Great Burin Sons of Temperance.

Once again we advise the temperance cause which we claim to be an emblem of purity that washes away the stains of black intemperance.

The Grand Division, S. of T., installed its officers for the ensuing year, as follows:—

- Bro. John Walsh—G. W. P.
- Bro. Harold Hollett—G. A.
- Bro. S. J. Adams—G. Scribe.
- Bro. Wm. F. Darby—G. Treasurer.
- Bro. Oliver Hollett—G. Con.
- Bro. Wm. B. Hollett—G. Chap.
- Bro. Frederick Hollett—G. Sent.
- Bro. Wm. Revil—G. Patron.

Bro. Wm. J. B. Emberley—P. G. W. P. We held our annual parade on the 21st inst., the Guiding Star Division and the Grand Division consisting of 92 members left the Temperance Hall to proceed to the Central Methodist Church, by way of motor boats, with banners floating in the breeze and hand playing away we sped. Landing at Mosquito Cove we marched to the church where we heard from the Rev. Mr. Coppin a very interesting sermon and very exhilarating in its tone; we were also acquainted of the evils of intemperance in various ways. After service, accompanied by the band, we marched back to Mosquito Cove, thence to Step-a-Side by motor boats, marching on to Great Burin where we found the good ladies awaiting our arrival with welcome shining on their countenances. Truly we can say that great good is and has been accomplished by the ladies of Great Burin by the noble work they have achieved. The tables were filled with good things, suiting the requirements of all present. After tea some entertainment took place consisting of speeches, recitations, selections from the band and singing, an address from Rev. Mr. Coppin, Ensign Tuck, S. A., and Rev. Mr. Hallam and Capt. Robt. F. Hollett; recitation by Miss Ella Hollett; duet by Mrs. Gabriel Hollett and Miss Carrie Hollett. After a few other remarks the meeting closed by singing the National Anthem.

After the meeting the hall was open for the usual enjoyment such as Cat after the Rat, Johnnie Miller, Tag-of-War and other similar games. The night being stormy the old folks crept to their homes, while the young folks remained behind and sang: "We Won't go Home Till Morning, Till Daylight do Appear." The young folks enjoyed themselves and the winding up resulted to God speed the night.

Our motto is: Temperance and Sobriety, Concord and Harmony, Land a Hand.

Sir Charles Lanctot Apologized to Mr. MacNab.

SIR HUGH GRAHAM TO BE CALLED AS A WITNESS IN GRAFT INQUIRY.

Quebec, Feb. 5.—There were two features in to-day's happenings in connection with the Quebec graft inquiry. In the Legislative Assembly Mr. Jean Prevost in the most direct and scathing terms denounced the assault on Mr. MacNab, made yesterday by Mr. Charles Lanctot, deputy Attorney General of the Province.

In the Council Committee of Investigation, Mr. MacNab moved that Sir Hugh Graham be subpoenaed to appear before the Committee and give evidence as to whether the information gathered by the Burns detectives had been submitted to him when the ownership of the Herald had been sold. The significance of Mr. MacNab's request is that the appearance of Sir Hugh will probably tend to throw light upon recent happenings in the journalistic field in Montreal and disclose some of the motives which inspired those who were the protagonists in the drama.

Sir Hugh Graham to Appear. In the Council Committee Mr. Beck said that after the detectives had concluded their operations and collected their information, the ownership of the Herald had been changed. He had submitted his evidence to the new men in control of the Herald, but they would not take the responsibility of publishing it. Then he took and laid it before Messrs. MacNab and Nichols.

Mr. MacNab asked to whom Mr. Beck sent his resignation and if he had submitted his evidence to them. Mr. Beck said that he did not think he should answer this question, and Mr. MacNab then asked the Committee to swear out a subpoena for Sir Hugh Graham to appear before it in order that the truth might come out. The committee will report upon Mr. MacNab's request to-morrow morning.

Sir Hugh Graham wired Hon. Mr. Chapais to-night that he will appear here to-morrow. It is likely that the medical commission appointed by the Legislature to examine Mr. Mousseau will also arrive in the morning.

The Quebec Legislature, graft enquiry entered upon a more humorous phase this morning, when one of the witnesses, J. A. Labelle, the Montreal lawyer, who told the promoters of the Montreal Fair Association Bill by whom he had been retained of the great enterprise he had displayed on its behalf, was forced to acknowledge that he had been putting up a big bluff. Detectaphone reports credited Mr. Labelle with telling the detectives he had interested certain members, and the witness had to acknowledge the facts to the legislators that he had never seen them at all in connection with the Bill, much to the enjoyment of the big crowd again in attendance.

