George Ernest Rose is now commending his fourth year as an alderman. He was elected on the labor ticket, and is well known in labor circles. He has served on the board of works and No. 3 committee. When not busy with the council he keeps a livery stable on the Hamilton road.

John H. Saunders has been elected for many years, and is, with the exception of Ald. Cooper, the oldest man in point of service in the council. He is a carriage maker and head banker for the Woodmen of the World.

Dr. W. J. Stevenson, M. O. has been an alderman for many years, and has served practically all the time on the toance committee. He has been a member of the board of health and other bodies.

Three Charming Songs.

Three Charming Songs.

Messrs. Nordheimer & Co. have just brought out a most charming little book of songs, entitled "Three Lyrics," by Ravenor Bullen.

Bound in a highly artistic cover of pale blue, lettered in black and gold, it is natural that the little album will attract the attention of those who are sacking for something different from the common run of such things.

The songs are named: 1. Clarice, 2. The Old Garden Swing, 3. O Sweetheart, Mine. They show, in the words, a delicacy of thought and expression, and in the airs a refined and distinctive gift of melody, which cannot fall to render them popular.

INGERSOLL ELECTIONS

Large Vote Polled and Several of Old Council Defeated.

Municipal elections in Ingersoli yesterday were more than usually interup csting, though not intensely exciting. A strong feeling of quiet but determined indignation and dissatisfaction with the extravagant administration of the old council, and an ardent desire t change to something better brought out a large vote, and so far as can b ascertained at present the result is
