

CONGER COAL COY
Wholesale and Retail Dealers, 1111 Dundas St. W. Toronto, Ont.
OFFICE—KING ST. EAST.

EIGHTH YEAR
THE TORIERS TRIUMPHANT.

REPLY TO THE ADDRESS ADDED BY A LARGE MAJORITY.

The Parliament has an effort to prolong the debate, but a large majority of Liberals caught napping and badly beaten.

LONDON, Feb. 17.—In the House of Commons to-night Mr. Dilke (Liberal) moved to adjourn the debate on the address in reply to the Queen's speech for the purpose of discussing irregularities in the conspiracy trial at Dublin, by which the interests of certain members of the House of Commons were prejudiced.

The Speaker declined to put the motion or to permit debate on the subject. He said that according to a previous decision a motion to adjourn could not be put in a subject which involved a motion on the order book, and that as Mr. Sexton had already placed a motion referring to jury packing, Mr. Dilke's motion could not be entertained.

Mr. W. Vernon Harcourt said the Opposition did not desire to discuss the address in the way of the progress of business. He hoped the matter of procedure would not be made a party question.

Mr. Lansdowne objected to giving a blank check to the Government, thereby permitting them to do as they pleased with the discussion of the procedure rules. He did not think the Government was able to effect good legislation. He thought the Government was in his opinion to be made an educational agency.

An amendment that a day be granted for debating the Welsh Disestablishment Bill was carried by 261 to 138.

Mr. Parnell asked the Government to concede time to discuss his proposal for admitting Irish landowners to the franchise. He said it would be five weeks before the question could be brought before the House. He said he had no chance of being elected. He said he had no chance of being elected. He said he had no chance of being elected.

Mr. Parnell asked the Government to concede time to discuss his proposal for admit-
ting Irish landowners to the franchise. He said it would be five weeks be-
fore the question could be brought before
the House. He said he had no chance of
being elected. He said he had no chance of being elected.

THE TOLL-GATE WAR AT HAMILTON.

The Farmers who Demanded the York-street Bar Before the Court.
HAMILTON, Feb. 17.—At 3 o'clock this afternoon the trial of John R. McGee, C. Harper, Arthur Hunter, John Evans and George Miller for unlawfully tearing away part of the York-street toll-gate and damaging the Mayor's house, opened before the Police Magistrate. The defendants were represented by Mr. Lavery, and Mr. Waddell appeared for the prosecution. Charles Harper was also charged by J. N. Waddell with assault and cutting. The hearing was adjourned.

THE OLD MAN'S NOCTURNAL JAUNT AROUND TOWN.

A Famous Flying Trip to the West District —Before the North Enders.—Friday Evening, Feb. 17.—The old man's nocturnal jaunt around town was a very successful one. He was seen in the city at 7.45 last night from Hamilton over the Grand Trunk, and fifty minutes later. At the fall end of the train rolled Sir John Macdonald's private car.
The arrival was anxiously awaited by two rival political delegations, who were bolting to escort the Premier to meetings of their friends being held in different parts of the city. It had been previously arranged that the Old Man should speak at two of Mr. Boothby's gatherings, one over the Dow and the other in Yorkville. But the boys of St. John's Ward also wanted the Premier to visit Mr. Cook's banquet meeting which was being held in McBride's Hall, of varied matters. So they delegated Mr. Alf Smith and Mr. Boothby to meet the Premier at the Union Station and arrange matters.

THE BOSS' CAMPAIGNER.

ST. JOHN'S MACDONALD. The Bosses' campaigner did not like this interpretation, as they expected to monopolize the oratory of the Old Man for the evening. When the train called at about a quarter of eight he was met by a large number of his faithful, who were lounging around the depot.
The St. Matthew's Ward Conservative Executive Committee sent a R. Boulton, Robert Purveson, Ties Mitchell, John P. Smith and Joseph Brown as their Committee of Reception.

