ondon, Sept. 18.—Gladstone to-day ad a four column manifesto to his stituents in Midlothian. The ex-pre-invites comparison between the work the recent parliament and that of the iament which preceded it, and conficy appeals to the electors for their liet. He refers to the treaty of Berto the good effects among the natives as Marquis of Ripon's conciliatory poin India, and to the settlement of the sian-Afghan dispute, the credit of the claims for the Liberal party.—Istone admits that the Liberal Government committed an error respecting occupation of Egypt, but says that it due to the Marquis of Salisbury's intention policy. He now favor the rewithdray all of British thoops from pt, and believes that the people appear of the Liberal Government's refusion stiffe Transvaal's cry for freedom land, he says, once free of the Egyptanests. o stiffe Transvaal's ery for freedom.
pland, he says, once free of the Egyrtangle, will regain her former pusiin Europe. He favors reform of the House of Lords and Jouse of Comas, free land and the abolition of prigeniture. He believes that the church ufficiently strong to survive disestabment and states that he is anxious to a Ireland the fullest justice, while at same time preserving the unity of the oire.

LONDON, Sept. 18.—Sir William Vernon harcourt spoke at Plymonth yesterday, le said the late government were presented to abolish coercion in Ireland, retining only those provisions of the coercion act which were aimed against boysting. He was unable to give the provamme of the Liberals, but said that dadstone had returned in first rate ealth and prepared for a fight. The beaker shared Mr. Chamberlain's options as to free education, and thought is traffic in drink also required attention.

ir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of Exchequer, spoke at Circneester. He strongly opposed to disestablishment, admitted that the church was open reform. He approved of Chamber's attitude towards Parnell as the thing. The Conservatives, he said, favored local government for Scotland England, but it was inexpedient to bound their views on the subject at present time. He expressed on befor the Government a strong opposito the separation of Irelaud from dand, and said he was in favor of a lified peasant propriety land law, for Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, Chancellor of ed peasant propriety land law, for relations of all the parts of the British Empire with each other.

In order to give becoming significance to the event, a Royal Commission is issued for the holding of this Exhibition, for the first time since 1862; and His Royal Highners the Prince of Wales has been appointed President by Her Majesty.

The very large space of 54,000 square feet has been allotted to the Dominion of Canada by command of the President, His Royal Highness.

This Exhibition is to be purely Colonial and Indian, and no competition from the United Kingdom or from foreign nations will be permitted, the object being to exhibit to the world at large what the Colonies can do.

The grandest opportunity ever offered to Canada is thus afforded to show the distinguished place she occupies, by the progress she has made in Agriculture, in the Industrial and First Arrs, in the Manufacturine Industrials, in the Newest Infraortements in Manufacturine Machinear and Implements, in Public Works by Models and Designs; also in an adequate display of her vast resources in the Fisheries, and in Forestry and Mineral wealth, and also in Shippins.

All Canadians of all parties and classes are invited to come forward and vie with each other in endeavouring out this great occasion to put Canada in her true place as the premier colony of the British Empire, and to establish her proper position before the world.
