New York, Oct. 11.—Swinging their war-clubs like the cavemen of old, the New York Nationals batted their way to victory over the Chicago team today by a score of 5 to 0. As a result of the second defeat of the White Sox in two days, the Giants are traveling west tonight on even terms with their rivals in the struggle for world series honors. The outcome of the battle for premier baseball honors is as much in doubt as before the series began in Chicago last Saturday. Each team now has won two contests, and the indications point to a full seven-game contest before either club will admit the

acy of the other. The victory of the Giants in the fourth game was the most impressive of the struggle to date for the National league color bearers exceled both in pitching and with the bat. While the Chicago combination threatened several they never got a runner beyond third base, and the American league team left for the shores of Lake Michgan without crossing the Polo Grounds home plate in 18 innings.

Two new diamond heroes leaped to pedestals of fame in the clash today, for Ferdinand Schupp turned the White Sox batters back without a run, and Benny Kauff led the batting massacre with two home runs, seventh inning and Danforth took up the hurling for the White Sox when the Giants went to bat in the eighth. Burns fanned, but Herzog spieshed a single to center, and for the second time in the game, Kauff found a bail to his liking and sent it sailing away for another homerun. This time he hooked the ball toward the right field stand and the sphere drowned into the spandetand back

Schupp Makes Good The youthful left-hander fully redeemed himself for the vicious sally of the Chicago club in the second game on their home grounds, when the Comiskey park batters drove him from the mound early in the game, while Kauff, after thirteen hitless trips to the plate, finally found his batting eye and hit Pitcher Faber for a circuit drive, which paved the way for the Glants' onslaught. which Faber for a circuit drive, which paved the way for the Giants' onslaught, which later was to demoralize the White Sox. The effectiveness of Schupp's hurling and Kauff's batting was sufficient to defeat the American leaguers, but the scent of victory was contagious and their teammates were but a stride behind them in the world the White Sox trenches. rush through the White Sox trenches Only twice in the long history of world eries baseball has Kauff's feat of two series baseball has kaon's teat of the comeruns in one same been duplicated. Central Collegiate Was Secend With Prevocational Third, and St. Mary's Fourth Crescent Heights won the Alex. Marin shield and school championship of the interscholastic annual sports yesterday from six competiting schools in admittedly the most successful and ex-citing athletic meet ever held in the city. Central Collegiate was second and Pre-Vocational, the new member of the nterscholastic, third. The first event was called promptly at 2 p.m. and by 5 o'clock the program was finished being run off with clock-work efficiency—delays being consp'cuous by their absence.

Big Crowd of Rooters All the schools were represented by large crowds of rooters, who gave their yells and songs and cheers with so much vigor that the building resounded with noise upon noise, especially as their favorites came in winners.

Students Are Good Sports Good sportsmanship re'gned supreme throughout the afternoon and while the competitions were keen yet the per-formances of every athlete received generous treatment at the hands of the cheer-leaders.

One-Legged Jumper Does Well One of the features of the standing broad jump in the 95-pound class was the performance of David Pasternack, a one-legged youngster who competed under the colors of Crescent Heights under the Collegiate. He finished fourth in a keen ontest and his creditable showing made

Meet Was Most Successful It was the biggest athletic meet of years and the best organized, while the right colors and pennants worn by he students together with the enthusthe students together with the students iastic support given the competitors made it an event to be remembered. The unanimous verdict of the principals and officials was that the resumption of the meets after their suspension for a few years was a very wise one and that the eet was more than successful.
