

THE KING'S COUNTY CATTLE SHOW.

The King's County Cattle show was held as usual, at Finlay's on the Georgetown Road on Friday the 28th September. The weather was wet and stormy in the morning, but it cleared up at 10 o'clock and remained fine till toward evening. The show of stock altogether was very inferior, and in a number of classes there was no competition, the Judges however, recommended one or two animals, and prizes were accordingly awarded. It is to be hoped that the influential gentlemen and farmers in the County will bestir themselves and endeavour to keep pace with their more successful brethren in Prince County, who can boast of a very flourishing Branch Society under the judicious management of their Secretary, Mr. Fraser. Mr. Finlay, an old Waterloo man, prepared a most abundant and well cooked dinner, at a very moderate charge, which was partaken of by about thirty farmers. Wm. McGowan, Esq., of Souris, presided over the meeting with his usual judgment.

The following is a list of the Prizes awarded:

Table listing prizes for various categories including Blood Cattle, Blood Fillies, and Bulls. Columns include prize number, name of winner, and amount.

CORRESPONDENCE.

TO THE EDITOR OF HASZARD'S GAZETTE.

Sir: It is our painful duty to request you to give insertion in your paper of the death of our worthy Brother, the late John Munn, who was a consistent member of the "Caledonia Division, No. 24, S. of Temperance," located at Wood Islands after a protracted illness of 12 months duration, which he endured with christian fortitude, he departed this life on the 31st ult. The late brother Munn was a native of this Island, and endeared himself to a large circle of friends and acquaintances, by his many amiable and christian virtues, his mournful demise cast a deep gloom over the community generally; the vast number which assembled to attend his funeral, and the mournful aspect of the whole evinced the esteem in which he was so deservedly held.

Most sincerely do we (the Caledonians) sympathize with the worthy family, who is the subject of this sore bereavement; but they know the source of consolation, and their gracious master, whom they so long and faithfully served will give them strength according to their days.

The buried brother of this year, You meet us in our dreams, When in the holy bush of night, The light of memory streams, Athwart the darkness that enshrouds, Our prison'd spirits in, And makes us long to quit this world Of darkness and of sin.

We miss thee at our meeting hour, When songs of praise and prayer Arise to him who maketh us The object of his care.

We miss thee at our parting hour, When sober bands arise, And stars look sweetly down on us From far and happy skies;

We miss thee! O! we miss thee! To hear the gavel, with With earnest hearts we first did meet, And found a refuge here, When hopes were high, and life was young, And all devoid of tears,—

We miss thee: but in that clime Where death is never known, We'll hail thee with the kiss of peace, And find a tearless home;

CALEDONIA DIVISION, S. of T., No. 24. Wood Islands, Sept. 24.