Mr. Boothby's party in the middle of the evening, and his appearance was anxiously awaited. A couple of followers were permitted to enter the apartment as they went. The Premier was quietly resting himself. He was once more, and his value to the cause was not to be found on the ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the ground.

Mr. Boothby's party in the middle of the evening, and his appearance was anxiously
awaited. A couple of followers were
permitted to enter the apartment as they
went. The Premier was quietly resting
himself. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground.

Mr. Boothby's party in the middle of the evening, and his appearance was anxiously
awaited. A couple of followers were
permitted to enter the apartment as they
went. The Premier was quietly resting
himself. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground.

Mr. Boothby's party in the middle of the evening, and his appearance was anxiously
awaited. A couple of followers were
permitted to enter the apartment as they
went. The Premier was quietly resting
himself. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground.

IT ECLIPSED THEM ALL.

THE ROYAL GRENADIERS' BALL AT HORTICULTURAL PAVILION.
Over One Thousand Ladies and Gentlemen Present.—A Magnificent Dinner—Sir Frederick Middleton Instructed with Honors —Decorations and Arrangements.
The swiftest, most fashionable and in every way the most successful ball that has helped to make Toronto society seasons for years past gay avails, was that given in the Pavilion Music Hall last night by the officers of the Royal Grenadiers. Truly it was a royal event to help commemorate the Queen's Jubilee year. People who had attended ball after ball, season after season, said that it was an eclipse compared with what you have before, not excluding the big military affairs that used to be given when the Regulars were stationed here. The extent and gorgeousness of the decorations, the splendid supper, the perfection of the entertainment, the beauty and richness of the ladies were evidence of the enterprise and wealth that exists in Toronto.
Four thousand invitations were issued and fully 1200 of the invited were present.

The decorations were on a scale of magnitude that eclipsed anything similar heretofore.
The Pavilion was literally transformed into a ball room so gorgeous in color and light that it seemed a pity it would not always remain so. Particular attention was paid to the decorations something different from the conventional and received ones of the past. What first struck the eye was a series of long, narrow, white and blue strips that reached from the floor to the ceiling. Half way up was a festoon of dark blue and white, and the other half was a circular spray of arms festooned in gold, consisting of a crown on which were two crossed swords, a pair of crossed swords, a pair of crossed swords, a pair of crossed swords, a pair of crossed swords.

The decorations were on a scale of magnitude that eclipsed anything similar heretofore.
The Pavilion was literally transformed
into a ball room so gorgeous in color and light
that it seemed a pity it would not always remain so. Particular attention was paid to
the decorations something different from
the conventional and received ones of the
past. What first struck the eye was a
series of long, narrow, white and blue
strips that reached from the floor to the
ceiling. Half way up was a festoon of dark
blue and white, and the other half was
a circular spray of arms festooned in
gold, consisting of a crown on which were
two crossed swords, a pair of crossed
swords, a pair of crossed swords, a pair of
crossed swords, a pair of crossed swords.

The decorations were on a scale of magnitude that eclipsed anything similar heretofore.
The Pavilion was literally transformed
into a ball room so gorgeous in color and light
that it seemed a pity it would not always remain so. Particular attention was paid to
the decorations something different from
the conventional and received ones of the
past. What first struck the eye was a
series of long, narrow, white and blue
strips that reached from the floor to the
ceiling. Half way up was a festoon of dark
blue and white, and the other half was
a circular spray of arms festooned in
gold, consisting of a crown on which were
two crossed swords, a pair of crossed
swords, a pair of crossed swords, a pair of
crossed swords, a pair of crossed swords.

The decorations were on a scale of magnitude that eclipsed anything similar heretofore.
The Pavilion was literally transformed
into a ball room so gorgeous in color and light
that it seemed a pity it would not always remain so. Particular attention was paid to
the decorations something different from
the conventional and received ones of the
past. What first struck the eye was a
series of long, narrow, white and blue
strips that reached from the floor to the
ceiling. Half way up was a festoon of dark
blue and white, and the other half was
a circular spray of arms festooned in
gold, consisting of a crown on which were
two crossed swords, a pair of crossed
swords, a pair of crossed swords, a pair of
crossed swords, a pair of crossed swords.

