The many friends of Mrs. (Rev.) G. L. Bishop made her a very pleasant birthday party on Friday evening last. The affair was made a perfect surprise to Mrs. Bishop, but was none the less enjoyable. Mrs. Bishop was presented with a handsome apparatus potted fern together with the sincere congratulations of friends and neighbors. A pleasant feature of the evening's entertainment was a number of solos sung by Rev. Dr. Spidle.

A reception was held on Monday evening at the home of Mr. A. A. Thomson, Kestville, in honor of the new pastor of the Presbyterian church of that town, Rev. Mr. Layton. There was a large gathering of the members of the congregation and a very pleasant time was spent. A very pleasing feature was a program of Scotch music presented under the direction of Mrs. (Rev.) Bell, of Upper Canada. During the evening Rev. G. W. Miller, of Wolfville, who has been interim moderator during the vacancy, was presented with a felicitous address accompanied by a purse of gold in recognition of his services.

A good attendance greeted the Acadia Orchestral Club last Friday evening, when they gave a very attractive and well arranged concert in College Hall, under the direction of Miss Beatrice Langley. The club was assisted by Mrs. Myrtle Holmes, of Kestville, who gave a vocal solo which won enthusiastic success from the audience. Miss Laura Stevens gave a well rendered reading and was also recalled. The selections by the Orchestra, the College Glee Club and the Academy Glee Club were all of a very high order and were much enjoyed. Miss Theresa Francis rendered excellent assistance as pianist. The whole affair was an unequalled success.
