A. Opperman, New York, and J. E. Sullivan, Montreal, were here a few days ago in connection with the installing of new machinery at the plant of the Lane, Window Shades Co., Chamcook. Owing to the delay in getting this machinery the opening of this mammoth plant will take place about two weeks later than expected, and not on June 1 as reported.

Messrs. F. W. & S. Mason have just completed a large contract for the Algonquin Hotel, which they were able to finish before the time called for in the contract. The factory is now humming with industry, as the firm has the contract for the window shades and curtain poles, besides other small contracts for the furnishing of this hotel. "We are working night and day," says Manager Sam Mason, "and will be finished before the opening on June 15 next."

As announced last week in the School Essay Competition on "Canada's Place in the Empire" the first prize was won by Miss Hilja Finigan, and the second by Miss Wilma Halliday. It should also have been stated that the following received honorable mention for their essays: Annie Somers, Lilla Dick, Pearl Mallock and Douglas Everett.

Messrs. G. H. Lounsbury and H. W. Haines came here a few days ago on their way through from St. Stephen to St. John by auto, and report that they found the road from St. Stephen to St. Andrews to be the best in the province. They also report the roads to St. George to be in very bad condition.

The meeting of the Deacons of St. Andrews took place on Tuesday, and resulted in last week's issue. We are obliged to hold over till next week a full report of the proceedings.

COUNTY COURT

The County Court, Judge Carleton presiding, opened on Tuesday morning at 11 o'clock, and adjourned until the following morning at the same hour. The only matter before the Court on Wednesday was the naturalization papers of Frank Loring, St. Andrews, which occupied about half an hour, after which the Court adjourned.

TOWN COUNCIL MEETING

The regular monthly meeting of the Town Council took place in the Town Hall on Tuesday evening. A report of the proceedings will appear in our next issue.

CLEAN-UP DAY

The ten-acre lot at Indian Point, reserved as a Public Park for the Town, is sadly in need of a thorough clean-up. The Town Council, at the meeting on Tuesday night, decided to hold a clean-up day on Wednesday, June 9, and to invite all citizens to turn out and assist in putting the Park in order. A number of men and teams will be required to do this very necessary work, and to make the day a success. We are sure the response will be hearty and general.

THE WOMEN'S CANADIAN CLUB

The meetings of the Women's Canadian Club of St. Andrews for the year 1914-1915, closed with a social evening on Thursday, May 27. A very large number of the members were present. The evening's entertainment consisted of contests, and a musical programme which included several choruses by the Chorus Club, and the solo, "Kashmiri Song" by Woodford Flinder and "Time Makes all but Love the Past" by Carrie Bond, sweetly sung by Miss Laura Wilson. The prize winners in the contests were Mrs. Charles Malloy, Mrs. John Maloney, Miss Lillian Morris, Judge Cockburn and Mr. Frank Malloy. During the evening delicious refreshments were served by the Tea Committee in charge of Mrs. Coughney and Mrs. S. Field.
