THE DAYS GONE BY.

The days goes by, --- tin and, yet over To first the strain of partial hore : To think of those we loved to met When thicken, 'mid a thousand flow he scenes we roved-romantic-lone-Ere yet our hearts had learned to sigh-

The days gone by-oh ! is there not A charm-a feeling in those words-A mail on the former of the forget-Struck from the memory's sweetest cho With maily a tone to wake is terr, And many a thought we former,

And many a thought we fain would fly ; Oh ! still to every heart are dear The days gone by—the days gone by.

The days gone by-Man's best essay-One fideless work to leave behind--Before their might hath passed away Like dust upon the desert wind : The very mountains have grown grey-And stars have vanished from the sky--The young-the fair-oh ! where are they ! With days gone by --with days gone by !

The days gone by—from shore to shore Their ever lengthening sindows spread On—on till Time shall breathe no more— And Earth itself be with the dend : Each brief-unnoticed-minute beau The mandate of its God on high And death and silence are the heirs Of days gone by-of days gone by.

which he was much bruised, and awakened of course. After the landing of the army at Louisburg, his friends found him asleep in his tent, much an-noyed by the cannonading. They then made him balleve that he was engaged, when he ex-pressed great fear, and showed an evident dispo-sition to run away. Against this they remon-strated, but at the same time increased his fears, by imitating the groans of the wounded and dying; and when he asked, as he often did, who were dowa, they named his particular friends. At last they told him that the man next him-self in the line back fallen, when maintify he sprang from his danger and his dream to-gether by falling over the tent ropes. A remark-able circumstance in this case was, that wfter these experiments, he had no distinct recollestions or fatigue; and used to tell his friend that he was sure he was-playing some trick upon him. A case entirely similar in its bearing is related in Smellie's Matural History, the subject of which was a moused from his dudent in the University of Edisburgh.

was a modical student in the University of Edinburgh. A singular fact has been observed in dreams which are excited by noise, that the same sound awakens the person and produces the dream which appears to him to occapy a considerable time. The following example of this has been prepeated to me:—A gentleman dreamed that he had enlisted as a soldier, joined his regiment, de-serted, was approhended, carried back, tried, con-demned to be shot, and at last carried out for execution. After the usual preparations, a gun was fired; he awoke with the report, and found that a noise in the adjoining room had produced both the dream and awakened him. The same want of notion of time is observed in dreams from other causes.

other causes. Dr. Gregory mentions a gestleman who, after sleeping in a damp place, was a long time liable to a feeling of suffication whenever he slept in a lying posture, and this was always accompanied by a dream of a skeloton which grasped him vio-lently by the throat. He could sleep in a sitting lently by the threat. He could sleep in a sitting posture without any uncasy feeling; and after trying various experiments, he at last had a sen-tisel placed beside him, with orders to wake him whenever he sunk down. On one occasion he was attacked by the skeleton, and a long straggle ensued before he awoke. On finding fault with his attendant for allowing him to lie so long in such a state of suffering, he was assured that he had not lain an instant, but had been awkeened the moment he began to sink. The gentleman, affection.

To Professor HoLLOWAY, SIR-Some time since, one of my children was af-flicted with dreadful eruptions over the body and limbs. I obtained the advice of several eminent Sur-geons and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Oini-ment and Physicians, by all of whom the case was considered hopeless. At length I tried your Oini-ment and Physicians, by all of whom the safe to was miraculous, for by persevering in their use, all the eruptions quickly disappeared, and the child was restored to perfect health. I previously lost a child from a similar complaint, and I firmly believe, had I in her case adopted your medicines, she would have been saved also. I shall be happy to testify the truth of this to any enquirer. (Signed) J. HIRD, Draper.

TER TEN TENT ARB SUFFERING. Copy of a Letter from Mr. Thompson, Chemist, Liverpool, dated August 20, 1852. To Professor HoLLOWAY, DEAR SIR—I am enabled to furnish you with a most extraordinary cure effected by your invaluable Ointment and Pille which has astonished every per-son acquainted with the sufferer. About 10 years ago, Mr. W. Cummis, of Salturg Btreet, in the town, was thrown from his horse, whereby he receiv-ed very serious injuries; he had the best medical ad-vice at the time, and was afterwards an inmate of different infirmaries, yet he grew worse, and at length a malgmain running ulcer settled in his hip, which so completely, crippled him, that he could not move without crutches for nearly 10 years; treently he be-gan to use your Ointment and Pills, which have now healed the wound, strengthened his limb, and enabled him to dispense with his crutches, so that he can walk with the greatest ease, and with renewed health and vigor. (Signed) J. THOMPSON.
