WEDDINGS

NICHOL-KIERSTEAD
At the Manse, Tide Head, on Wednesday April 30th, by Rev. E. V. Forbes, M. A., John Frue Nichol and Annie Elizabeth Kierstead, both of Glen Levit.

MacLEAN-HENDERSON
The marriage of Miss Faith Dorthea Henderson, daughter of Judge and Mrs. G. A. Henderson, and James Duncan MacLean, son of Mr. and Mrs. John M. MacLean of Campbellton was solemnized in Centenary church at noon on Wednesday April 23rd by the Rev. R. G. Fulton, assisted by the Rev. Hugh Miller, pastor of St. David's church and a former pastor of the groom in his home town.

The bride, who was given away by her father, was attractively attired in a navy blue travelling suit and a navy and grey hat and carried a large sheaf of American Beauty Roses. The wedding was informal the happy couple being unattended, except for little Miss Eileen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. Grant Smith, a cousin of the bride, who acted as flower girl. Little Miss Smith who was dressed in yellow, carried a basket of sweet peas and daisies.

Miss Alice Hees, presided at the organ, while Miss Dorothy Kee and her brother, Arnold, intimate friends of the bride sang "O Perfect Love during the ceremony."

The bride is a graduate in arts from Mount Allison and is well known and particularly active and popular in Centenary church and is a member of the Women's University Club of this city. She is also, a member of several patriotic societies. The groom is also a former Mount Allison student being graduated in arts, with honors in Physics. Later he secured his M. A. from the same university. Mr. MacLean served overseas during the Great War as a Lieutenant and was awarded the Military Cross for special distinction. He has been a teacher of marked ability in the Manual Training School in this city. The esteem in which they are both held is evidenced by the large number of useful and valuable gifts of which they have been the recipient.

After the ceremony the happy couple left for Moncton where they will spend a few days, after which they will visit friends in Nova Scotia.

Cape Cove

The marriage of Mr. Westley Mercier and Miss Lillian McGee of Lunenburg was solemnized in St. James Church on Wednesday afternoon April 30th, the Rev. Mr. A. J. Oakley officiating. The bride who was given away by her uncle Mr. Ansel Beck, wore a brown satin and lace dress and hat to match.

The happy couple will reside at Lunenburg where they have congratulations and best wishes from a host of friends for a long and happy wedded life.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. Arthur Bauche are glad to welcome him back. We understand that he is taking charge of the Robin, Jones & Whitman branch here.

We are sorry to learn that Mr. and Mrs. Le Bas of Robin, Jones & Whitman are leaving here to take charge of Grand River Branch for the same firm.

The Rev. Mr. A. J. Buckley left Saturday morning for Port Daniel where he will hold services in that Parish. He was replaced by Mr. Herron who held services here and at Port.

Mrs. A. J. Oakley entertained Mrs. Lenfesty and Mrs. de Gruchy for afternoon tea on Monday.

Mrs. Urquhart of Cape Despair visited friends here on Wednesday.

Some Lobsters have been reported along this shore but owing to the weather being stormy it has hindered the fishermen from hauling their traps regularly.

Thursday's storm played havoc with the lobster gear. Many traps and ropes coming ashore, to much damage to be repaired, this will mean a serious loss to the canners in this district.

Herring was reported plentiful on Saturday. We noticed some of our cod fishermen getting their boats ready for the season's operation. We understand that prices paid will be higher than last year.
