COUNCIL APPROVES OF PROSECUTIONS

Yarmouth Body Compliments
Authorities On Traffic
Action.

RECKLESS DRIVING

Special to The Advertiser.
St. Thomas, Sept. 5.—Magistrate Maxwell has corrected the impression which has gone abroad regarding the conviction of John S. Ashplant, London, on a charge of speeding between St. Thomas and Port Stanley early in the week. According to the evidence given by Mr. Ashplant's driver, Kenneth Braithwaite the car was travelling at a speed which in the eyes of the law is a violation of the Ontario motor vehicles' act.

At the regular meeting the Yarmouth council complimented the authorities on the stand they had taken in regards to reckless driving.

Miscellaneous Shower.

A tea was given this evening at 6 o'clock for brides-elect, the Misses Olive and Gladys Lawrence, at the home of Mrs. M. C. Moore, 52 Flora street. A miscellaneous shower was also given at the Purple Iris Tea Rooms for Miss Olive Lawrence. The shower was given by Miss Lucille Kilmer, while many of Miss Lawrence's friends from the Central Methodist Church attended.

Orchestra Planned.

Howard Gordon, the well-known violinist and teacher, has plans under way to form a symphony orchestra amongst his pupils in this city. He is also considering conducting an opera during the winter.

Debating Club.

The Twentieth Century Club, an organization which at one time figured prominently in debating circles as well as other activities, and which has lain dormant for a number of years, was reorganized at a meeting held at Alma Presbyterian Church Thursday evening. Eighteen young men attended the gathering, the following officers being elected: President, Peter Laing; vice-president, Fred Murch; secretary, Doug Martin; treasurer, J. Patrick. Mayor Stoggett is to be the speaker at the initial meeting of the club next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. W. C. McIvor.

The death of Mrs. W. C. McIvor, formerly of this city, took place at her home in Detroit last night. Mrs. McIvor resided for many years on Elgin street. She was a member of Knox Presbyterian Church. She is survived by her husband and one daughter, Myrtle, at home.

Diamond Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Buchner today celebrated the diamond anniversary of their wedding at their home in Wellington street, Yarmouth Heights. Miss Catherine Bradley became the bride of Peter M. Buchner on September 5, 1864. The ceremony was performed in this city by the late Elder Polin and, excepting for a brief year spent in Crowland Township, they have spent their entire lives in this neighborhood.

Gilbert Bouchard.

The wedding of Edward Gilbert of Port Stanley to Helen Bouchard of Toronto took place Thursday at the home of Rev. David Rogers, 28 St. Anne's place. They were attended by Percy Vary and Elsie Williamson.

Whiteley Orchard.

Miss Isabel Orchard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Evered Orchard of Sombra, and DeLos Whiteley, also of Sombra, were married Thursday at Grace Methodist Church, patronage by the Rev. A. E. Moorehouse. The young couple were attended by the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Orchard of Shaden. The bride wore a becoming travelling suit of navy blue. They will reside in Sombra.

DUCK HUNTING SEASON COMMENCES AT RONDEAU

Special to The Advertiser.
Blenheim, Sept. 5.—Duck hunters of Rondeau have made their first attack of the season on the ducks, and report fair success. Several from town were in the parties who celebrated Monday with gun in hand at the water, and each returned with sufficient for a duck supper.

Laundries Planned For Farmer Wives

Government Aid Sought For Co-operative Scheme.

Canadian Press Despatch.
Toronto, Sept. 5.—Government assistance for the purpose of establishing co-operative laundries for farmers' wives was the suggestion made here today at a conference investigating farming conditions in Ontario, by Mrs. W. N. Glenn. This was women's day at the investigation, and ways and means of making farming more profitable and attractive were discussed.

Hon. J. S. Martin, provincial minister of agriculture, promised that the Ontario government would back the farmer and his wife in every way possible.

BUMPER CROPS OF ONIONS REPORTED NEAR BLenheim

Blenheim, Sept. 5.—Splendid progress is being made by the onion farmers on the reclaimed marsh lands, South Harwich, on the lake shore. It is reported that the onions are not quite as large this year as formerly, but that the favorable weather is producing a good quality. Quite a number of cars have been shipped already. Some of the best fields are expected to produce 300 bags to the acre.

WOMAN FAINTS, TOPPLES BOILING POT OVER SELF

Canadian Press Despatch.
St. Catharines, Sept. 5.—Margaret Reid, seized with a fainting spell at her home here last night, toppled over a boiling pot from the stove. The contents poured over her, and her injuries were regarded as most critical by medical examiners today.

PREMIER FERGUSON ILL.
Toronto, Sept. 5.—Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, provincial premier, who was to have delivered an address at the luncheon of the directors of the Canadian National Exhibition, this afternoon, was unable to do so, being confined to his home through illness.
