KINCARDINE

(St. John Journal)

Fifty years ago yesterday the Scotch colony of Kincardine was established in Victoria county. The Frasers, so prominently identified with the lumber and pulp industry today, are of that colony, which has given a great number of thrifty and God-fearing people to the province and other parts of the continent. A son of one of the first settlers is Mayor of Somerville, Mass., and others who have gone out from Kincardine have achieved success and made their contribution to the welfare of the places where they dwell.

The celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the settlement of Kincardine brought together more than 1000 people, who, soberly and with thanksgiving, recalled past years of toil and rejoiced in the fruits of their labors. Kincardine today is one of the finest rural settlements in the province. It was fitting that Premier Veniot, representative not only of all the people of New Brunswick, but of a race which has also made its mark upon the life of the province, should extend congratulations and fraternal greetings to these Scotch folk of Kincardine. They founded a settlement under extreme difficulty when compared with the conditions of today, and some relinquished the task because they were not fitted for it; but the great majority persisted, and others came, and the settlement grew and prospered; and the forest gave place to smiling farms. It was a repetition of what the Loyalists had done nearly a century earlier, although the Loyalists had indeed to face far more difficult problems than those of the Scotch settlers of 1873. The latter had, however, the same quality of courage and endurance, and the province has reason to rejoice that they came. It may well desire, moreover, to have more of the same sturdy quality to settle its vacant areas.

PRIMITIVE BAPTIST CONFERENCE

The Primitive Baptist Yearly Conference convened with the church at Hartland July 7th. At 10.30 a. m. met for divine worship with full house. This service was led by Bro. James Sprague on the theme of faith in God and what He will do for those who trust Him. At 2.30 p. m. assembled in yearly conference with one of the largest representations of our churches in our denominational history of 48 years, and to those of us who have been in close touch with this people for that length of time can truly say we have never witnessed a greater demonstration of the spirit power evinced by God's people. This service opened by Bro. G. A. Giberson with a few well chosen remarks. At the close of this service Communion was observed in which 150 believers in Christ participated.

7.30 p. m. Met for business to receive reports of churches after which a plea was made for funds to pay for hymn books, and a goodly amount was pledged.

Sunday, 9 a. m. Prayer and social service led by Bro. Wellington Shaw which continued with good interest for two hours after which a preaching service led by Bro. P. J. Quigg was much appreciated by a very large audience. The church was packed to the doors and only about one third of the people could get inside. 2.30 p. m.: Preaching service at the P. B. church led by Bro. G. A. Giberson; also at the U. B. church, Upper Brighton, service led by Bro. Clifford Gray, both of which were characterized by the bringing forth the acclamation of God's people. 7.30 p. m.: Preaching at the P. B. church by H. V. Bragdon from the words "and the iron did swim," a practical and interesting sermon. Also at the same hour the U. B. church preaching service led by Bro. Petchey—a good sermon and a good meeting reported. This closed a Sabbath day's journey towards the Celestial city.

Monday 9 a. m.: Met for business, meeting opened in due form, Bro. H. V. Bragdon in the chair. After receiving reports of several committees, officers were appointed for the coming year as follows:

Chairman, Rev. H. V. Bragdon; Asst. chairman, Rev. J. M. Mallory; Clerk, Rev. P. J. Quigg; Asst. Clerk, Rev. W. Petchey; Secretary and Treasurer, Rev. J. Clifford Gray; Executive committee, Rev. G. A. Giberson, H. V. Bragdon, James Sprague, J. M. Mallory and P. J. Quigg.

On motion resolved that Licentiate William Petchey be ordained at the evening service; also that Licentiate Reuben Doody receive conference license for one year. Adjourned to meet first Saturday in October, where located by committee.

7.30: Met for service and ordination. Rev. J. M. Quigg was selected to preach; this sermon won the most exacting. After a short social service Bro. W. Petchey was set apart for the work of Gospel ministry by laying on of hands. Rev. H. V. Bragdon offered the ordination prayer, after which Rev. J. M. Mallory gave the right hand of fellowship and charge. Benediction by Bro. Petchey. This ended one of the largest gatherings of our people and above the average spiritual interest.

Rev. J. M. Mallory, clerk

JUBILEE OF THE SCOTCH COLONY

A Thousand People at Fiftieth Anniversary of Kincardine—Distinguished Speakers

Tuesday, July 10, was a day long to be remembered by the residents of Kincardine and Kintore who on that occasion celebrated their Jubilee or 50th anniversary. The day dawned somewhat unpromisingly, being wet and showery, but soon cleared up and by noon it was all that could be desired and the sun came out strong. There were about three thousand people gathered from different parts of New Brunswick and quite a number from the United States. The formal part of the proceedings was as follows:

Opening address of welcome by the Rev. Gordon Pringle, the beloved pastor of the Scottish Colony, who addressed the people who were comfortably seated on the hillside which formed a natural amphitheatre.