The decorations were on a scale of magnitude that eclipsed anything similar heretofore.
The Pavilion was literally transformed
into a ball room so gorgeous in color and light
that it seemed a pity it would not always remain so. Particular attention was paid to
the decorations something different from
the conventional and received ones of the
past. What first struck the eye was a series of long, narrow, white and blue
strips that reached from the floor to the
ceiling. Half way up was a festoon of dark
blue and white, and the other half was
a circular spray of arms festooned in
gold, consisting of a crown on which were
two crossed swords, a pair of crossed
swords, a pair of crossed swords, a pair of
crossed swords, a pair of crossed swords.

The decorations were on a scale of magnitude that eclipsed anything similar heretofore.
The Pavilion was literally transformed
into a ball room so gorgeous in color and light
that it seemed a pity it would not always remain so. Particular attention was paid to
the decorations something different from
the conventional and received ones of the
past. What first struck the eye was a series of long, narrow, white and blue
strips that reached from the floor to the
ceiling. Half way up was a festoon of dark
blue and white, and the other half was
a circular spray of arms festooned in
gold, consisting of a crown on which were
two crossed swords, a pair of crossed
swords, a pair of crossed swords, a pair of
crossed swords, a pair of crossed swords.

THE BOSS' CAMPAIGNER.

ST. JOHN'S MACDONALD. The Bosses' cam-
paigner did not like this interpretation, as
they expected to monopolize the oratory
of the Old Man for the evening. When
the train called at about a quarter of eight
he was met by a large number of his
faithful, who were lounging around the depot.
The St. Matthew's Ward Conservative Executive Committee sent a R. Boulton, Robert
Purveson, Ties Mitchell, John P. Smith and
Joseph Brown as their Committee of Reception.

Mr. Boothby's party in the middle of the
evening, and his appearance was anxiously
awaited. A couple of followers were
permitted to enter the apartment as they
went. The Premier was quietly resting
himself. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground.

Mr. Boothby's party in the middle of the evening, and his appearance was anxiously
awaited. A couple of followers were
permitted to enter the apartment as they
went. The Premier was quietly resting
himself. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground.

Mr. Boothby's party in the middle of the evening, and his appearance was anxiously
awaited. A couple of followers were
permitted to enter the apartment as they
went. The Premier was quietly resting
himself. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground.

Mr. Boothby's party in the middle of the evening, and his appearance was anxiously
awaited. A couple of followers were
permitted to enter the apartment as they
went. The Premier was quietly resting
himself. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground.

Mr. Boothby's party in the middle of the evening, and his appearance was anxiously
awaited. A couple of followers were
permitted to enter the apartment as they
went. The Premier was quietly resting
himself. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground.

Mr. Boothby's party in the middle of the evening, and his appearance was anxiously
awaited. A couple of followers were
permitted to enter the apartment as they
went. The Premier was quietly resting
himself. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground. He was once more, and his value
to the cause was not to be found on the
ground.

KEEPING UP THE WAR TALK.

A Vigorous Article in the North German
Gazette.—A Letter to Effect From a Bishop Telling the People in Effect that they Must Vote for the Government.
BERLIN, Feb. 17.—The North German Gazette says: The Liberal press continues to circulate, with its usual, the falsehood that Europe lives in a condition of most profound peace and that contrary statements are only made to intimidate the poor electors and influence the result of the election of the Septennate. In support of this assertion, reference is made to the declaration of Gen. von Schellendorf when he introduced the Army Bill in Reichstag.
The political horizon was totally different then. It has since become cloudy, solely in consequence of the attitude of the Opposition, whose unparliamentary conduct causes the conviction in France that Germany is weakened by her internal dissensions. She has the moment to attack Germany which has arrived. Gen. von Schellendorf's words introduced the Army Bill in Reichstag.
The political horizon was totally different
then. It has since become cloudy, solely in consequence of the attitude of the Opposition,
whose unparliamentary conduct causes the
conviction in France that Germany is weakened by her internal dissensions. She has
the moment to attack Germany which
has arrived. Gen. von Schellendorf's words
introduced the Army Bill in Reichstag.

