WEAR OVERALLS

The wearing of overalls is already making its mark in Bridgetown as well as all over Canada and the United States.

A VALUABLE PROPERTY

The Sunnyside Farm, Clarence Changes Hands

BEAUTIFUL GOLD DECORATION

The following communication was received last week by Mrs. Harry Hayward, accompanied by a beautiful gold decoration won by her late husband on the battlefield of France.

HAD HONEST FOLLOWERS

A prominent merchant coming down town on a breezy day last week was hailed by a lot of followers who were busy gathering up money which had fallen from his clothing as he passed.

OUR TEMPORARY BRIDGE

There are kickers and knockers in every town, one of whom has found Mrs. W. H. Beckwith's temporary bridge across the river in this town seems likely to become a permanent one for several years, etc.

Local Happenings

Baptism was administered to several candidates in the Baptist Church Sunday evening.

We wish to call particular attention to the late ball meeting advertised for Friday evening at 7.30.

Salmon fishing has commenced at Round Hill. Out of five seen in the pool on Tuesday one was captured.

The Baptist women of the W. M. A. S. will meet at the home of Mrs. E. C. Hall on Tuesday evening May 4th, 1920 at 7.30 p. m.

The "Action of Souls" drew large audiences at both shows last Friday evening notwithstanding the very disagreeable weather.

Mr. J. W. DeWolfe has the agency in Kings and Annapolis Counties for the Maxwell car. See advertisement in another column.

A full attendance of the Third Degree Team is especially requested in Crescent Lodge, I. O. O. F., to-morrow (Thursday) evening.

Mr. J. E. Lloyd has purchased the property at Round Hill, formerly, Granville Street East and will remove the same as soon as possible.

A meeting of the Lawn Tennis Club will be held in the Board of Trade rooms this (Wednesday) evening at 8 o'clock. A full attendance is requested.

Mr. James White has sold his place at Margraville to John Hawkins of Victoria Vale and he and Mrs. White are to move to their farm at Brooklyn East.

Annapolis Spectator: The old station ground is becoming piled up with apple-wood-logs and the mill for cutting them into lengths is being erected near the tracks.

Mr. Parker Whitman has bought a demonstration car and will sell Gray-Dorts in Annapolis and Digby counties having been appointed an agent by Mr. F. E. Bath, local dealer.

We are informed that two retired soldiers, Capt. G. B. and Capt. L. A. have purchased the mercantile business of Power Limited at Kingston and are to take possession May 10th.

Mr. Abner Williams last week purchased 23 head of nice cattle at Lower Granville. He also sold a valuable old horse to Mr. J. A. Taylor at Chisholm, at Granville Ferry.

Truro News: Two car loads of exceptionally large and fine quality hard pine for the D. A. R. are at the Station here today. This timber will be used in the construction of a new bridge at Bear River, N. S.

The overall brigade has struck Bridgetown. Two gentlemen attended Baptist church Sunday in full uniform. Monday morning several local people put on overalls, including the MONITOR staff from "Devil" to Manager.

The will of the late Rufus W. J. J. of Annapolis leaves an estate of $25,000. His bequests include $1,000 to each of his grand children, and $500 for a monument to his memory; the balance to his son Bert.

The officers and members of Crescent Lodge, I. O. O. F. will attend service in the Bridgetown Presbyterian church next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The members are requested to meet in their lodge room at 2 o'clock sharp.

A death list of more than 140, and a property loss of many millions of dollars, was the toll exacted by a tornado which swept a score of towns, villages and isolated farms in Eastern Mississippi, Alabama and part of Tennessee on Tuesday.

Mr. L. B. Dodge, of Middleton, recently sold a Ford one ton truck to the Maritime Tel. & Tel. Co. This Company has had one in service here for two years and it must have "delivered the goods". See his advertisement in another column.

Rev. H. R. Grant gave an interesting lecture last Thursday evening. Rev. E. Underwood, was appointed president and Rev. M. S. Richardson, Secy. to call another meeting to complete the organization of a Social Service Council for Bridgetown.

Mr. Herbert Hicks' auction has been postponed until tomorrow. Owing to the stormy weather which prevailed last Saturday only a few things were sold. All the important articles were left over for tomorrow. See ads in another column.

On the departure from Sydney Mines of Rev. A. Gibson to take up the Baptist pastorate at Annapolis Royal he was presented by the church and Sunday School he was leaving with an address and a cheque exceeding $100, also a purse of $60 on behalf of citizens not connected with his congregation.

At the meeting of the Farmers' Field in Truro last week in connection with the United Farmers' Association the following officers were elected: Pres. Harry Taggart, of Fort Belcher; 1st Vice-Pres. A. E. McMahon, of Kentville; 2nd Vice-Pres. D. R. Nicholson, of Coxheath, Secty.-Gen. F. A. Chipman, of Annapolis; and R. E. Leonard, of Clarence was elected director.

Yarmouth Herald: Last week an Annapolis Valley produce shipper carried one large cargo of turnips to the Campbell Soup Canneries in Camden, New Jersey. This is the first shipment of Annapolis Valley produce ever forwarded to that concern and will no doubt be the initiator of an extensive trade when the splendid quality of Nova Scotia vegetables is realized by those world-famed packers.
