CHILD AID SECRETARY TO HAVE ADVISORY BOARD

Constitution and Bylaws of Society Revised at Adjourned Meeting Tuesday.

At the adjourned annual meeting of the Children's Aid Society, which fol lowed the regular monthly meeting of the board of managers, which was held in the Shelter Tuesday after noon, revisions to the constitution and bylaws were confirmed.

Under the revised constitution, no elective officer or chairman of a committee (with the exception of the honofary solicitors) shall hold the same office for more than three suc cessive years.

The objects of the society were enlarged to include the establishment when possible of a personal service corps, so that individual attention be given to children by interested men and women.

An advisory committee was added to the standing committees. luties of this committee shall be to advise the inspector on difficult problems arising in connection with the operation of the children's protection

The report on revisions to the con stitution and bylaws was presented by Mr. D. H. McDermid, and after discussion of each article the report was adopted on motion of Mr. McDermid, seconded by Mr. T. D. McDermid, seconded by Mr. T

No previous alterations had been made to the constitution since the organization of the society.

In his report, the inspector cited a number of cases in which seriously-neglected children had been removed from evil surroundings. Finds "Wanderlust" Rare Disease 'Mongst City School Teachers

The wanderlust rarely itches the souls of the feet of Lon-don's school teachers, judging from a statement made Wednesday to the new government commission by Chairman Smith, of the board of educa-

He was explaining why so many of London's teachers are drawing the maximum salary, which is reached by ten year's service to the city, if the proper certificates are held.

At the end of last year, Mr. Smith stated, London schools harbored 72 teachers who had for over twenty years moulded the destiny of London's rising generation: 29 others had given from 15 to 19 years unbroken service, and 35 others over 10 years service. This meant that 136 teachers in London's public school were entitled to a salary of $1,600.

At another point the chairman said that in 1910 the board had 120 teachers, so taken in conjunction with the later statement, it is to be taken that the board's staff has been marked only by additions to a total of 218 today and by very few desertions.

Local Organizations Are Collaborating To Make Success of Event.

INNOVATION

Idea Is To Create More Interest in Youths and Develop Manhood.

Although London has, in the past, produced many outstanding successes the proposal on foot to devote a whole week in the life of the city to "Our Boys," is perhaps the largest undertaking of its kind yet attempted.

The objects, briefly, are to teach citizens how to bring to light the qualities of true manhood in the boy, which are ever present, and require only encouragement of the right kind to bring out. To interest everyone in boys and the boys in themselves. To reach the outside boy not cov ered by the various boys' clubs, etc. It is intended to show them vocational guidance and to develop athletics and boy talent.

The following organizations are llaborating in an effort to make a of Columbus, I. O. D. E., Mothers' and

The Ministerial Alliance is also aking an active part in the proposal. Is an Innovation.

Although the holding of a "Boys Week" in any town in Canada is an innovation, a "Boys' Week" was first held in New York in 1920, with overwhelming success. Every day during that week, which started on May Day, was relegated to the boys. The opening day was marked by a parade, never before attempted in any like connection, in which 50,000 picked boys, representative of every conceivable boys' organization in New York, marched sixteen abreast over a route four miles long. There were white, yellow and colored, each and every one with a united object, eminding the father that the boy of oday is the man of tomorrow

This gigantic parade was followed by "Boys' Day in Churches," the main the church together. This preceded "Boys' Day in Schools," "Boys' Day n Athletics," "Boys' Day in Indusry." "Boys' Day at Home," "Boys' Day to Entertain," and "Boys' Day Out-of-doors."

Follow otary Rules. The original program as adopted by the New York Rotary Club, under whose auspices the week was arranged, will be adhered to during the local "Boys' Week," which will be held week were $2,496,324, and for the throughout Easter week, beginning corresponding week last year $2,809,- Monday, April 17, as normally, the Monday, April 17, as normally, the boys would be idle during that time.

> The chairman and secretary will be appointed at the next meeting, which s to be held March 28. It is believed that strong, practical support will be given by every citizen of London to inspire a closer
