EAST INDIAN DRAMA PRESENTED

Memorial Tablet Placed at Fort Anne. Vice-Prin. Steadman Re-signs.—Other Notes.

Annapolis Royal.—An interesting little East Indian drama entitled, "Those Strange Ways," was given by the members of the Junior W. A. at St. Luke's Sunday School house on Easter Monday, and over twenty dollars realized by the silver collection. The girls taking part—Thelma Cummings, Florence Cole, Katherine Owen, Marion Robinson, Marcelle Gorham, Margaret Amey, Elizabeth King, Jane Thorpe, Muriel Barnjum, Robert McCormick, Bertha Barnjum, Alice Hudson and Addie Spurr—had been carefully trained by Miss Charlotte Perkins and Mrs. R. P. Gorham, and all performed their parts well. The costumes, which were most effective, had been arranged by Mrs. W. C. MacPherson, who at one time resided in India. Mrs. R. S. Miller presided at the organ and Mrs. E. W. Robinson and Mrs. P. C. Gilliat also assisted. Much interest was taken in the first public appearance of Hortense and Courtney Gilliat, and Dorothy and Harry Howe, who sang their little songs in a most charming manner. Miss Katherine Owen recited most pleasingly "Little Bateese," and a pretty chorus was rendered by the Misses Eleanor McCormick, Barbara Williams, Yetta Cronk, Annie Nelson and Helen Rawdson.

WORK BOARD BANQUET TUXIS

Very Nice Programme Carried Out Consisting of Addresses, Readings and Songs.

A very enjoyable evening was spent in the United church vestry on Thursday last the 18th inst., when the Work Board of Bridgetown entertained the Tuxis Boys of the three churches of the town. The Board was fully represented and there were thirty-one boys present.

CENTRAL CLARENCE

The Easter meeting of the W. M. A. S. was held at the vestry on Monday afternoon the 13th. An interesting program was given. At the close a 10 cent tea was served, proceeds for home missions. The Easter offering amounted to $14.60. This amount will probably be increased as several of the members were absent from the meeting.

BELLEISLE.

A number of the lady friends of Mrs. Eugene P. Troop gathered at her home on Wednesday afternoon, April 14th and gave her a surprise. The occasion being her eightieth birthday. A very pleasant time was enjoyed by all present, delightful refreshments were served, after which "Aunt Nettie" was given a shower of post cards from friends in Halifax, Bridgetown, Lower Granville, Tupperville, Granville Ferry and Boston. Also a number of personal gifts among which were two elegant bouquets of flowers. Although taken wholly by surprise Mrs. Troop received her guests in her usual hospitable manner. Miss Gentle Troop was assisted in serving her mothers guests by Mrs. Hugh A. Troop, Mrs. Rupert Troop and Miss Cora J. M. Parker, and little Miss LaVaughn Troop, great-granddaughter of Mrs. Troop passed chocolate. After a very pleasant afternoon the guests left for their homes wishing Mrs. Troop many happy returns of the day.

NOTES AND NEWS OF LAWRENCETOWN

Improvements About Town.—Large Number of Visitors.—Play Well Patronized.—Social and Personal Items.

Lawrencetown.—Mr. Aubrey Whitman has gone to visit friends in Canada. Mrs. A. Whitman has been spending some time with her parents, Capt. and Mrs. Williams. Mr. and Mrs. W. Bent came home on Monday, both look very well. Mrs. J. Bancroft and her son Wilford went on Monday to Port Williams. Mr. and Mrs. L. Beals and their children Allen and Phillis spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Balcom. Mrs. L. Shaffner, sister of Mrs. E. Phinney, left for Boston on Tuesday. Mr. L. Durling and Mrs. J. Slack are busy with work in Clarence. Mrs. Leta Hanley is taking a course in nursing. This lady has passed a recent examination and has made a high average. Miss Mary Balcom has been assisting in the Post Office, Lawrencetown. Mr. and Mrs. F. Walker, Florida, will spend the summer in Nova Scotia. Mrs. Mary Durling is at present in Middleton. Mrs. F. Whitman, Meadowvale, has spent some time at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. Foster. Paul Rackham gave a fine violin selection in the Methodist church Sunday evening. This young man is a pupil of Miss Jefferson. Mrs. S. Hanna went home for the holidays and has been rather poorly. We hope she will soon return to town. Visitors at the home of Mrs. F. Bishop are a sister, Mrs. T. Isnor, and a brother, Mr. Balcom, all from Halifax. From school, college and business office, young people have been in the home for a short time. No one can tell how glad parents and friends were to see them. Some busy housekeepers have finished the formidable business of house cleaning. Church services have been well attended.