After Mr. Pringle's address one minute silence standing in respect and memory of the departed members of the Colonists and the Pipes played a lament as is customary among Scottish people in respect of their dead. Then Hon. P. J. Veniot, Premier of New Brunswick, was introduced and gave a very happy speech. Afterwards the popular member for Carleton-Victoria spoke by Harveys Studio. The proceedings were very much enlivened by Pipe-Major W. H. Ross, who was there with his pipes. There was all kinds of amusements including dancing and games of all kinds. A great measure of the success of the occasion was due to the untiring efforts of Donald Fraser, Archibald Fraser and the Rev. G. E. Pringle, also to the work of the residents of the colony who all labored to make the day a success. Altogether it was a day which will be long remembered by the residents of the colony and by the people who were fortunate enough to be there. The proceedings terminated by a display of fireworks, after which all went home tired but happy.

HARTLAND UNITED BAPTIST CHURCH

A few months ago a Young Workers' League was organized in connection with the morning service of the Hartland Baptist church, and this League has steadily grown until today it has a membership of 118. Last Sunday morning certificates were awarded to 80 boys and girls for faithful attendance at the morning service, for the last three months.

Next Sunday, services will be held at the usual hours. In the Morning the pastor, Rev. G. F. Bolster, will preach on the subject, "The Men of a Good Report" and in the evening the subject will be "The Two Builders."

The Bible School will be held at the close of the morning. The Men's Bible Class will meet at this hour and will be conducted by the pastor. A cordial welcome to all.

WILL VISIT MR. PIERCE

Rev. and Mrs. Thomas Pierce are soon to have as guests, Rev. W. W. Woford T. Duncan, pastor of Emory Methodist Episcopal church of Pittsburgh, Pa., who will be accompanied by Mrs. Duncan. In the Weekly publication issued by his church, the pastor says: "Will have the privilege of visiting his life-long friends, Rev. Thos. Pierce, whom he came to know as a boy and who has been in a sense 'a Father in the Gospel' to him during his student days as well as during the years of his ministry. This friend was a young man under the superintendency of the pastor's father and the close friendship and spiritual counsel which have been enjoyed through the years have rendered a service for which the pastor (Mr. Duncan) is ever grateful."

NARROW ESCAPE FROM DEATH

One day last week while David Clark was engaged with a crew of men repairing the log flume of Sayre's mill he met with an accident which it was feared for a time would prove a fatality. While beneath the flume some of the supporting material gave way and Mr. Clark was pinned beneath and heavily crushed across the hips and lower abdomen. He was extricated from his perilous position and Dr. Macintosh was hastily brought to his aid. Carried to his home nearby it was feared for a time that he might die forthwith, but his friends are glad to know that the slender thread held and the man is now well on toward recovery.

BRADFORD BRIGGS

The death of Bradford G. Briggs occurred at his late home in East Cloverdale June 22nd. He had been sick about three months with a stroke. He leaves his wife, five sons and four daughters: Lee H. in the west, Earl P. Mars Hill; William B. Lower Windsor; Page and Gilbert at home; Mrs. Dan Hallett, Bridgewater; Dora May, Syntha at home; one adopted daughter, Mrs. Carey Smith, Summerfield; one brother, Earl D.; and two sisters, Mary and Lizzie, Birch Harbor; and a large circle of friends to mourn the loss of a devoted husband and father.

WILLIAM B. COX

Many friends will learn with regret of the death of Wm. B. Cox, a highly respected resident of Coronation, at his home on Sunday night, following a long illness of Bright's disease. His age was nearly 67 years. The family have the sympathy of all in the loss of a kind husband and father.

BATH BREEZES

Sunday was St. Swithen's Day and the proverbial rain came down. It may be interesting to some of our readers to know certain facts concerning his history. He was Bishop of Winchester during the reign of King Egbert and was noted for his tender sympathy with the poor and protuse alms-giving. His death occurred about 862 A.D.

Joyner McCluskey, Grand Falls, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Chas. Bohan, Mechanic street.

Mrs. J. Ryan and son John of Malden, Mass., are visiting Mrs. J. McGinley, Main street.