They must need the Pope's Orders.
BERLIN, Feb. 17.—The Bishop of Metz in his Lenten pastoral declares that the dogma of Papal primacy imposes upon believers the duty of docility and obedience to the hierarchy of the church. He says that Catholics must conform to his directions and act in all things in accordance with his teachings.

DRIVE THROUGH THE JAIL FARM.
Ald. Macdonald's Proposition to the Property Committee.
"I want a sub-committee to go down and report on the advisability of opening up a drive through the Jail Farm," said Ald. Macdonald to the Property Committee yesterday afternoon, and he moved that Mayor Howland, Chairman Irwin, Ald. Wickert, Graham and himself be appointed a committee to look into the matter. Ald. Macdonald said that he knew that the Jail Farm was a waste of land, and that it would be better to open up a drive through it. He said that he had seen the Jail Farm, and that it was a waste of land. He said that he had seen the Jail Farm, and that it was a waste of land.

They Are Back Conservatives.
In view of the fact that the Reform press claim that the Conservatives are back, the Government has decided to issue a statement to the effect that the Conservatives are not back. The statement was issued yesterday afternoon. It said that the Conservatives were not back, and that the Government was not back. It said that the Conservatives were not back, and that the Government was not back. It said that the
Conservatives were not back, and that the Government was not back.

Not For Any Money Business.
"Well, what are Sheppard's chances in the election?" was asked of a prominent observer. "They don't amount to much. He may kick up a dust, but he won't get any money. He may kick up a dust, but he won't get any money. He may kick up a dust, but he won't get any money.
He may kick up a dust, but he won't get any money. He may kick up a dust, but he won't get any money. He may kick up a dust, but he won't get any money.

A Fanciful Sympathizer.
Editor World: As the Labor candidate, meeting St. Andrew's Hall Feb. 15, J. O'Donoghue, speaking for Mr. Sheppard, said in reference to Col. F. O. Denison: "You all know that the officers in the British Army have a fashion of standing in the rear of the man in battle, so to prevent any of them from running away." I want to ask if Mr.
Sheppard will enforce the statement of his friend's supporter, and if the morning news of West Toronto are any Fanciful Sympathizer.
My principles will always be against Toryism as represented by the British Army. I am entitled to the support of all loyal citizens in preference to any Fenian or Yankee sympathizer. I am entitled to the support of all loyal citizens in preference to any Fenian or Yankee sympathizer. I am entitled to the support of all loyal citizens in preference to any Fenian or Yankee sympathizer.

The Standard's Statement Denied.
Toronto Standard, Feb. 17.—In spite of the denial from the Standard, the Standard's statement that Sir John A. Macdonald reiterates his charges that $150,000 has been sent from Toronto to aid in the election of Denison is denied. The Standard's statement that Sir John A. Macdonald re-iterates his charges that $150,000 has been sent from Toronto to aid in the election of Denison is denied. The Standard's statement that Sir John A. Macdonald re-iterates his charges that $150,000 has been sent from Toronto to aid in the election of Denison is denied.

KEEPING UP THE WAR TALK.

