Os the 27th of April Mr. Patrick Cash of Graham's Road, left the Island bound for Colorado, there to join his old time friend, Mr. J. O'Connor, of Clinton, New London, who as will be remembered left the Island 13 months ago. Mr. Cash is an energetic young man, and he arries with him the many kind wishes of all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance. We wish him success.

A NUMBER of the pupils of Que tainment in St. Patrick's Hall, on Monday evening next, the 11th instant, consisting of Dialogues, Recitations, Readings, and a laughable Farce. The young gentlemen have devoted considerable time to their several parts, and we have no doubt but a very acceptable enter tainment will be presented to the public.

THE Eagle Optic, of Larned City, Kansas, says : " Mr. S. D. Fitzgerald, Pawnee County's sheep king, shipped two hundred and fifty-five mutton sheep to the Kansas City market Tuesday night, that average one hundred and fifteen of lat sheep as was ever shipped from this section of the State, and should bring top figures in any market where its class mutton is desired." Mr. Fitzgrand it is one of Ray De Etterspeak! of fat sheep as was ever shipped from gerald is a son of Rev. Dr. Fitzgerald, diary Magistrate. A vany skilful surgical operation was performed at the City Hospital last Saturday. A young lad belonging to Tignish had, in some way, got a small piece of tin, about three quarters of an inch square, lodged in his windpipe, whence it had been found impossible to remove it. Dr. Conroy conducted the operation which consisted of making an opening in the windpipe, inserting a tube and then extracting the piece of tin, which was menaged successfully, and the patient is doing well.

Wn are glad to see that the Police Force recognize the necessity of stopping corner loafing, but does it not strike them that they are rather late, and that they have commenced with the wrong men? Yesterday morning three young men were arraigned at the Police Court men were arraigned at the Police Court charged with that offence, two of whom were sentenced to fourteen days im-prisonment, and the third to seven days, all with hard labor. The two who received the longer sentence have worked steadily all winter until the last few weeks, when, not being of a literary turn of mind, their leisure hours were employed in fdle gossip with some com-panions. As a matter of fact, however, when they were arrested by the police they were at work on the wharf, and we consider it exceedingly wrong that they should have been punished as they wore. When they were idle, they were quiet and inoffensive—we have passed them scores of times—neither was it charged that they were drinking follows; the bold police could not catch them while loading, but the moment they went decently to work they were nabled. The man santenced to seven days we have since harmed has been pardoned by the liagistrate, and therefore we forbear any remarks on his case. There are several hard tickets with whom, if arrested and punished, we would have no sympathy, but we object to such severe sentence being imposed upon young men who were guilty of but a trilling, if any offence.