PARADISE.

A leaflet called the "Empty Pen" has made an appeal to non-churchgoers, and caused home heart-searchings, also made some resolve to be in their pews every Sunday. A walk to the west end of Lawrencetown was a real pleasure. The new platform at the railway will save one from making a high jump as in days gone by. Then the large orchards have been put in good cultivation. The streets clean, the dismal swamp near the railway, has been drained, and the jungle of bush burned. The lawns have been cared for, foot bridges made secure and where needed, grounds nicely graded. Tuesday Mr. Rufus Elliott, formerly of Lawrencetown, was buried. Tuesday the noon train from Halifax had a bad accident, engine and tender upset at the McLeod crossing. One man was painfully injured, but no lives were lost. This crossing is a dangerous one and several motor accidents have happened there. Some of the passengers had a sad time. One young lady had lost her mother in an accident some months past. A gentleman had been called home to see a son, who was ill, near death. Another gentleman had been in three railway accidents this year. While standing by the roadside a gentleman was knocked down by a motor truck but was not much hurt. A neat fence is to be placed round the Anglican church. Mrs. R. Stevenson was in town on Thursday. Miss C. Fraser also spent a few hours calling on friends. The gold case of a watch was found near the railway wreck. It can be recovered at the Lawrencetown Railway station. Mrs. McLearn has gone to Moncton to attend the quarterly meeting of the Baptist W. F. M. S. Mrs. Mary Wheelock has friends spending some time with her. Visitors have been also at the home of Mrs. R. L. Morse. Mrs. (Rev.) A. H. Whitman has gone to Sydney. She will soon return accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Grant. The play Wednesday night by young people was very good. The storm was quite severe, but the theatre was well filled. Mrs. F. M. Bishop received her

PARADISE.

The Church Aid held a supper and entertainment in the vestry of the church on Tuesday evening, which was a financial success to the extent of $18.50. Mrs. Durling of Lawrencetown, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Leonard. Mrs. Ralph Beard and Miss Alice Jackson left for the U. S. on Tuesday last after spending the winter with their parents. Miss Beeler of Clementsport, is visiting her friend, Miss Gladys Messenger. The young people enjoyed a sing-song at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Longley on Friday evening. Anthony Banks has returned home after spending the winter at the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph. Mr. Reese Foster and family have taken up their residence here, having rented part of Mrs. A. Starrast's house. Fred Balcom has returned from Falkland Ridge, where he has been spending the past three months. Miss Elsie Whyton is visiting at her home in Albany.

C. W. OLIVER, MANUFACTURER OF SHOES, DIES AT LYNN.

Lynn, Mass.—Charles W. Oliver, 59, a prominent shoe manufacturer, died early Sunday at his home, 371 Chatham St., following a lingering illness. Born in Granville Ferry, N. S., Mr. Oliver received his education in the public schools there, and came to this city when a young man. He entered the shoe business, for several years conducting a factory at 577 Washington St. He was prominently identified in club circles of this city, and was a member of the Superintendent and Foreman's Association. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Lullie A. Oliver of Lynn.—(Boston "Globe" April 13th, 1925.)

In the list furnished us for last week's issue of those contributing cash to the purchase of vegetables for the Relief Car to Cape Breton the name of Mr. A. M. Lyceat, contributing $1.00 was inadvertently omitted. Inverness Imperial Screened Coal, J. H. Longmire & Sons.

Town Topics Tid-bits on the Tip of Everybodys Tongue Vol. 2, No. 38. BRIDGETOWN, APRIL 22ND, 1925. FREE. Printer's Ink The most important magazine in its field the world over devotes a page to Motr's Bridge Box, praising its "attractive and colorful cover" and the idea of enclosing playing cards and score sheets with a pound of chocolates. Presidents of large American corporations, managers, and other officials have written to Motr ordering the Bridge Box as a gift for bridge friends and a prize at games. So occasionally a Maritime industry can pioneer not merely for Canada, but the continent. Of course Motr's Chocolates themselves proved that long ago.
