NEW YEAR ENTERS QUIETLY

Watch Night Services
Held--Bells Proclaim
New Comer

Midnight Sunday night, Old Father Time, turned his year's wheel upside down, for the sands of 1911 had been run and the New Year, 1912, was at hand.

The New Year, however, was welcomed quietly at Berlin. Numbers of people of course sat up to give the new comer the glad hand, and ringing of bells proclaimed the joining in 1912's appearance.

At the Trinity Methodist church, a service was held commencing at seven o'clock. The Salvation Army conducted a service at a band racks following which the parade of the streets.

Thus did 1912 make its entrance in Berlin.

SHOULD WOMEN VOTE?

Well if they could. They'd vote for what is pure and good. Lockhart's Coal because it's best. Would simply overwhelm the rest.

INSURANCE RATES CUT.

Some insurance companies cut rates. Some also cut losses. Company's policy is to give you more than you pay. Cannot get the best at a price. It is the most reliable and prudent policy to save a trifle on your premium, and get a better protection. Pay the regular rate and secure absolute protection in the Liverpool & London Globe.

NIGHT SCHOOL

Night school commences at the Business College next Tuesday evening when new students will be admitted.

Grand Jury

Los Angeles, Jan. 2.—Ortic McManis, accused murderer of the deputy sheriff and a delegate to the state assembly in an automobile accident, is being held in custody here. In an address, he promised to discontinue the Manchus, re-establish peace, promote trade and devote his entire energy to aiding the Chinese people. He announced that a strong Central Government would be formed and a system of administration would be elected in the provinces. Also that the country would be given a local army and a navy under the control of Central Government. The whole fiscal system would be re-adjusted.
