Little Edgar had been posing for some students at an art school. When evening came, and the portrait was not yet finished, the instructor cautioned him not to change his clothing lest he ruin the color scheme of the picture. Two weeks of undisturbed painting passed and the portrait was at last nearing its perfected state, when the instructor received from the little model's mother the following letter: "Please, sir, can't you hurry up that there picture you're making? Edgar's underwear needs changing." Cartoons Magazine.

GOLD! GOLD!

We strongly advise the purchase of stock in the "North Davidson", the coming big producer of the Porcupine Camp. This property is not a prospect, but has amazing ore bodies indicated by two seasons' diamond drilling. Wire for Maps, Government Assays, Plans, etc., and get some holdings before another big advance.

Through Wood- land Town.

By Helen M. Richardson.

Hark! Santa Claus is coming on his way through Woodland Town. To fill the children's stockings from his pack all loaded down.

What will he leave the wildwood folk from out that pack so full?

Perchance he'll give them feathers bright, or fur or bits of wool.

Perhaps he'll bring some sweet bones and hang them on the trees.

Way up among the branches for the hungry chickadees.

Maybe he'll bring a lot of nuts and chuck them in the hole

Of little Squirrel Bushy Tail, for him to eat and roll.

He may drop from that bulging pack food for the fox and bear:

For such a kind old Santa Claus will surely tend with care.

The little furry feathered tribe that in the wildwood wait.

And long for Mr. Sunshine to unlock the spring-time gate.

Then be alert and ready; do not mind the frost and cold;

Wear your fur and feather dresses, be they new or be they old.

Little wildwood folk be waiting in your jackets gray and brown.

For Santa Claus is passing on his way through Woodland Town.
