CHERRY RIPE.

Lizette is a poor emigrant child who tries to earn a little money by selling fruit at the ferry steamboat wharves of the great city of New York. She once lived in the sunny land of Italy. But her parents became so poor that they had to leave their dear native land with its blue skies to seek a living in the great new world of America. They were very sorry to leave Italy, and even now shed many tears when they think of it. They have had to struggle hard to get food, for there are so many poor in New York.

However, they are good honest people who try to get work. Little Lizette has been very successful with her fruit. Some people call her "Cherry Ripe" because she is so pretty and has such beautiful cherries to sell.

BE TRUTHFUL.

Says Robert Burdette, "How people do trust a truthful boy! We never worry about him when he is out of sight. We never say, 'I wonder where he is; I wish I knew what he is doing; I wonder whom he is with; I wonder why he doesn't come home.' Nothing of the sort. We know that he is all right, and that when he comes home we shall know all about it, and get it straight. We don't have to ask him where he is going and how long he will be gone every time he leaves the house. We don't have to call him back and make him 'solemnly promise' the same thing over and over two or three times. When he says, 'Yes, I will,' or 'No, I won't,' just once, that settles it."
