COUNTY ITEMS.

From our Correspondents.

A blacksmith named Gedbeau of Arnprior, has been left a fortune of $200,000 by relatives in France. He started a few days ago to look after the windfall.

The Order-in-Council giving effect to the Canada Temperance Act in the united counties of Stormont, Dundas, and Glengarry, was passed on the 3rd inst, and will come into force on 1st of May next.

The recount of ballots in Escott was conducted by Judge McDonald, and no change was made in the result declared by the returning officer. Consequently, the council stands three Reformers and two Conservatives.

The license commissioners of South Lanark, through Mr. Henry Stafford, the inspector, offer a reward of $5 for every conviction for violation of the license law with regard to Saturday night and Sunday selling. How would this work in Leeds?

A number of high-toned young fellows have been arrested at Ottawa charged with burglary. Their social position placed them above suspicion of sinning in this direction, enabling them, it is said, to commit the numerous offences lately reported. This case is likely to illustrate for the thousandth time that a man's coat and social position are not always a guarantee of his honesty.

A short time ago, a man named Fraser, from Glengarry, met a terrible fate on the C. P. R. construction about 120 miles from Sudbury. He had gone to examine a heavy dynamite blast, which exploded prematurely, blowing him into the air a height of 100 feet. The terrible agent performed its work most effectively, only scraps of flesh and shreds of clothing being discovered on the surrounding snow.

There is yet a faster train than that which took Mr. Van Horne from Carleton Place to Sittsville, and which ran "neck and neck with a shooting star." The driver of it, an American, as the story reveals, tells that it "goes slicker than a square yard of lightning," and that one of the mail clerks, the other morning, just as the train started, leaned out of the car to kiss his wife, who was standing on the platform, and bless me if he didn't kiss a cow out at Riverside.

Mr. C. Waterson, of Kemptville, has in his possession a curious novelty which might form an interesting article for a museum. It consists of a piece of wood under the bark of which exists a quantity of feathers. The bark appears perfectly sound, containing neither niche nor opening, and the fact as to how the feathers came there is a mystery which no person who has yet seen the object has been able to explain. A small splinter of bark which was removed while sawing the tree discovered the feathers which appear to be foreign to this clime. Mr. Waterson was given the object by a farmer who lives near Kemptville and who found it while chopping in the woods.

THE TORONTO WEEKLY NEWS is an Illustrated Paper, unsurpassed in all the features of enterprising journalism. It stands conspicuous among the best journals of Canada as a complete newspaper, which will be interesting to every member of the family. The children will like the pictures, the young folks the stories and the funny sketches, the more mature will be delighted with the editorials and news matter, which in every issue will be found spicy, incisive, and entertaining. In the matter of telegraphic service, having the advantage of connection with THE TORONTO DAILY NEWS, it has at its command all the dispatches of the Associated Press, besides the specials from NEWS correspondents in every section of Ontario for which the daily paper is so famous. As a newspaper it has no superior. It is independent in politics, presenting all political news free from party bias or coloring, and is absolutely without fear or favor as to parties. The parliamentary reports are written in a humorous vein, and deal with men and measures without gloves, and having regard only to brevity, justice, and truth. It is in the fullest sense a family newspaper. Each issue contains a verbatim report of Rev. Dr. Talmage's latest sermon in Brooklyn Tabernacle, Clara Belle's New York fashion letter, "The Man-About-Town," sketches of people and places, a serial story of absorbing interest, a political cartoon, and a rich variety of condensed notes on Fashions, Art, Industries, Literature, etc., etc. Its market quotations are complete and to be relied upon. It is just the paper for the young folks, and the old folks will like it just as well. Our special clubbing terms bring it within reach of all. Specimen copies may be had at this office.
