

"OPENEST DERBY
IN 30 YEARS"

Ten Horses With Equal Chances

King and Other Members of the Royal Family Will be There

LONDON, June 2.—"The openest Derby in thirty years; there are at least ten horses with equal chances of winning," is the opinion of the trainer thus expressed by the public. The public prefaces his opinion as to the probable outcome of the race tomorrow for the famous Derby stakes, 6,500 sovereigns, and the biggest event on the English turf. This opinion is shared by a majority of the house and racing men. In addition to the greatness of the race and the presence of King Edward's colt, Perrier among the contestants is a drawing card. There would be tremendous enthusiasm should Perrier win, for although King Edward, when he was Prince of Wales, saw his colors in the race, he was not the favorite, and a king's horse never has won Epsom's classic event.

With the continuation of the present weather, a conservative estimate is that these half a million people will be on the streets of the big cities around the world by thousands of Americans.

Two American horses will take prominent part in the race. Norman Hill, owned by Arthur H. Ross, is a favorite supporter. He was only supplanted at the head of the betting list for a few days by the American colt, Count Fleet, a patriotic desire and for this change of opinion. Count Fleet, owned by W. K. Vanderbilt, which ran a dead heat for the American title, is expected to win a lot of American and French money.

Another American horse in the race, Azote, the property of James R. Hatzel, is expected to do well. Azote is attracting attention chiefly because of his owner's attempt to prove that a colt fed on dried milk has an advantage over one fed on ordinary food in any manner. Azote has never tasted either oats or corn, but has been fed on dried milk and has gained in small quantities.

In addition to these three American horses, two American jockeys, Maher and Lynne, will have mounts. Maher, who already has three Derby wins to his credit, is riding Liangtung, and Lynne is confident of victory. Lucien Lin, who is confident that Mountain Apple will win, will come fourth, and his belief is shared by a large number of others. Mountain Apple has been second to Norman III in the betting for several days, and it is fairly predicted that he will be a favorite before the start.

Richard Croker will be at Epsom, and he doubtless regrets that he did not enter Rhodora for the Derby. He is sure that she is the best racer of the year and has strong favorite odds of 10 to 1 on June 5.

The latest betting, the odds being quoted against, is as follows: Norman III., 95 to 20; Mountain Apple, 100 to 14; Sir Archibald, 95 to 10; Seasick II., 200 to 17; Perrier and Liangwum, 100 to 8; White Eagle, 100 to 7; Vamose, 100 to 6; Orphan, Primer and Mercutio, 100 to 3; Azote, 200 to 1.

RESTRICTION HAS HAD GOOD EFFECT

Immigration Policy of Government Keeps Out Undesirables

OTTAWA, Ont., June 2.—That the restrictive regulations adopted this year by the immigration department to keep out undesirable and prevent the flooding of the labor market are proving very effective is evidenced by the reports now being sent in from agents. The department has just received word from London that at a recent meeting of the committee on Unemployment in London, the action of the Canadian government in deporting emigrants sent out by the association was strongly criticised. The chairman of the emigration committee presented a report in reference to the restrictive regulations recently enforced by the Canadian government. One instance was quoted where a stonenadian office on the ground that he did not come within the classes desired in Canada, that is farm laborers, navvies and domestic servants. The Canadian consular officials at Montreal made arrangements for placing him in the whole parts before the local government board with a view to seeing if the department would use its influence on his behalf. It was pointed out in order that the London government in consideration of the fact that the Canadian immigration department might be given a freer hand. The chairman said that he was afraid the restrictive regulations could not be so relaxed as to mean that there would be very little emigration work done by the association this year. So far only 10 persons had been sent out as compared with 60 in the corresponding period of last year.

A MODEST CONTRIBUTOR