A Vigorous Article in the North German
Gazette.—A Letter to Effect From a Bishop
Telling the People in Effect that they Must Vote for the Government.
BERLIN, Feb. 17.—The North German
Gazette says: The Liberal press continues to
circulate, with its usual, the falsehood that Europe lives in a condition of most profound
peace and that contrary statements are only
made to intimidate the poor electors and
influence the result of the election of the Septennate. In support of this as-
sertion, reference is made to the
declaration of Gen. von Schellendorf when
he introduced the Army Bill in Reichstag.
The political horizon was totally different
then. It has since become cloudy, solely in consequence of the attitude of the Opposition,
whose unparliamentary conduct causes the
conviction in France that Germany is weakened by her internal dissensions. She has
the moment to attack Germany which
has arrived. Gen. von Schellendorf's words
introduced the Army Bill in Reichstag.

They must need the Pope's Orders.
BERLIN, Feb. 17.—The Bishop of Metz in his
Lenten pastoral declares that the
dogma of Papal primacy imposes upon be-
lievers the duty of docility and obedience to
the hierarchy of the church. He says that Catholics must conform to his directions and act in
all things in accordance with his teachings.

DRIVE THROUGH THE JAIL FARM.
Ald. Macdonald's Proposition to the Property Committee.
"I want a sub-committee to go down and
report on the advisability of opening up a drive
through the Jail Farm," said Ald. Macdonald
to the Property Committee yesterday afternoon, and he moved that Mayor Howland,
Chairman Irwin, Ald. Wickert, Graham and
himself be appointed a committee to look into
the matter. Ald. Macdonald said that he knew that the Jail Farm was a waste of
land, and that it would be better to open up
a drive through it. He said that he had
seen the Jail Farm, and that it was a waste
of land. He said that he had seen the Jail
Farm, and that it was a waste of land.

They Are Back Conservatives.
In view of the fact that the Reform press
claim that the Conservatives are back, the Government has decided to issue a
statement to the effect that the Conservatives
are not back. The statement was issued
yesterday afternoon. It said that the
Conservatives were not back, and that the Government was not back. It said that the
Conservatives were not back, and that the Government was not back. It said that the
Conservatives were not back, and that the Government was not back.

Not For Any Money Business.
"Well, what are Sheppard's chances in the
election?" was asked of a prominent
observer. "They don't amount to
much. He may kick up a dust, but he
won't get any money. He may kick up a
dust, but he won't get any money. He may
kick up a dust, but he won't get any money.
He may kick up a dust, but he won't get
any money. He may kick up a dust, but he
won't get any money. He may kick up a
dust, but he won't get any money.

A Fanciful Sympathizer.
Editor World: As the Labor candidate,
meeting St. Andrew's Hall Feb. 15, J. O'Donoghue, speaking for Mr. Sheppard, said
in reference to Col. F. O. Denison: "You all know that the officers in the British Army
have a fashion of standing in the rear of the man in battle, so to prevent any of them
from running away." I want to ask if Mr.
Sheppard will enforce the statement of his
friend's supporter, and if the morning news
of West Toronto are any Fanciful Sympathizer.
My principles will always be against Toryism as represented by the British Army. I am
entitled to the support of all loyal citizens in
preference to any Fenian or Yankee
sympathizer. I am entitled to the support of all loyal citizens in preference to any Fenian
or Yankee sympathizer. I am entitled to the support of all loyal citizens in preference to
any Fenian or Yankee sympathizer.

The Standard's Statement Denied.
Toronto Standard, Feb. 17.—In spite of the
denial from the Standard, the Standard's statement that Sir John A. Macdonald re-
iterates his charges that $150,000 has been sent
from Toronto to aid in the election of Denison is denied. The Standard's statement
that Sir John A. Macdonald re-iterates his
charges that $150,000 has been sent from Toronto to aid in the election of Denison is
denied. The Standard's statement that Sir
John A. Macdonald re-iterates his charges
that $150,000 has been sent from Toronto
to aid in the election of Denison is denied.

COX & CO.,
STOCK BROKERS,
28 TORONTO ST.
Continuous market quotations by direct

PRICE ONE CENT

KEEPING UP THE WAR TALK.

