The work of improving Kootenay rapids, for the benefit of steamer navigation, which has been going forward under the direction of Mr. F. C. Gamble, Dominion engineer, for some time, has now been practically finished. It consisted of about 1,000 feet of crib-work. The cribs are located on the edge of deep water to prevent steamers from drifting on the bar at places where the rapids are strong. If any further improvement is projected, it will doubtless be a despening of the channel where rocks or the VANCOUVER, March 26.—The city council have voted the Mayor $1,200, and will vote themselves salaries not to exceed $400 each at the next council meeting.

Jos. Green fell fifty feet from a bridge near North Bend and landed on a rock. He is being carefully nursed in the city hospital and the dectors say he will recover.

M. A. Maclean, J. P., is very seriously ill, little hope being entertained of his recovers.

Mr. Maclean was Vancouver's first mayor, and so closely associated with Vancouver's history that citizens are showing practical sympathy by alding his family in their hour of need, and at the same time giving testimony of their appreciation of Mr. Maclean's worth as a citizen and ploneer of the Terminal City.

The entire delegation assembled around the terrace facdelegation assembled around the terrace fac-ing the lawn. Count Stolberg, Her von Koeller, the Pruesian minister of the inter-ior, and President Von Levetzow walked through the castle to the terrace, where through the castle to the terrace, where each made a short speech of congratulation.

Bismarck replied in a clear voice, "Accept my warmest thanks for the honor you have rendered me. It is to me the highest distinction to see such a noble assembly united here. I should be ashamed of the honor were it not for the work I have done, rather than my param only. The credit for rather than my person only. The credit for the political results achieved I share with those co-operating with me, and above all with my greatly worshipped good master, now dead, under whom I worked so long." Here the good ex Chancellor stopped speaking and cried bitterly, the assembly in the meantime being greatly affected. Re-
