TWO MORE GAINS BRING THE BRITISH NEARER VILLAGES

500 Yards of Trenches Captured East of Les Boeufs.

BATTLE NEAR THIEPVAL

Germans Enter an Important Section of Trench, But Are Driven Out.

LONDON, Sept. 29.—Today the British forces on the Somme front reached out toward three more villages, making two important gains. Five hundred yards of German trenches were occupied east of Les Boeufs, bringing the British nearer the village of Le Transloy, located on the Bapaume-Peronne highway.

By the capture early this morning of a strongly-defended farm 500 yards southeast of Le Sars this village, situated on the Albert-Bapaume road, is menaced, while Bancourt l'Abbaye, between Courcellette and Gueudecourt, is almost surrounded.

Heavy fighting near Thiepval. There has been heavy fighting about Thiepval. The British were forced out of a section of a trench, which they regained later. Prisoners to the number of 521 have been taken in the last twenty-four hours.

British aeroplanes have continued to do effective work, despite unfavorable weather. North of Ypres, in the neighborhood of Bertincourt, a huge explosion was observed, according to an official report this afternoon. Smoke ascended 5,000 feet, apparently from a large ammunition dump, which was blown up.

Official Report.
Tonight's official statement says: "Rain fell heavily today and except for intermittent shelling there was little activity on our front and our right wing of the battle front. Some slight progress was made east of Les Boeufs, where we occupied 500 yards of enemy trenches."
In the Thiepval area there was heavy fighting round the Stuff redoubt. Having taken an important section of the Hessian trench we were forced out of it by a counter-attack but regained it later in the day.

"In this section, during the last twenty-four hours, we have taken prisoners eight officers and 521 men. In spite of the weather our aeroplanes have done useful work, attacking the enemy's reinforcements on the move. Yesterday enemy aircraft patrolled actively behind their own lines, but showed little enterprise. One enemy machine was destroyed. One of our own machines has not returned."

Quiet on French Front.
The French official report tonight says the day has been comparatively quiet on the whole. Last night some progress was made between Pregelcourt and Morval. This afternoon's report says:

"During the day, yesterday, a flier aeroplane was attacked by our pilots and crashed to the ground north of Rheims. Another flier was hit and badly damaged and dived headfirst into its own line."

Women by Hundreds Sob With Emotion at Billy Sunday Meeting

Thousands of White-Haired Women Attend Remarkable Service at Detroit.

DETROIT, Mich., Sept. 29.—Thousands of white-haired women, who formed fully 60 per cent of the audience which heard Evangelist Billy Sunday preach his sermon in honor of motherhood this afternoon, lent unusual interest to the picture in the big tabernacle, which was about two-thirds filled for the afternoon service, and was crowded in the evening, when Mr. Sunday preached on the same subject. Motor cars donated for the occasion brought scores of aged women, many on crutches, some too feeble to walk, and the halt, the blind, and the lame, were included in an immense outpouring of aged mothers of Detroiters.

Nearly everyone in the tabernacle wore a white flower, and the sea of white heads and long rows of white blossoms made a spectacle not soon to be forgotten.

Ninety-One Hit the Trail.
It was upon the pretty story of the infant Moses and mother-love which saved him, to become leader of the hosts of Israel, that Billy Sunday, in an official report this afternoon, built his sermon, and from sweetly touching music at the opening, to an impressive plea for "trail-litters" at the close, the day was given over to the mother and her powers, her sacrifices, and her influence. Ninety-one hit the trail, all being women, and three-fourths of them white-haired.

At the opening of the afternoon sermon Billy Sunday, Jun., said to his mother a bunch of white roses, which were carried to "Ma" Sunday by an usher. Song Leader Rodheaver and Mrs. Ascher, of the Sunday party, opened the afternoon service with a beautifully-rendered duet, "Dear Ones in Glory Are Looking This Way."

From the far rear of the great tabernacle came a soft answering chorus, sung by a group of women, "Tell Mother I'll Be There." Hundreds were sobbing, with faces buried in handkerchiefs, long before the music died away. Hundreds in that audience of deep mourning, and as the evangelist touched on the depths of paths in his talk, women sobbed and shook with emotion.

At the outset of his sermon, Billy Sunday drew a word picture of a home bereft of a baby, with little baby shoes, toys, ribbons and tresses of baby hair laid tenderly away.

In his talk he lauded mothers to the skies and as suddenly turned and upbraided them for carelessness in upbringing of children, as in the instance, where a particularly beautiful flight of rhetoric on the glories of mother love, he suddenly turned and said:

"The devil would bank his fires if the mothers of boys and girls would watch the companions and pastimes and habits of their children. You know it, too."
"You'd better get something into your old empty heads and keep your boys from getting around."

A moment before he said:
"For Wine Guzzlers and Dancers."
"There's more power in a mother's hand than in a king's sceptre. When God gave you the job of mother, He gave you His right hand. That's something for you old card-players, wine-guzzlers and dancers to think about."

The text tonight was Exodus 18: 9: "Take this child and nurse it for me, and I will give thee thy wages."
Here are a few "Sundayisms":
"Mothers are always brave when safety of their children is concerned."
"Fathers often get the blues, hit the booze and commit suicide; but the mother will stand by the home and keep the little hand together if she has to manure her finger nails over a washboard to do it."

"If you want to find real, true greatness, look toward the cradle. Launching a boy or girl to live for Jesus Christ is a greater feat than launching a battleship with eighteen inches of Harveyized steel armor. Bringing up a good boy is a great task, that building a submarine that can dive in a harbor in Germany and come up in the harbor of New York. There aren't devils enough in hell to pull a boy away from the arms of a Christian mother."

"If men had half as much grit as women there would be different stories written about many homes."
"These were a chosen vessel of the Lord, and God wanted him to get the right kind of a start, so He gave him a good mother."
"Somebody has said, 'God could not be everywhere, so He gave us mothers.'"
"Most any kind of an old stick will do for a daddy, but a mother must be a real mother."

"If every boy and every girl today had a good mother, the saloons and brothels would go out of business tomorrow."

Whatever comes. The offensive will certainly not reach an early end. "We can reckon on an offensive of great persistence, and with heavy attacks, accompanied by an enormous expenditure of ammunition. But we have taken work of the trenches, after having been informed, and likewise our aeroplane corps and our fliers have had fine successes in the past few days, although they have had hard fighting against increased numbers.
