The C.P.R. is rushing work on the rebuilding of the Monquart bridge that went out in the well-remembered July freshet.

A. D. Kennedy has moved into the house vacated last week by Premier Flemming, which he bought a short time ago.

Miss C. H. Davidson, formerly secretary to Hon. J. K. Flemming, has been appointed stenographer in the office of the Board of Education, Fredericton.

Last Friday Rev. J. M. Malory brought to The Observer office a large wild strawberry that he found that day. Strawberries in October are said to indicate a mild winter.

There will be a harvest excursion to the northwest on Oct. 14, leaving on the regular trains. The rate is the same as in the two previous ones: $12 to Winnipeg; $18 for return.

On account of the continued illness of Rev. William Goss, in Woodstock, the regular service of the Church of England to have been held in the hall on Sunday evening was omitted.

Arthur S. Estabrooks returned on Friday from the Pacific coast well pleased with his trip. It is his intention to remove his family to New Westminster soon as he can arrange to get away.

Mrs. R. A. Giberson, Spirella Corsetier, will be at Love's Hotel, Glassville, Tuesday and Wednesday, Oct. 22 and 23. Ladies desiring made-to-order corsets will please take note.

Remember that after October 20 the cash-in-advance price of The Observer will be 75 cents for a year's subscription instead of 50 cents. You can renew for a year or more cheaper before that date than afterward.

Boy Wanted—to learn the printing trade. Wages from the start and a good opportunity for the right lad. Apply at once at The Observer Office. One who has already had some experience is most desired.

A Royal Gazette extra was issued this morning with a notice signed by Hon. J. K. Flemming as surveyor general, publishing a regulation prohibiting the sale of partridge and woodcock until September, 1915.

Thomas W. McAfee has taken over the C. E. Allen barber shop that has been conducted by Frank Day. He has been employed by Mr. Day since last winter and is now engaging in business for himself.

The St. John Globe reports as unusual the yield of 114 barrels of potatoes to the acre on a Sunbury county farm. A yield of 100 barrels is not uncommon in ordinary years in Carleton county although 100 barrels is called a good average.

Rev. Douglas Haviland died at Ottawa last week. He was formerly of Chatham and taught school at Upper Woodstock for a time, after which he studied for the Episcopal ministry. His first pastorate was Grand Falls, which he had to resign owing to falling health, and for the past year has been living in Woodstock. He is survived by a widow, who is a daughter of the late Ven. Archdeacon Neale, and an infant son. Interment took place at Woodstock.

RALLY DAY.

Sunday, Oct. 17, 2.30 and you are welcome. Come and bring another with you.

Those owing me are requested to call and settle now, as after I move away they will have to pay the same to a lawyer, together with his charge for collection. Arthur S. Estabrooks, Coldstream.

There is a good chance that Sayre's lath mill may run all winter. The only hindrance will be inability to get sufficient wood to keep it going. The money paid out for material and labor will help out in this lean year.

The Observer hopes every one of its readers will do his duty—pay his subscription promptly and cheerfully. This is necessary in order that the editor may carry out plans for improvement that all will appreciate.

Deeds, mortgages and bills-of-sale may be purchased at The Observer office for 5 cents each or 50 cents a dozen. Executions, summonses, capaises, tax notices, 40 cents a hundred. School assessment blanks 5 cents each.

A derailed freight train on the Edmundston branch caused a delay of five hours to Saturday's south-bound express. A train was made up at Aroostook Jet to take the place of the regular so that passengers south of that point were not delayed.

Rev. W. H. Johnson, his wife and daughter, of Jacksonville, are the guests of Rev. Dr. Hutchinson, Douglas avenue. They are going to St. George, where Rev. Mr. Johnson has accepted a call to the Baptist church at that place. He will commence his new duties on next Sunday—Globe.

Fort George Heights is the name of the new residential district lately put on the market. It is beautifully situated overlooking the townsite of Fort George. Price per acre is now $250 but will be advanced $50 per acre on Oct. 15. One acre can be divided into nine ordinary town lots. Now is the time to buy.

Last week notices were sent to over 500 subscribers whose subscriptions were due or past due. This represented a sum considerably exceeding all the liabilities of The Observer. Although most of the notices called for but 50 cents, the money is needed, needed badly and needed right away. Here's hoping subscribers will be quickly responsive—surely before Oct. 20, the time-limit set for the low rate of 50 cents a year. Those who find an error in their statement will oblige the manager by kindly pointing it out.

