Reply to Dr. Preston's Letter.

I have given the above extracts from the writings of Hahnemann, in vindication of the remarks I made in my lecture, not in a spirit of opposition to believers in homeopathy — they have a perfect right to their opinion, and I doubt not they will grant me the same privilege.

W. BAYARD, M. D., ETC.

St. John, Feb. 23, 1884.

ximity resemtagion deed !!! eighths nce in lage of ed porch.m Itch r of all under is, epis of all rowths, e, stome, eaterd kinds, , as pee lungs." " "that it may l in perthirtieth course of essary to thirtieth chout the of linen

ne, which cedless to