A Vigorous Article in the North German
Gazette.—A Letter to Effect From a Bishop
Telling the People in Effect that they Must Vote for the Government.
BERLIN, Feb. 17.—The North German
Gazette says: The Liberal press continues to
circulate, with its usual, the falsehood that Europe lives in a condition of most profound
peace and that contrary statements are only
made to intimidate the poor electors and
influence the result of the election of the Septennate. In support of this as-
sertion, reference is made to the
declaration of Gen. von Schellendorf when
he introduced the Army Bill in Reichstag.
The political horizon was totally different
then. It has since become cloudy, solely in consequence of the attitude of the Opposition,
whose unparliamentary conduct causes the
conviction in France that Germany is weakened by her internal dissensions. She has
the moment to attack Germany which
has arrived. Gen. von Schellendorf's words
introduced the Army Bill in Reichstag.

They must need the Pope's Orders.
BERLIN, Feb. 17.—The Bishop of Metz in his
Lenten pastoral declares that the
dogma of Papal primacy imposes upon be-
lievers the duty of docility and obedience to
the hierarchy of the church. He says that Catholics must conform to his directions and act in
all things in accordance with his teachings.

DRIVE THROUGH THE JAIL FARM.
Ald. Macdonald's Proposition to the Property Committee.
"I want a sub-committee to go down and
report on the advisability of opening up a drive
through the Jail Farm," said Ald. Macdonald
to the Property Committee yesterday afternoon, and he moved that Mayor Howland,
Chairman Irwin, Ald. Wickert, Graham and
himself be appointed a committee to look into
the matter. Ald. Macdonald said that he knew that the Jail Farm was a waste of
land, and that it would be better to open up
a drive through it. He said that he had
seen the Jail Farm, and that it was a waste
of land. He said that he had seen the Jail
Farm, and that it was a waste of land.

They Are Back Conservatives.
In view of the fact that the Reform press
claim that the Conservatives are back, the Government has decided to issue a
statement to the effect that the Conservatives
are not back. The statement was issued
yesterday afternoon. It said that the
Conservatives were not back, and that the Government was not back. It said that the
Conservatives were not back, and that the Government was not back. It said that the
Conservatives were not back, and that the Government was not back.

Not For Any Money Business.
"Well, what are Sheppard's chances in the
election?" was asked of a prominent
observer. "They don't amount to
much. He may kick up a dust, but he
won't get any money. He may kick up a
dust, but he won't get any money. He may
kick up a dust, but he won't get any money.
He may kick up a dust, but he won't get
any money. He may kick up a dust, but he
won't get any money. He may kick up a
dust, but he won't get any money.

A Fanciful Sympathizer.
Editor World: As the Labor candidate,
meeting St. Andrew's Hall Feb. 15, J. O'Donoghue, speaking for Mr. Sheppard, said
in reference to Col. F. O. Denison: "You all know that the officers in the British Army
have a fashion of standing in the rear of the man in battle, so to prevent any of them
from running away." I want to ask if Mr.
Sheppard will enforce the statement of his
friend's supporter, and if the morning news
of West Toronto are any Fanciful Sympathizer.
My principles will always be against Toryism as represented by the British Army. I am
entitled to the support of all loyal citizens in
preference to any Fenian or Yankee
sympathizer. I am entitled to the support of all loyal citizens in preference to any Fenian
or Yankee sympathizer. I am entitled to the support of all loyal citizens in preference to
any Fenian or Yankee sympathizer.

The Standard's Statement Denied.
Toronto Standard, Feb. 17.—In spite of the
denial from the Standard, the Standard's
statement that Sir John A. Macdonald reiterates his charges that $150,000 has been sent
from Toronto to aid in the election of Denison is denied. The Standard's statement
that Sir John A. Macdonald re-iterates his
charges that $150,000 has been sent from Toronto to aid in the election of Denison is
denied. The Standard's statement that Sir
John A. Macdonald re-iterates his charges
that $150,000 has been sent from Toronto
to aid in the election of Denison is denied.