BRYAN'S WAFERS, (the great public remedy), have now been in use over twenty years, hence it cannot be said that they are on trial. They have been thoroughly tried, and pronounced (on the authority of those lives and health they have preserved) to be a cure, harmless and eminently salutary preparation, and if taken in season will invariably cure colds, coughs, sore throat, and all Bronchial affections. One fair trial will convince the most skeptical. Sold by all medicine dealers, at 25 cents per box.

NELSON'S SHIP, THE "VICTORY."—Three score and ten years old, if she be a day! and a comely sea-queen yet, even to her age—the grandest and most glorious vessel that ever was launched is now doomed to pass away from sight. An order has been received at Portsmouth, directing that the Victory, heretofore the flagship of the Commander-in-Chief of the port, is to be virtually scratched off the books of the navy, and taken into the "Ordinary." Thus, then, Nelson's ship, the Victory, of Trafalgar, has finally "done her duty." The brave hulk is past all service, and she must "take her discharge."—A later report states that the Victory will still be retained as a receiving ship, and kept open to the public as usual.

Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry.

Coughs, Colds, Bronchitis, Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough, Quinsy, and the numerous as well as dangerous diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs, prevail in our changeable climate at all seasons of the year; few are fortunate enough to escape their baneful influence. How important then to have at home a certain antidote to all these complaints. Experience proves that this exists in Wistar's Balsam to an extent not found in any other remedy; however severe the suffering, the application of this soothing, healing and wonderful Balsam at once vanquishes the disease and restores the sufferer to wonted health.

MR. JOHN BOXROS, of Baldwin, Chemung Co., N. Y., writes:—"I was urged by a neighbor to get one bottle of the Balsam for my wife, being assured by him that in case it did not produce good effects, he would pay for the bottle himself. On the strength of such practical evidence of its merits, I procured a bottle. My wife at this time was now with what the physicians termed Seated Consumption as to be unable to raise herself from the bed, coughing constantly and raising more or less blood. I commenced giving the Balsam as directed, and was so much pleased with its operation that I obtained another bottle, and continued giving it. Before this bottle was entirely used, she ceased coughing, and was strong enough to sit up. The fifth bottle entirely restored her to health, doing that which several physicians had tried to do but had failed.

Prepared by SETH W. FOWLE & SON, 18 Tremont-st, Boston, and for sale by druggists generally.

ACROSTIC.

Gently it penetrates through every pore,
Relieving sufferers from each angry sore;
All wounds it heals with certainty and speed;
Cuts, burns, from inflammation soon are freed;
Eruptions, at its presence disappear;
Skins lose each stain, and the complexion's clear.

Salve, such as GRACE'S, every one should buy,
All to its wondrous merits testify,
Let those who doubt, a single box but try—
Verily, then its true deserts 'twould have;
Even unbelievers would laud GRACE'S SALVE