On Friday last Mr. and Mrs. S. Gallagher, Charles E. Miss Mame and little nephew Charles Gregory left on an extended motor trip to Montreal and St. Anne de Beaupre.

Messrs. Adde, Kearney, Earler and Owens were business visitors in town during the week.

Mrs. Gillis and two children, Mary and Beatrice of Jersey City are visiting Mrs. C. Sweeney.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Donovan and family, Mr. and Mrs. McGillicuddy and Mrs. Murray Donovan, all of Canterbury, spent the week-end with relatives here.

On Sunday, July 15 a memorial service in memory of former Knights of Pythias was held in the Baptist church. The local Knights paraded from the Castle hall, to the church where part of the beautiful ritual of the order was solemnly rendered in the presence of an appreciative audience.

A memorial address was delivered by Rev. I. W. Williamson, a faithful and energetic member of the order. Appropriate instrumental music was furnished by the Florenceville Band, also vocal music by the Florenceville Male Quartette whose reputation as excellent singers is well known. Jupiter Plusius favored the brethren with a liberal precipitation of one of the elements which was joyfully received by our former members, including the member from Ottawa. One outstanding feature of the service was the display of growing and cut flowers kindly distributed by thoughtful sisters and which were selected to gleefully emphasize the language of flowers, the cardinal principal of the order. There is no doubt at all that every person present felt it was good to be there; and were truly grateful for the services of their Florenceville friends and all others who took part in this memorable service.

The installation of officers for the ensuing term, which was postponed from last week was carried out on Monday evening, July 16, by Deputy Grand Chancellor L. A. Noble.

W. R. Gillin was a caller in town during the week.

We were sorry to learn that little "Butt" McLellan, confined to his home with illness and hope to soon be him about again.

The Women's Institute are to meet on Friday next at 7.30 at the home of their president, Mrs. M. E. Commis. The roll call will be answered by the payment of dues. No doubt the social hour will be the attendance at the pictures.

Much has been said in the press concerning the joint anniversary and reunion picnic which was held at Kintore on July 10th. It is felt by many, however, that the spirit which accentuated it was not given the prominence which should have been accorded to such an event. One, which gathered together the residents of that colony of the present day and the descendants of those who first hewed out of the virgin forest a home and a shelter for their loved ones and who are now dwelling in distant parts. It was an inducement for them to return, to impress upon their minds the respect and reverence which they owe to their forefathers, and at the same time supply a pleasant and long-to-be remembered day. In this respect, it was of national significance and of historical import. That it only of historic interest and that it was looked upon as such by those not dwelling in our immediate vicinity gathered from the fact that men high in our business and political life assembled there. Of the former, the Fraser Brothers, who are nationally known, were present, of the latter the Premier of New Brunswick, Hon. P. J. Veniot, spoke to the thousands or more people, there assembled. They were also addressed by a member of our government, Hon. D. W. Mersereau, Minister of Agriculture, and by T. W. Caldwell, M. P., and also by Hon. John Webster, son of one of the colonists, who has made a name for himself in the country to the south of us, being a prominent figure in the political life of the state of Massachusetts and the city of Somerville, filling the office of Chief Magistrate, namely, Mayor of that city. Sports, including vaulting, tug of war, obstacle races, etc., were keenly enjoyed by all. A sumptuous supper followed by the days employment and in the evening a dance was held for the benefit of the younger generation, music being supplied by Dickinson's orchestra. Piper Ross of St. John. Too much credit cannot be given Rev. G. C. Pringle, who acted as chairman on that day and who was largely responsible for the grand success of which the picnic really was.

Miss Mabel Gorman, B. N. of Boston, Mass., is visiting her brother, William Gorman, Church street.

Bohan Brothers have a crew engaged in placing a more substantial foundation under their present office. Rev. Father Donahue left by motor for Boston, New York and other American cities. His place is being filled by Rev. Father Hooglan of Franciscan Order, Mallett, N. B.

Wm. Boyd, who has been visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Boyd, Johnville, returned to his home in Portland, Me.

Extensive grading is being done on the Catholic church grounds. This when finished will make a vast improvement in the looks of the church, the street and town.

"Slim Shoulders" featuring Irene Castle, that famous screen beauty, was screened here on Friday, July 13. It portrayed a daughter's love and devotion to her father in so much that she would face a loveless marriage.

deceitfulness, burglary, even death itself to save him from shame. But like a fairy tale all came out well at the finish, the loveless marriage was averted and one of love took its place. Next week "The Custard Cup" featuring Mary Carr, star of "Over the Hill" and "Silver Wings", will be screened.
