MacINTYRE-MacCOIG

The home of Mr. Duncan MacCoig was the scene of a pretty wedding on Wednesday afternoon, June 20th, when his third daughter Margaret, was united in marriage to Robert MacIntyre, of Superior, Wis. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. H. Cowan, pastor of Bethel Presbyterian church.

The bride, who was given away by her father, stood before an altar of ferns and flowers. She looked very pretty in a gown of a delicate champagne silk, over cream tulle, and carried a bouquet of white roses and maiden hair ferns.

Miss Anna MacCoig, sister of the bride, was dressed in cream brilliantine, trimmed in silk applique and lace, and carried a bouquet of cream carnations and ferns.

The groom was ably assisted by his cousin, Mr. D. Campbell, of Blenheim. The Bridal Chorus from "Lohengrin," was played by Miss Barbara MacCoig, sister of the bride.

The bride's going away costume was of blue ladies' cloth with silk waist to match, shaded blue hat, trimmed with blue ribbon, piped in cream.

After the ceremony, the guests, about forty in number, repaired to the dining hall and partook of the wedding repast. The rooms and tables were decorated with roses, ferns, and white and green ribbon.

presenting a charming appearance.

Mrs. MacIntyre will be greatly missed in social and church circles, being soprano soloist in Bethel Presbyterian church.

The presents were numerous and costly, among them being a handsome purse of gold from the church. Mr. and Mrs. MacIntyre have the best wishes of all for happiness and prosperity in their wedded life.

They left from Chatham at 9:19 p. m., for Detroit and, take the boat up the lakes on Thursday to their new home in Superior, Wis.

will not have to bargain with fortune for successful baking.—It is made from the finest, selected Manitoba wheat, which contains more gluten (that quality which makes bread light) than any other wheat.

It is milled under the most sanitary conditions—absolute purity is one very important quality which the Ogilvie System of milling guarantees. There is no other flour in Canada upon which so much is spent to insure its perfect purity.

Central School Kindergarten is Enjoying A Pleasant Outing in the Country.

The Kindergarten of the Central school have been spending the day in the Electric Railway Park, Dover, the occasion being their annual flower festival.

This festival has usually been held in the school, but this year it was decided that the advantages of the C. W. & L. E. for easy transportation to the country were so good that the outing was arranged. The children left on the 11:30 car in charge of the teachers, and a lunch, provided by themselves and the teachers, was served at the park.

The afternoon was whiled away in games and pastimes of all kinds, skip tag, drop the handkerchief, tournament, hide the ball, and similar amusements being the favorites.

Several of the children sang songs, the chief among which were, Come to the Woods, May Song, Pigeon House, and Weave a Little Basket, which had been taught to them in the school.

The flower scheme of this year's midsummer festival is a novel one and is under the charge of Miss Green and Miss Turner. Miss Shackleton's class are making butterfly baskets, Miss McLean's class are engaged in manufacturing cardboard baskets to be filled with violets, Miss Farquharson and Miss Hoig's classes are peas work baskets, and Miss Green and Miss Turner's classes are making colored raffia and reed baskets. The junior classes, taught by Miss Turner, are also making tulip baskets.

The children's outing to-day was very enjoyable and the little ones brought back flowers to all their baskets, after which the baskets will be taken home to their parents. The teachers deserve much credit for the excellent way in which they have trained the children at their work and also for the success of to-day's trip to the country.

LORD'S DAY

BILL IS UP

of Mr. Roche (Halifax), rather commended the amendment suggested by Mr. Fitzpatrick, but not adopted by the committee, including that providing for grain traffic to be uninterrupted in the fall. He regretted that the committee had not had more time to continue their work.

