This Man Wears GLASSES

but you hardly notice it at first sight and most of the time he is totally unconscious of it himself.

That's the difference in a nutshell between well-made glasses and poor ones.

Glasses made and fitted by a good optician not only correct your defects of vision, but are comfortable and slightly, harmonizing perfectly with the features. They improve rather than detract from the appearance.

Our glasses are made to meet your individual requirements. The lenses are accurately ground to your prescription, cut to the correct shape and size. The mounting or frame is carefully selected and adjusted to fit you with perfect comfort. That's good optical service, and it costs no more than the other kind.

Lucky Friday.

A student of sea fights declares that if the British navy has a lucky day it is a Friday. It was on Friday, July 29th, 1588, that the Spanish Armada was destroyed. True it was also a Friday, Nov. 29th, 1859, when Van Tromp sailed the Channel with a broom at his masthead to indicate that he had swept the English from the seas, but luck has a habit of turning, and according to the most reliable chronologies, Friday, June 13, 1653, was the decisive day in the battle of the North Foreland, when six of Van Tromp's ships were taken and eleven were sunk. It was on a Friday, April 20th, 1657, that Blake won his greatest victory in the harbor of Santa Cruz on Friday, July 30, 1779, that the American fleet was totally destroyed off the shores of New England; on Friday, April 12th, 1782, that Rodney defeated the French, taking the French admiral prisoner; and on Friday, September 13th, of the same year that the British totally defeated the fleets of France and Spain in the Bay of Gibraltar.

Seized Grain.

Rome, Jan. 11.—A decree signed by the Duke of Genoa, as Lieutenant-General for King Victor Emmanuel, orders that a census of all grain be taken not later than January 25. It is provided that any person who fails to announce the quantity of grain he possesses or who makes any false statement is punished by a year's imprisonment and $100 fine.