Mrs. Scott Sippell spent the week-end in Woodstock.

Fred. M. Boyd of Woodstock was here on Saturday.

John Grant of Wilmet and Oscar L. Shaw of Middle Simonds were among the callers at this office on Saturday.

When you need a Range by buying of H. N. Boyer you can save yourself what cannot be computed in dollars and cents, viz.: years of dissatisfaction and vain regrets. The "Canada" fills the bill.

According to announcement in the last issue of this paper, the roller rink reopened for the season on Friday evening. There was a very good attendance and the floor is said to have been in excellent condition.

Hon. J. K. Flemming and family removed to Woodstock last week and will board at the Turner House during the winter. They will be greatly missed from the village and their departure causes a feeling of general regret. Mrs. Flemming has been closely identified with the different women's societies and is held in universal esteem; while the Premier, himself, has no political opponent here whose prejudice is sufficiently grounded to make his removal to another town a matter for rejoicing.

Sunday was certainly a beautiful day, one of the few in many months that the sun shone unceasingly from the moment it came up until it sank in the western horizon. The air was really warm. The same thermometer that recorded 92 as the hottest day of the season registered 80 degrees in exactly the same location.

If you have any article that you want to sell you can advertise it in this paper once for 25 cents, 4 times for 50 cents, provided you do not use more than 30 words. If you want to sell or buy a farm, house, horse, cow, pigs, hens, wagon, plough, stove, anything at all, you are pretty sure to strike a good trade by the 50 cent ad. Try it.

On Friday evening a meeting was held in the Methodist church for the purpose of organizing an Epworth League. The pastor was met by a number of members, largely representative of the younger portion of them, and good progress was made. F. G. Stevenson was elected president; Mrs. J. F. Murdoch, 1st vice and chairman of Christian Endeavour committee; Burton Taylor, 2nd vice and chairman of committee on Missions; Mrs. G. E. McGinley, 3rd vice and chairman of committee on Social questions; J. S. Faulkner, 4th vice and chairman on Citizenship; A. Plummer, treasurer. Guy. E. McGinley, secretary (pro tem). The object is to stimulate a greater interest in different departments of church work among the younger members. The first devotional meeting will be held on Friday evening, Oct. 11, with a business meeting afterward. There was a meeting of the executive at the home of Mrs. Murdoch on Tuesday evening.

Charlie Joseph disposed of nearly all the goods he had left from his cheap sale on Friday by auction. John McDougall, of Woodstock, did the knocking down for him. Charlie intends leaving Hartland forever on Oct. 21, sailing soon afterward from New York for his home in Beirut, Syria, from which he has been absent 20 years. Most of that time has been spent in Carleton county, five years of it in Hartland. During the time he has been in America he has become a full-fledged Canadian citizen and he has been a good one, paid his taxes and attended diligently to his business, giving offence to no one.

Centreville Continued.

cheron stallion owned by Ednor Reid of Roxford. This horse was raised by Stanley Burke and sold to Mr. Reid when a colt. He is a splendid specimen of draught stock and is a credit to the gentleman who reared him. Pure bred cattle were also shown quite extensively. The farmers are getting the pure bred bee in their bonnets. It costs no more to feed a good animal than it does a scrub and the return is much more. As usual the Hartland Poultry Yards carried off a lot of prizes on their poultry but one local fancier gave them a run for their money and captured some of the prizes.

Armand.

On Saturday the young people of Armand and Windsor went to the "Ridge", on a hunting expedition. A good time was enjoyed but little game shot.

Last week Arthur Henderson and Robt. Crossin had the good fortune to capture a large moose on Nashwaak.

Mr. and Mrs. Fraser London attended the exhibition at Centreville.

Thomas McAfee of Hartland spent Sunday with friends in Armand.

Lynn Kimball and mother were recent visitors at the home of Elwood Foster of Lower Windsor.

On Monday Mrs. Wilmot Kimball visited Hartland.

Mrs. Minnie Seapier is a guest of her brother, Asa Dickinson.

Will Henderson of Ashland spent Sunday with his brother, Robert, of this place. Albert Henderson of St. John was also a recent guest at the home of Robt. Henderson.

Sam McAfee has been suffering from blood-poisoning in his hand but is slowly recovering.