Mr. Bourassa said he approved of the moral object of the bill, but so far as the legal principle was concerned he could not follow the Minister of Justice in his remarks. The bill, he said, was medieval in its spirit. If any legislation was desired, it should be in amendments to the criminal code. There was no country in the world in which Sunday was better observed than in Canada. Therefore, there was no need for legislation to make them Christian by law. It was taking away the personal liberty of the people to have their enjoyment interfered with. Mr. Bourassa characterized the bill as the most antiquated, immoral and absurd bit of legislation ever introduced. He also opposed the special privilege given to the Jews.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier's Reply. Sir Wilfrid Laurier criticized Mr. Bourassa's speech as illogical. "The basis of all Sunday legislation in all countries," said the Premier, "has been the recognition by the Christian people that there shall be a day rest on one day of the week, and that day shall be Sunday. What is the principle? The principle is that we abstain from work."

Certain exceptions had to be made. Sir Wilfrid desired there would be no interference with the liberty of the subject except that he must not work. "I do not know of any Christian country in which there is not such a law as this," said Sir Wilfrid, who went on to say that it had been thought better to leave Sunday legislation to the provinces, but that such legislation had been declared ultra-vires by the provinces.

Sunday Amusements. The Premier denied that the morality of girls employed as domestics was endangered by the bill. "Without labor," he said, did not mean "without supervision." But Sir Wilfrid agreed with Mr. Bourassa that a party should not be closed on Sunday because an entrance fee was charged, any more than a park where no entrance fee was charged should be closed.

As to amusements, the principle of the bill providing a day of rest applied to professional baseball players, cricketers, etc., as to any other class. There was no objection to men playing among themselves if they chose. The House rose at one o'clock.

May Need More Amending. The debate was continued at the afternoon and evening sessions of the House, and many amendments were offered without much avail. In response to a motion by R. L. Borden, Mr. Aylesworth said that there had been great difficulty experienced in drafting the bill. It was a radical change, and further amendment might be found necessary. It was the intention of the government to bring in a clause postponing the taking effect of the bill until some future day to be named in the act.

Supplementary Estimates. Supplementary estimates to the amount of $4,697,816 for the nine months ending March 31, 1907, were tabled last night, making a total of $72,604,463 to be voted for the period named. Of this $54,184,698 is chargeable to consolidated fund, and $18,419,765 chargeable to capital.

The Caretaker of the Cemetery is Coming in For Unkindly Criticism.

The caretaker of the cemeteries is coming in for some rather sharp and unkindly criticism of late. It is understood that matters have already gone so far, that charges may shortly be laid with the property committee of the City Council against him. The trouble has arisen over the caretaker's rather brusque treatment of persons who had occasion to bring dead bodies to the burying ground. The charges, if made, will be laid by a city undertaker and perhaps by another gentleman.

It seems that yesterday, one of the undertakers' men was conveying a corpse to the cemetery for burial. On arriving at the cemetery, he asked the caretaker to help him lift the box containing the body out of the wagon. The caretaker refused, and when he was asked why, replied that it smelled too strong. The man was forced to lift the remains from the wagon unaided, a rather difficult feat. The undertaker in question claims that the caretaker is supposed to help in cases of this kind.

Another complaint of a similar nature, is to the effect that a man called at the rear gates of the cemetery some time ago, with a body which he wished to have interred. He was refused admittance at this gate by the caretaker, and had to go a long roundabout way as a result to reach the main gate. The rear gate is kept locked to prevent people from driving through the cemetery who have no business there, but it is claimed that the caretaker should not have refused admittance to a man who wished to enter with a corpse which was intended for interment in the cemetery.

IS AN INJUSTICE

Farmer Complains About the Manner G. T. R. Blocks William Street.

Tom Taylor, 1st concession, Chatham Township, had a complaint to register against the G. T. R. this morning. Speaking to a Planet representative Mr. Taylor said: "I think it is a great injustice that the G. T. R. are allowed to block William street by shutting operations for periods of 15 and 20 minutes. A few days ago I was held up with several cattle on Queen street for over 20 minutes, the gates being kept down while three trains were shunting. I told the gateman that the gates should not be down for more than five minutes at a time, but his answer was that they could be kept down as long as the engineers on the trains liked to block the line. If this is true I think it is distinctly unfair to citizens."