The witness after informing the committee that he claimed a lawyer's right not to divulge his professional secrets, said he had never given any legislator a cent for handling the Bill. Mr. Taschereau wanted to know if the conversations reported through the detectaphone in which he figured were true.

Mr. MacNab said he would give the question to the witness if Mr. Labelle was instructed to answer it.

Foiled the Detectives.

Mr. Labelle without waiting for instructions, said the Bill was drawn up by the promoters and not by him, and he thought it genuine.

Deschamps, of Montreal, told him that Martin & Co. who were behind the Bill was a good concern. Mr. Levergne asked Mr. Labelle what he had to say about the report given by the detectives that he had said $200 looked a lot of money to come of the legislators who resided in some of the cheapest hotels in Quebec.

Mr. Labelle said he did not know the names of the members who lived at the cheapest hotels, and no members could say he had spoken to them about receiving money for the Montreal Fair Association Bill. Mr. Taschereau asked if Mr. Labelle had told Hyland as reported, he (witness) would look after Mr. Teller, and that he had been to Joliette to see him.

Mr. Labelle said he could not remember what he told Hyland. Mr. Teller suggested amid laughter, that Mr. Labelle should give the detectaphone the lie, if it had reproduced his voice as making this statement.

Mr. Labelle said it was not he who had interviewed Mr. Teller at Joliette about the Bill.

Mr. Taschereau queried the witness about the statement credited to him that he had appeared before the Cabinet and had asked that the Bill be passed.

Mr. Labelle said he might have said something of the sort but could not recollect for certain. He had never appeared before the Cabinet.

Mr. Lanctot Apologized.

Charles Lanctot, the deputy attorney general, who last night came to blows with Mr. E. A. MacNab, editor of the Mail, the paper which has preferred the graft charges, this morning made a public apology to the Montreal newspaperman.

Appearing before the Legislative Committee of Enquiry he read the following statement:

"An accident happened last night which I regret very much. After the mention of my name was made by Mr. Keyes in answer to a question which appeared to me to be unjust so far as I am concerned, I allowed myself to be carried away and I acted towards Mr. MacNab in a manner that I regret. I ask that I may be allowed to offer my excuse."

After the statement which had been read in French had been translated, Mr. MacNab rose and said: "I accept Mr. Lanctot's statement in the spirit in which it was made, and hope that this unpleasant inci-

The fate of ten Virginians

Ten Virginia Cigarettes lay underneath a pine —
A trout he smoked one of them and then there were nine.

Nine Virginia Cigarettes dropt inside a gate —
Tired Tim took one of them and then there were eight

Eight Virginia Cigarettes went curling at eleven —
One curled away in clouds of smoke and then there were seven.

Seven Virginia Cigarettes were in an awful fix —
One hit against a lighted match and then there were six—

Six Virginia Cigarettes were very much alive —
When a sailor bold took several draws and then there were five.

Five Virginia Cigarettes were lying on the shore —
Pat took one, smiled, said "This is great," and then there were four.

Four Virginia Cigarettes sailed off to Trinity —
Oae said "I'll stay and advertise," and then there were three

Three Virginia Cigarettes were feeling awful blue —
One said "I live from hand to mouth," and then there were two.

Two Virginia Cigarettes left Topsail for a run —
One got puffed out at Donovan's and then there was one.

One Virginia Cigarette if smoked by you, for sure —
Will make you buy a packet of ten Virginias more.

Varicose Veins and Itching Piles

Relief and Cure Directed by Dr. Chase's Ointment.

Nearly everybody knows of Dr. Chase's Ointment as the most effective treatment for piles or hemorrhoids that medical science has been able to compound. So much suffering and misery arises from this ailment that one is not long in telling his friends when he has found an actual cure. This accounts for the enormous sales of Dr. Chase's Ointment.

This letter tells of relief from the suffering of varicose veins by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. Many suffer from this trouble not knowing the comfort to be obtained by the use of this great soothing ointment.

Mr. R. J. Evans, 137 Ontario street, Toronto, writes: "We have used Dr. Chase's Ointment for years. I have been troubled with varicose veins, and find it the only thing that gives relief. For every purpose when a soothing, healing ointment is needed there is nothing so good as Dr. Chase's Ointment." 66 cents a box all dealers, or Edmanson, Bate & Co., Limited, Toronto.
