GREAT WORK FOR CHILDREN

Told of at Annual Meeting of Children's Aid Society.

Mr. Adam Brown Elected President For Fifteenth Time.

Local Society Has Found Home For Almost 300.

A year of excellent work was shown by the reports presented at the annua meeting of the Children's Aid Society, held yesterday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. building, and the President, Mr. Adam Brown, in an able review of the year's operations, gave much valuable information. The meeting was a most encouraging one, and the attendance good. Mr. Brown presided.

good. Mr. Brown presided.

The financial report showed the balance left over from last year to be $1.647.46, which, together with the amount received, made the total receipts $2.109.05, and after all expenses had been paid a balance of $1.657.59 remained.

The report of the Secretary, Miss Forbes, showed remarkable advancement in all the lines of work. During the year eight regular meetings and one special meeting, besides several committee meetings regarding the erection of a shelter, were held. The quarterly meetings were not very well attended by the delegates appointed by the several churches, while the majority of churches did not appoint delegates. Mr. Wm. Hunter had a busier year than usual. Many complaints had been investigated, relating to between fifty and sixty children, and filten children were handed over to the society and were placed in good homes, while the home surroundings of others were bettered. The Secretary said one great difficulty the society had to encounter was securing evidence to convict parents of neglect or drunkenness, as the neighbors will readily lay complaints but object to appearing in Police Court. During the year six boys and two grits were sent to the industrial schools, most of them more fit for a city shelter, where they might be placed until it was possible to find foster homes for them. In the past month three cases had been dealt with of boys over fourteen years of age, and who were handed over by their parents or the Police Magistrate, and the society had a problem as to what to do with them, as the charitable institutions only care for children under fourteen. Since last June the society has placed in good homes seventeen girls and nine boys, of whom the older children are receiving wages and will, at the age of 18, have a substantial bank account. One of the girls with poor sight is earning $4 a month. More applications are received than the society has children to send, and, for any desirable child, a choice of three or four good homes can be found. At present the

THE PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.

In moving the adoption of the report Mr. Brown said: The report which has just been read by Miss Forbes speaks for itself. The result of the past year of the devoted labors of the several Children's Aid Societies in Ontario is such as ought to gladden the hearts of all philanthropic people. Since the passage of the Gibson Act sixteen years ago, 5,200 children have been removed sage of the Gibson Act sixteen ago, 5,200 children have been rep ago, 5,200 children have been removed from neglect, sin and cruelty and placed in good foster homes, where they have grown up and will grow up to be good citizens, and in addition the home life of over 4,000 children has been improved by visits and warnings. As Mr. Kelso says in his exhaustive report, "All this calls for a great deal of thought and care in the working act so that there may be no injustice, ill-treatment or other abuse of the rights of children." There are 57 branch societies in Ontario. Last year four hundred and twenty-five children were rescued from degrading surroundings and placed in twenty-five children were rescued from degrading surroundings and placed in homes where they fwould be brought up and fitted for honored positions in life. Since the society was organized, we life. Since the society was organized, we have for 280 such children have found homes for 280 such children such as I have been speaking about, many, if not most, of whom have been either burdens or menaces to society. I have been your president for fourteen years, have felt a pleasure in the work and am gratified at the result.

The mission of the Children's Aid Society to quote from Mr. Keles is plaints of neglect or ill-treatment of children.

It may not be generalily known that the wards of the society are visited at regular intervals by the visitors appointed by the Government. Mrs. Harvie has for twelve years visited the Protestant children in their foster homes, talked with them and their foster parents. Too much praise cannot be accorded to that devoted lady for the good she has been the means of doing, her visits have brought sunshine and cheer wherever she went—her work will live after her, she now does less outside work, but has a most important duty in having an eye over the visiting. Mr. O'Connor, a most efficient officer visits the foster homes of the Roman Catholics—his reports as well as those of Mrs. Harvie and others temporarily employed, are all very complete and full of encouragement. The placing of children has its difficulties and we have to be patient; changes have often to be made for various reasons, but the diligence and good judgment of our zealous inspector, Mr. Hunter, always gets things right in the end. I cannot speak too highly of Mr. Hunter's work. His sympathy and good sense combined banishes many a difficulty. I could wish that all the churches

Into the Pastoral Charges of Chalmers' and Barton Churches.

Meeting of Presbytery and Congregations in Chalmers' Church.

Chalmers' Presbyterian Church, Mount Hamilton, was crowded last evening by an interested audience composed of members and adherents and friends of that church and the Barton Stone Church, when F. W. K. Harris, of Toronto, a Knox College student, was ordain ed into the ministry and inducted into the pastoral charge of these two congregations. Rev. Mr. Turnbull, of this city, formerly pastor at Oneida, preached the induction sermon, taking as his text Luke xxiii, 42 and 43, "And he said unto Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom. And Jesus said unto him, Verily, I say unto thee, to-day shalt thou be with me in Paradise." In a thoughtful discourse the speaker spoke of the history of the penitent thief, little was known of him; of his prayer and of the answer to the prayer. He did not ask to be let down from the cross. He asked for spiritual blessing, and made full confession of his guilt. His prayer was answered. But there was only one conversion in death recorded—one that we might not be discouraged and one only that we might ed into the ministry and inducted into

A RISING IN SYRIA.

Troops at Damascus Refuse to Recognize Mehmed.

Berlin, May 25.—A special correspondent of the Tageblatt sends the following from Larnaca, Cyprus: The situation in Syria is most serious. The autonomy movement is gaining ground, while home rule is the watchword. The troops stationed at Damascus refuse to recognize Mehmed V. as Sultan. The vilayet of Adana is quiet, but a general uprising is feared.
