List of the Victims of the Avalanches QUEBEC, Sept. 20.—The horrors of the dreafful day are still succeeding each other. While workers were busy clearing away the debris of a crumbled building faint groans were heard at intervals from under the huge pile of rock. The efforts of the volum were concentrated to that point, and after three hours' hard work the bleeding body of Joe Kemp was extricated from the mass of rock. The poor man was in the most miser. able condition. Both legs were broken at the knees, the left arm was fractured above the elbow and several ribs were also fract Kemp will not live. He is unc Two hours later his wife's body was taken out of the wreck. Her head was almost severed from the body, and indications of the most revolting and violent death were appar-offered to sight. The corpse of a young woman, Mrs. Lawson, who had been admired in her lifetime both for her beauty and on which about ten tons of stones were lying was smashed almost flat. The abdomen s ripped open, her entrails were scattered out. Her husband, at the sight of his be-ed wife's remains, became frantic and is customs at Port Ruron, Mich., recently refused free entry of a carriage of domestic manufacture shipped from Chicago to Hamilton Ont., in the absence of the certif. cate of clearance which he held to be required by article 3% of the general regulations. The importers explained they were unable to procure this certificate for the reason that no clearance is required for goods fhipped to Canada by rail or ferry boat. Secretary Windom has instructed the collector to waive the production of such certificate in this and all similar cases arising at Port Huron and to admit domestic manufactures and products arriving from Canada to resentiny on the production of the other proofs inquired by the regulations, if satisfied of their dentity as domestic goods.