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

A very pleasant time was spent at the home of Mr. Duncan MacCoig, on Monday evening, when between 50 and 60 of Bethel congregation gathered on the lawn to bid farewell to Miss Margaret, prior to her departure for her new home in Superior, Wis. During the evening she was greatly surprised when Mr. Neil Watson, secretary of the G. T. R., and Miss Grace Saddington came forward, when the following address was read by Miss MacCoig and a presentation of a purse of gold was made by Miss Grace Saddington.

To Miss Margaret MacCoig—We have met together to-night, on the eve of your approaching marriage, and anticipated departure from our midst, for the purpose of expressing our kindly feelings towards you whom we have learned to most highly appreciate during the years of your living in our midst. You have endeared yourself to our memory through your most lady-like and Christian deportment, and your devoted services for our church and choir. In token of our deep sense of the loss which we are to sustain through your departure from us, we ask you to accept this purse, and trust that in the acceptance of the same you will cherish it, not so much for its value as a gift, but as it is unto us a token of our regard for you, and for the years of service which you have rendered us. Our prayer is that in the new church, to which in the providence of God, your lot in the future will be cast, it will receive such helpful services from you as we have, and that you in return shall receive the commendation of him in whose vineyard we are all mutual toilers. In behalf of the congregation of Bethel Presbyterian Church.

J. J. MacCOIG, WM. SADDINGTON, NEIL MEVIOAR, FRANCIS SADDINGTON, MARY L. MACCORVIE.

VERY GOOD GAME

Football Match Ends in Score of 3-0 For Kent Bridge Boys.

Last evening the Chatham Football team played a game with Kent Bridge, at the latter place. A very close and exciting contest resulting in a 3-0 win for the home team.

C. J. Cumming, of Chatham, was referee and handled the teams in a business-like manner, his decisions giving satisfaction to all concerned. The game, although of a fast nature, was even in the first half, nothing being scored at the call of half-time. On changing over, however, the Kent Bridge boys gradually asserted their superior staying powers and notched three goals before the final blow of the whistle. About four hundred spectators were present and the game was thoroughly enjoyed both by the participants and their supporters.

THE NEW PARK

The Electric Railway Co., is opening a summer park on the 7th concession of Dover, on Friday next, and the 24th Battalion Band has been engaged for the afternoon and evening of that day. The bush is admirably situated for recreation grounds and is adjoining the track. A dancing platform is being erected and there will be a number of swings put up for the amusement of the children. It is intended to make this resort a popular breathing place for ladies and children, and the fare fixed for the round trip is 25 cents.

THE TWO FLAGS

In proposing the toast of the American guests at the Davidson-Northwood wedding yesterday, Dr. Knox quoted a poem entitled "The Two Flags," by Dr. Sparks, St. Mary's, Ont. In response to a request it is published below:

THE TWO FLAGS.
Twine them together in peace and war,
Together on land and sea,
From the Southern Cross to the Northern Star,
From the Purple East to the West afar,
Wherever the hands that bear them are,
Twin flags of the kindred free.

For ye are the sons of the selfsame sire,
And your blood of one kindred strain,
And the same old Anglo-Saxon fire
Burns in each common brain;
And one is the path that your feet
Have trod,
And ye kneel at the shrine of one
Common God.

Then, up with your flags on the same top mast
To float to one common sky,
And, sinking forever the far off past,
Nail them together, firm and fast,
Together, as long as the years shall last,
Twin flags of liberty.

And never more may they wave apart
That have waved apart too long,
Keeping alive in each proud heart
This tale of an ancient wrong;
May its memory now to the winds be cast,
And the future bury in dust the past.

Twine them together in peace and war,
Together in war and peace;
Till jealous nations cease to jar,
And to dream of battlefields afar,
And the din of arms shall cease;
To welcome the light of that coming
day,
Oh! Kindred Flags! lead on the way.
—Novalis.
